Gertie and the worldly-wise Bess laughed at their younger sister's enthusiasm.

"Now there's Rex Lyon, for instance," persisted Eve, absolutely refusing to be silenced. "I wager a box of the best kid gloves either one of you would marry him tomorrow, if he were to ask you, if he hadn't a penny in his pocket."

"Pshaw!" reiterated Gertie, and Bess murmured something about absurd ideas; but nevertheless both sisters were blushing furiously to the very roots of their hair. They well knew in their hearts what she said was perfectly true.

"Eve," said Bess, laying her hand "Gertie and I want you to promise us something. Come, now, consent that you will do as we wish, that's a good girl."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh (are is the only positive cure now known to the medical traternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken inter nally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in ts curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure Send for list of testimonials.
