NERVOUS TROUBLES.

MAKES LIFE A SOURCE OF CONSTANT MISERY.

The Sufferer is Constantly Tired and Depressed, Will Startle at the Slightest Noise, and is Easily Irritated.

There is no torture more acute and intolerable than nervousness. A nervous person is in a state of constant irritation by day and sleeplessness by noise; is oppressed by a feeling that

A STRANGE FUNERAL. An unusual sight was witnessed at a funeral at Horsell, near Woking, England, the body being drawn to the churchyard in a four-wheeled farm wagon painted red and /blue, and attached to which were a couple of farm horses. The funeral was that of Mr. Richard Brettell, solicitor, of Chertsey, and it was his last request that he should be conveyed in this manner to the grave. The journey from Chertsey to Horsell occupied two and a half hours, and six farm laborers walked beside the wagon the whole distance, in addition to which they bore the coffin from the vehicle into the church. with a severe case of Eczema and Nettle Rash, which spread over my whole body. The itching and stinging at times was almost unendurable. I wrote Professor Adkin, and in four days after I began following the free advice he gave me the itching began to subside and the eruptions dried up rapidly. In ten days I was permanently cured. I feel better now than I have for the past ten years. The free advice Professor Adkin gives is a blessing to those who cannot afford to pay big doctors'

Professor Adkin says: "I sympathize wit'i the sick. I want to make every chronic I want to prove what my treatment will do. I want every sick per-on in this country to write me personally. Tell me the leading symptoms of your disease and I will at once make a thorough diagnosis of your case and outline a method of treatment which will positively cure you. This will cost you absolutely nothing. I will also send you a copy of my new book on 'How to Get Well and Keep Well, postage prepaid. You are not out a single cent. Write me in confidence fully and freely about yourself." Address PROF. THOS. F ADKIN, Office 567 N., Rochester. N. Y.

The Publisher of the Best Farmer's paper in the Maritime Provinces in writing to us states: I would say that I do not know of a medicine that has stood the test of time like MINARD'S LINIMENT. It has been an unfailing remedy in our household ever since I can remember, and has outlived dozens of would be competitors and imitations.
