CAPTAIN AKERLEY'S DEATH : - The death occurred about 1.30 o'clock Christmas morn ing. at the residence of D. J. McLanghlun, S. John, of Captain Moses A. Akerley, of Fredericton. The nature of his demise was exceptionally sad. He had arrived from Fredericton in apparently good health, and went Christmas eve to Mr. McLaughlin's home. "Heart failure" was said to be the cause of death. Mr. Akerley was one of the old steamboat men of the St. John river, and one of the best known and most highly respected citizins of Fredericton. M.s. Akerley survives him.
