The Issues of the Campaign.

With this issue of the ADVANCE we enclose a supplement containing Premier Tweedie's munifesto to the electors of New Brunswick, which, we feel assured, will be read with interest and find a ready response in the breasts of all our thoughtful and loyal people.

The greatest meeting of the campaign was held on Monday night in York Theatre, St. John. The auditorium and stage were filled to their utmost capacity and hundreds were unable to get in, as the crowd overflowed through the doors. We regret that our available space does not afford room for the magnificent speech delivered by Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways, but a part of it will enable our readers to form an idea of its effectiveness. After referring at some length to Dominion issues be said :-

"I am not going to say a word as the merits of the local government, or the attacks which have been made upon them. They are well able to defend their acts and to take care themselves. I am here from another point of view.

AN IMPORTANT ISSUE.

the interests of the Canadian people, as it is in the interests of the people of S. John and this province, that they for Sale. should not at this juncture, at the height of our glorious prosperity and with promising results in view, strike a blow at or do an injury to the Government which obtains at Ottawa at the present time. (Cheers.) "I frankly acknowledge that I am speaking to you chiefly from that point of view. And why? Because ther cannot be a question in anybody's mine that, should such a calamity occur as the deteat of the local government, the cry would be sent out over Canada that the people who had given a majority of 1,000 to the minister of railways a little over two years ago had found cause to change their minds and had withdrawn in a measure their confidence from him and from the Liberal party. (Hear, hear.)

"You could not strike down th minister from New Brunswick without weakening the Liberal party. The battle has taken that line.

LIBERAL VS. CONSERVATIVE. "We have the evidence on every hand, and our own common sense tell us, that the people who are opposed to the people of this constituency, my ow the local government are the Conservatives. There may be some who claim to be Liberals, some of them lifelong Liberals, who are giving confidence and encouragement to our opponents; but it is the Conservative party all th same. (Cheers.) What do they say?

MR. TWEEDIE'S POSITION. They say that Mr. Tweedie is not good enough Liberal for them. They say he was a Conservative. I do not consider that because a man identifies himself with a political party, and that political party happens to be Conservative, anybody is to hold out no hope of redemption for him in the future. (Laughter.) I do not think it is in the interest of any government or party to shut the door and deny to anybody a chance to return or come to the true told. Where would the Liberal party have been if they had attempted to live up to such a doctrine? In dust and ashes, as they were for 17 years.

"Mr. Tweedie is a good enough Liberal for the distinguished chieftain of the Liberal party. (Cheers.)

"He is good enough for me, and why? Because he has had the manliness to say, and say it unequivocally, that he was not satisfied with the conduct of the Conservative party, that he there was no place in their ranks tor

I know that what he did was the result of a conference with me on the subject. He did exactly as we had agreed he should do in that contest, and I am satisfied with his conduct. (Cheers.)

WITH MR. TWEEDIE IN THE FIGHT. "I am not going into particulars, because I do not want to hurt anybody's feelings. There were conditions and circumstances which had to be regarded, and he took the course which I would have taken in the same riding. He helped the along the North Shore, Therefore I say that for me the premier of New Brunswick is a good enough Liberal to ment my fullest confidence. (Cheers.)

WHAT MR. TWEEDIE IS. "I will tell you what he is, and I am lad he is not here, because it enables to speak more plainly. I was his colleague. He was a little bit cranky at hand, shows a falling off of about five He must have ability above the ordinary times (Laughter.) I am speaking my mind | millions to you. But he is a manly man. DOWNFALL AT OTTAWA. "I do not care what Mr. Hazen may say as to this not being a fight upon dominion lines. He need not if he win boast of it as a Liberal defeat and Conservative triumph. But what will be the course taken by the Conservative press throughout the country? They will say that Toryism has triumphed in New Brunswick, and you could not blame them for doing so. Mr. Hazen does not control either the press or the mouths of his supporters, and every Tory newspaper in the dominion would declare that the minister of railways had been defeated in his own constituency and in his own province. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. Blair showed up the hypocrisy the Hazen candidates disavowing their position as workers for the success the Conservatives by quoting from an interview of Mr. W. H. Thorne, who is practically the Tory leader in St. John and chief of the Sun Company, in the "I am here because I believe it is in | Montreal Gazette, in which Mr. Thorne | when so chosen and confirmed by convention

> "If the Tweedie government be defeated Mr Blair's right arm will be gone ?"

"What does that mean?" asked Mr Blair. A man's right arm is a most valuable adjunct when engaged in a fight. It is recognized that the present local government are friendly to the Dominion govern ment. Knock them out, and of course Mr Blair's right arm will be gone, because whatever influence they possess as government would be taken away.

"I put it seriously and gravely to you who are within the sound of my voice, and l ask you if any cause has been assigned why you should be conspirators in conjunction with Mr. Thorne to knock off the right arm of the minister of railways or to deal blow which might involve the death of th Liberal party? (No, no.) "If there is, then in all confidence go and do what you believe to be your duty. Do i manfully and in the light of day. Do it by going outside of our ranks and leaving us t fight the battle by ourselves. Do it like men. (Cheers.) There are some who are doing it in this way, and I respect them for it. We know how to meet the attacks they are making. One thing, at all events, we J. Clarke, editor of the Courier. will do, because politics is politics in this

There was nothing against having Mr. Seely go over the ac counts at a future time and make any suggestions for improvement in the method of keeping them that might occur to him Ald. Nicol proceeded to refer to the accounts for the year, all of which he sai had already been before the Council. He commented on them as he read the totals and said they were to be published in detail. He first referred to the electric light accounts, and then to those for water and sewer construction. The total of the latter was $147,440.45, which included amounts due to Mr. Miller on his pump contract and to Messrs. Hanscom on their sewer laying contract. There were credits of $1,173.13 to be deducted from this amount, so that the net cost of the water and sewerage system was $146.267.32.

That Act also makes it the duty of the Town Treasurer to issue executions for all unpaid taxes on or before 30th Saptember. He said the law as it now stood worked badly for the collection of taxes. Before it was passed, the provision of the 87th section of the Towns Incorporation Act applied, which allowed a discount of five per cent. on taxes paid within ten days after the bills therefor were rendered, and provided for the issue of executions thirty days after rendering. Now, the many who were so disposed deferred the payment of their taxes as long as possible, while a number of ratepayers left in the fall and their taxes were lost the town. .32 Cal. High-PressureSmokeless We are prepared to furnish our full line of Model '93 rifles, solid and take down, for the new .32 Caliber HIGH PRESSURE SMOKELESS cart-

Another great advantage is that the barre's are bored and rified (but mot chambered) exactly the same as the regular .32-40 Marlin, one turn in 16 inches. This makes the use of black powder and lead bullets as satisfactory and convenient as in a segular black powder rifle.

This size is the first high-pressure arm developed in this country for a caliber larger than .30, and the first to use a slow enough twist to give best results with black powder ammunition.

Prices same as .30-30 MARLIN.
120-page can log of rifles, shotgans, ammunitien, etc., cover in 0 colors, mailed for three stamps.
