Mr. Editor: I saw a copy of the World the other day and it had a picture of a solemu looking man in it and underneath it was the statement that it was Mr. W. S. Loggie M. P. P. and it said he was the man who will look after our interests in Fredericton. Mr. Morrissy and Mr. Morrison got about as good a vote down here as Mr. Loggie. Can't we depend ou them to look out for our juterests too? is Mr. Loggie g ing to be a kind of third party representative? Is it true that Mr. Tweedie cannot do anything more for and that we must look to Mr. W. S. Loggie alone as the World says?
