MARCHING PLANTS. Keeping Step With the Advance of Human Settlement.

Several years ago attention was called to the fact that the eastern plants of America were marching westward across the continent...

At present Australia presents, perhaps, the best example of this spreading and conquering tendency of those plants that have the advance of man.

But the Scotch thistles do not show itself so timid. It has been introduced into both Australia and Tasmania...

A curious fact, brought out by observation in Australia, is that some imported plants, particularly ornamental garden varieties, cling to the neighborhood of their human friends...

HEART DISEASE. A Trouble Much More Common Than is Generally Supposed.

Most of the troubles affecting the heart are caused by anaemia, indigestion or nervousness, and when any of these causes lie at the root of the trouble it can be surely cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Peace and War Or, The End of It All

CHAPTER XII. Mrs. Huston smiled serenely, and shrugged her shoulders. I do not see, she expostulated...

Even while she was awaiting the arrival of the sisters she was not idle. On her lap she had a scrap-book, and with scissors and paste she was busy collecting and arranging in due order sundry newspaper cuttings...

The lady's quick ear detected the sound of a cab suddenly stopping, and when she saw her two sisters and later she laid aside her scissors and rose from her seat with no sign of surprise.

"How perfectly delicious," she exclaimed, "it is to see a comfortable English drawing-room again! I almost kissed the maid who opened the door; she was such a pleasant contrast to smacking Chinese servants."

"Yes, dear," replied Mrs. Wylie, and she proceeded to greet the latter sister with a kiss, also, but of somewhat less warmth.

"The three ladies passed into the drawing-room together. There was a momentary pause, during which Mrs. Huston mechanically loosened the strings of her smart little bonnet and looked round the room appreciatively.

"How perfectly delicious," she exclaimed, "it is to see a comfortable English drawing-room again! I almost kissed the maid who opened the door; she was such a pleasant contrast to smacking Chinese servants."

"I have bolted," she said, replying to the inquiring query, "and he is in all probability after me. I am very sorry to hear it," said the widow with conviction.
