Newfoundland and the Dominion. We print, in another column, an article from the Gloucester, Mass. Times, on the subject of the proposed union of Newfoundland with Canada. The Gloucester paper presents, perhaps, the strongest existing argument in favor of the inclusion of the old colony in the Canadian confederation. Ald. Nicol cited the case of a man whose prest on execution for a fourth offence wa suspended on account of the man's ill health. as per a doctor's cert ficate.

Ald. Murray said a case of this kind di not excuse a policeman from service of the execution in the proper time. The policemen had no discretion in the matter of service. They must serve or return the execution to the police magistrate.

The Mayor said he was glad he had started the discussion and hoped that steps would be taken to secure a better enforcement of the law for the rest of the summer. There had been entirely too much drunkenness in evidence on the streets of late and too much laxity in the prosecution of offenders against
