FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT :-- Mrs Fill more, mother-iu-law of R A Brown, I C R station agent at Bloomfield, and Brown's five-year-old son were instantly killed Monday afternoon shortly after three o'clock by the Pacific express from Halifax for St John. The old lady attempted to hurry with the boy across the track in front of the on-coming train when there did not seem to be any reason for her doing so,

PATRONISE THE FIREMEN :- The Chatham firemen intend to hold a dance on Monday evening next as a celebration of the 24 holiday, Saturday night not being a suitable one for such events. The proceeds are to go into their fund for disabled members and the object, together with the firemen's general claims on the good will and assistance of citizens, ought to result in a very liberal patronage.

ACCIDENT AT SEA :- A Bathurst despatch of 16th says :- "Steamer Mangara, Capt. Blackburn, from Glasgow, arrived in port westerday afternoon. The captain reports on the 9th inst., while Second Mate Wm. McPherson was working at the winch his coat caught in the rope and took him three times around the burrel. On examination his injuries were found to be very serious. His body is terribly bruised and hip bone fractured. His recovery is considered very doubtful. He is now at the Marine Hospital under the care of Dr Duncan, port physician.

BURNED :- Mr. W L.T. Weldon is partially disabled by having had his hands burned on Wednesday evening of last week, while extinguishing the blizing clothing of his four year-old daughter, who, with her little brother, had been playing near the kitchen stove. Mrs. Weldon is suffering smila ly from the same cause. The parents, who were in an adjoining room were attracted by the children's cries and hastening to the kitchen
