Rev. Geo. S. Anderson's Success.

The Somerville, Mass., "Journal" of 26th ult., has an interesting report of the exercises of the 9th anniversary of the Highland Congregational Sunday School, which was held in the church. The pastor is Rev. Geo. S Anderson, formerly of Douglastown and Chatham, and it is evident from the account of this S. S. celebration that his ministry has been a great success. The whole church was elaborately decorated with flowers and there were 140 children on the platform. The programme was largely a musical one but included an address on "The world's great need," by Mr. Anderson, and of which the Journal speaks in very high terms. The offerings on the occasion were $907.81 -an indication of the strength of the church in temporal matters.

Moncton vs. Chatham

"Sport" writes from Chatham to th Moncton Times, as follows: "We saw in the columns of your paper that the Moneton boys won one of the two games which was played here on Saturday, June 26th, between the Victors of Moncton and the Sports of this town; also that Ramsay pitched. We wish you to correct this statement, as it is false. Ramsay's own sense told him that the visiting team was too light for him to pitch against, and so he did not enter the box. The Moncton boys are a very gentlemanly lot and expressed their thanks at the way they were treated by the Sports. Now, if when they return home they insert false statements in the paper, they will soon lose the high esteem in which they were held by the people of Chatham.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Hon. H. Themas Duffy, treasurer of th province of Quebec, died suddenly. About ten o'clock on Friday morning he was in the barber shop of Chateau Frontenac getting shaved. The barber finished and Mr. Duffy got up from the chair and took a whisk from the man to brush his own clothing. Suddenly he toppled over into the man's arms, saying "I feel sick." He was assisted to his room and medical assistance at once summoned. Nothing could be done, and he passed away at three o'clock. Death was due to disbetic complaint. Deceased had been in poor health for some time.

The British War Office has a despatch from Col. #### The Miramichi Revisited.

During his brief visit to his birthplace the late Jas. Griffin, formerly Collector of Inland Revenue here, has had occasion to realise that whatever other changes have taken place on the Miramichi since he was a boy, it has lost none of its attractions as a centre of enjoyable hospitality for its visitore. While in Chatham Mr. Griffin was the guest of his brother-in-law, R. A. Lawlor, Esq., K. C., and others have united with that gentleman in making Mr. Griffin's stay a pleasant one.

Amongst the outings got up on his special account was an excursion on Mr. F. M. Tweedie's steam yacht "Wenonah" on Saturday last, amongst the participants in which, besides Mr. G riffin being Premier Tweedie; High Sheriff, Lt. Col. Call. U. S. Consul; Commodore J. C. Pugsley, of St. John ; Fredk. Dyke and Jas. Johnston.

After Messre, Call and Miller were taken on board at Newcastle, the yacht proceeded up river and anchored in "The Tickle." where dinner was served on board, after which Beaubear's Island and the Wilson's Point burying ground, the oldest on the Miramichi, were visited and some of the latter's quaintly expressed epitaphs deciph-

On this occasion the run was made down river into the broad bay below the Napan buoy, thense up Bartibog Island anchorage, where a number of the party landed on the Island, th return to Chatham being made at 6 p.m. Mr. Griffin also participated in driving and other parties, remaining some days longer than he had intended, and is now his way back to Chicago wishing, no doubt, that he could take with him Miramichi river and bay, its pleasant drives and its angling and sea-fishing, delightfu! summer air and the friends who made his short visit question was then re-opened.

Rev. William Lawson has been three years at Milltown and had a unanimous invitation for a fourth year. He was more than willing to remain, but when asked whether he would go to Newcastle, he expressed his readiness to go to any one of three or four circuits that it might be convenient to send him. Wherefore Mr. Lawson was stationed at Newcastle and Rev. G. W. Fisher appointed to Milltown. In the meantime the Newcastle Methodists had made up their minds that Rev. Hammond Johnson was the man for them. Mr. Johnson is a young man who has been remarkably successful in his present station at Tabusintac, where the Methodist cause Tabusintac, and the particular wish of the conference that the relations between Mr. Johnson and that station should continue for another year.

At Newcastle Mr. Berrie has found that the Newcastle congregation has a stronger case than was made to appear when the stationing committee had the matter in hand. The case involves the shelter and care of the family of the late pastor, and also church considerations of great weight, It is understood that the arguments have impressed Mr. Berrie, and that he is likely to recommend the transfer of Mr. Johnson This involves the assignment of another circuit to Mr. Lawson. Among those which have been mentioned are Hampton, Margate, P. E. I., and Andover. All these are already provided and the problem is to make the shift with the least possible friction. It is said that Mr. Lawson will probably bring up at Andover and that Rev. Mr. Ives, who has been appointed to that place, will be transferred to Lindsay, which is left to be supplied. Then there is Tabusintac. According to INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY. present appearances this station will be filled by the transfer of Rev. E. C.
