TRINITY NIVERSITY

THE LEADING Residential University

OF CANADA. Trinity offers the long-desired escape from the dangers incidental to sending young lads or girls straight from the High Schools and from home life to the lonely conditions of boarding-house life in a strange city.

In order to make its RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES as complete as possible, and to place the Education afforded by Trinity University in the very front rank of the Universities of Canada, some of the business men of Ontario are ex-pending the sum of a quarter of a million dollars for these purposes.

It will interest you to know how this money is being expended in the interests of your sons and daughters, and to have information about the valuable Burraries and Scholarships, including the "Mackenzie Bursaries" for Presbyter an Students, and many others which are open to students of all creeds and of both

A post-card, addressed as below, will bring you by return mail an Illustrated Book (free) showing the University and College Buildings and Grounds, and giving much valuable information about the courses of study. The University Calendar may also be obtained by ad-

A QUEER BATH

In Finland a novel form of vapor nual consumption of 140,000,000. bath has recently become popular. A person who proposes to enjoy it Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc. lies down at full length in a hammock, which is suspended over a large bath tub filled with ice-cold water. An attendant then throws into this water some hot bricks, whereupon a vapor arises and envelops the person lying in the hammock. For some minutes the at- daughter, Miss Mayme MacYnnes,' tendant allows him to remain ex- replied the clerk. posed to the vapor, and then, after removing the bricks, he gives the hammock a jerk, and the gentleman in it comes plump down into cold water. Those who have tried this method of bathing say that the sensation is quite novel, and that the sudden plunge into the cold water really invigorates one.
