Boys and a Cow Hile.

Two lads, named Robbins and McEachrar, entered the slaughter house of Mr. John Gray, burcher, on Thursday last, and took away a cow hide, which they sold to a dealer in town for about one half of its value. They were complained against by Mr. Gray, and confessed and were fined $25 each by police magistrate Conners on Tuesday morning. It is a pity that negotiators of such purchases could not be made to share in the punishment of thieves by whose operations they profit.

Burnsville Mill Destroyed.

The large saw mill at Barnsville, Gloucester Co., with nearly one million feet lumber, owned by Mr. John Robertson, Bathurst, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. The fire was discovered about five o'clock. Flames were then coming out of the roof, and the mill burned with great rapidity. Mr. Robertsou's loss
