WEDDING AT CHATHAM :- On the evening of Friday last, the marriage of Captain David Bette and Miss Mary A. Haviland, daughter of the late Thomas Haviland, was solemnized in St. Mary's church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Forsyth. and after the happy couple were made one, they took their departure for their future sesidence in Moorfield.

THE SEASON :- The first few days of the present month were mild and pleasant, and, owing to the glare of the sun and warm wind from the south, the snow was rapidly disappearing from our streets. On Sunday night, we had a change in the shape of an old fashioned snow-storm, which lasted during the night and gave our streets a heavy coat of snow. Since then the weather has been cold, with the wind from the north which has landed us once more in the lap of winter.

FIRE ALARMS :- Since our last issue, we have had two alarms of fire in Chatham, but fortunately they were quickly extinguished. Between eleven and twelve on the morning of Friday last, fire was discovered in the roof of the blacksmith shop of Ruddock's Foundry, but before it had done any damage or made much headway, it was put out.

On Sunday evening, just as the churches were being dismissed, the fire alarm sounded. This time the tire was in the millinery store of Mrs. L. K. Lloyd. Owing to some cause the stove pipe parted, and a spark dropped into a box of goods, setting them on fire. This was quickly extinguished, however, before any more damage was done.

A LAKE CAPTAIN'S EXPERIENCE :- Capt. McDonald, one of Kingston's most prominent mariners, writes : "For years I have battled with the agonies of Bronchitic Asthma, oftentimes so bad that I could not sleep for nights at a time. I spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and quacks without getting reiief, but one dollar's worth of Cata rhozone perfectly cured me." The above testimonial was given two years ago, and as The Captain lately stated he was still quite free from Bronchitis, it proves Catarrhozone a veritable specific. LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR SNOWBALL'S RESIDENCE AT FREDERICTON.

The New Uniform for Officers.

An army order has just been published with the new orders of uniform for officers, making drastic changes throughout the army, with the exception of the Household Troops, and in some cases Highlanders and Rifle Regiments. The dress is restricted

(a) A full or ceremonial uniform. (b) A universal service dress for wear

(c) A mess dress; and a forage cap and frock coat. me of a country which was very dear to us out the service, cloth stripes only being allowed and which are to be sewn on, not let in, to the garment. The full dress tunic is retained, but rank will not be shown as at present by braiding on the sle ves, all ranks being alike, and the sleeve as now used by lieutenants of infantry being worn. The skirt of tunic is to be made with three pointed slashes and the red silk web waist such to be worn, while the sword belt is to be under the tunic. The gold sash and belt

The present undress is now obsolete, and the new service dress of brown drab is authorized instead. For mess dress the roll collar jacket is to be used, without piping, gold lace, braiding or buttons; badges of rank are wern on shoulder straps of the same color as the jacket, and waistcoats are to be open in front. Artillery are to have blue cloth toll collars, Hussars red or buff, and C. P. Hickey, 9 Infantry according to regimental facings. The great coat is to be of drab brown cloth and cut loose. Forage caps are to be like the naval cap or staff pattern. The band of cap is to be scarlet for Artillery, blue velvet for Engineers, black for Infantry except Royal Regiments, which wear red; green for Light Infantry, cherry for Army Medical Corps. Badges are worn as usual on the caps. The frock coat is of blue cloth with double row of buttons and stand-up collar, the skirt reaching to the knees; the web waistbelt is worn under the waist girdie.

Uniform for Army Chaplains is abolished The new regulations, it is understood will cheapen the expenses of officers, but the present uniforms may be worn by officers now in the army for a short time till worn

The changes do not app'y to Canada, and t is not likely that they will be adopted here entirely, though, no doubt, gold lace, etc., will be abolished.

A London press despatch says :-

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's presence becomes quality of commercial fertilizers, and the especially important since the Australian results have clearly demonstrated that, Premiers are begging off on one pretext or another. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Barton will be the chief colonial representatives and will have the places of honor in the Abbey and probably at both conventions Lord Strathcona will probably occupy a seat among the peers.

The minor colonial officials are not more likely than the secretaries of the regular diplomatic embassies to obtain entrance to the Abbey. The secretaries of the American Embassy here frankly admit that they will be unable to obtain seats in the Abbey or special privileges for American visitors. The facilities for seeing the processions outside will be ample and tourists need no make ar: angements until the last moment.

Our Supply of Some Foreign Crown

The following article is from the pen of Mr. G. H. Clark, B. S. A., Chief of the Seed Division, Department of Agriculture. If the farmers of Canada were acquainted with the sources of supply of their root crop seeds, and the avenues through which they pass before reaching them. they would be a great deal more particular when making their purchases.

Practically, all the seed for our root crops is grown in foreign countries. However important it may be that the seed for such crops be grown in the country where it is wanted for sowing, the chesp labor in those European countries, which have become the seed gardens of the world, has made the seed growing indus-Poor blood, weak nerves, a tired brain. For instance, an ideal turnip is one having a small neck, and top growth Such a root when planted will produce a comparative y small growth of stalks, and consequently a small amount of seed, but the seed from such a root is apt to produce a crop lke the mother root which was planted. On the other hand a small turnip having several root prongs, and an excessive growth of top coming from two transmit its like through the seed to the next crop. Seed can be grown from such roots much more cheaply than from The Victoria, B. C. During the last ten or fifteen years the seed trade has, to a great extent, been passing from the hands of seedsmen who It is now denied that the Welsh settlers | devo: e all their time to a stuly of seeds and the seed trade, into the hands of local dealers. Unfortunately, fair competition in the seed trade, is practically impossible, since the appearance of most commercial seeds is but a slight indication of their real value. The competition has been, and is too largely confined to prices alone. Farmers continue to patronize the local dealer who is able to quote a low price for his goods. The local dealer demaids a The marine court of enquiry into the loss low priced seed of the wholesale firms, and in turn there has been a growing strife among wholesale seed firms in the buying of cheap goods, with which to supply local dealers.

It is well to mention, however, that through the progressive spirit of some reliable seed houses a limited trade of the best stocks of root crops seeds has been fostered, and there is little difficulty experienced among intelligent farmers in geting the best quality of seeds, provided that they go the right way about it, and are willing to pay a commensurate price But much of the root crop seeds, so dia Canada are retailed to the farmer at a price quite as low as our Caralian seed houses have to pay reputed European seed growers for the best seed from selected pedigreed stock.

USE OF COVER CROPS AND FERTILI

Prof. I. P. Roberts, of Cornell University, says :-- Cover crops may, in a measure, take the place of fertilizers and manures. They are not, however, a universal panacea for all soil deficiencies, neither are they a full substitute in all cases for fertilizers. There is always a wide field for the profitable use of one and all on the concentrated forms of fertilizers named, and in many cases there is also a special place for the use of fertilizers, therefore the more need of honest goods Commercial fertil zers furnish available plant food, but no humus. The cover crop turnishes both, but it is only fair to say that the plant foods in the former are more available than in the latter.
