of the papers have been leading people to believe that the trout, and even salmon, are "up." It isn't true. Salmon and trout are being taken, but it is all done in tide-water with either nets or bait. If the weather becomes warm again, we may have flyfishing at such points as Indiantown and the Ox Bow in Miramichi waters by 1st June : at tide-head on the Nepisguit and Egan's on the Bartibog about 24th May and at Christopher Brook and similar points on the Restigouche about same time, but the opening of trout fishing will not be relatively as early as that of navigation was.

Fly-fishing for salmon is expected to be week earlier than usual.

His Lordship Bishop Kingdon left for England on Saturday, 3rd, as a passenger on the Parisian from Quebec. He expects to be absent from the Docese about two months. During his absence the clergy are to apply n all legal matters to the Chancellor of the Diocese, Mr. T. W. Carlton Allen, Freder icton, and, in other matters of minor detail to the secretary of the Board of Missions, Rev. J. D. W. Cowie, Sussex. His Lord ship was presented with a purse of $1,000the gift of the Diocese-before leaving.

The Bishop anticipated spending most of the time during his stay abroad in London with his brother, one of the leading surgeons of that city. He has quite recovered from the immediate effects of his recent severe illness, but is yet weak and unable to attend to the onerous duties of his high position. He will spend the time of his trip abroad quiatly and hopes to fully recuperate. He anticipates being back in time for the Sypod meeting.

crops is to produce from a given area as large a quantity as possible of the digestible nutriments in a palatable form. The time at which a forage crop is harvested may affect the crop in three ways, viz .- in the quantity of material harvested, in the composition of the crop, and in the palatibility of the fodder. As a general rule it has been found that the greatest amount of dry matter s secured where forage crops are allowed to fully mature and ripen. The only exception | 76 and the run to Moncton resumed. QUANTITY AND QUALITY. It does not follow that when a plant | delayed increases in its yield of dry matter that its nutritive value has proportionately increased. It is quite possible that changes in texture and composition of the dry subject may offset the greater yield. The dry matter of mature grass contains a larger proportion of crude fibre than the immature. The plant hardens in texture and loses in both palatability and digestibility. It is.

Chemical analysis has shown points of interest in the eastern world, that plants are richer in protein in the earlier stages of growth that when fully grown or nearly mature. The chief drawback with which our feeders have to contend is the lack of portein in the rations made up of our common feeding stuffs, and they should recognize the fact that by cutting early, they can get two crops of highly nitrogenous fodder, where they only get one by late cutting.
