Dinner to Chief Justice Tuck.

The barristers of New Brunswick celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the entrance of Chief Justice Tuck into the profession by giving a banquet in his honor at the Barker House, fredericton on Tuesday evening. The function was presided over by J. D. Hazen, Esq., K.C., president of the Barrister's Society, and was a great demonstration of the high esteem in which the Chief is held not only by the legal profession, but also by all others who enjoy his acquaintance.

Personal.

Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. Hutchison, Miss Belle Hutchison and her visitor, Miss Lowden of Toronto, have returned from a tour through a number of places of interest in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, including Bridgetown, Annapolis County, N. S., where they spent a few days with Mrs. Tweedie's eldest daughter, Mrs. J. Stuart Benson, whose husband is manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at that place. Premier Tweedie and R. A. Lawlor, E.q.,

The many old friends of the family on the Miramichi and elsewhere in Canada, will be pleased to hear of the marriage of Miss Marguerite (Reta) Kelly, youngest daughter of the late Hon, Wm. M. Kelly, formerly Chief Commissioner of Public Works and later a member of the Legislative Council of New Brunswick. The event took place on the 10th October, and the fortunate bridegroom was Beroarr Macfadden, the well known journalist and physical culture advocate, of New York city. The newly wedded pair, on their return from Europe, take up their residence in a cosy home on 111th St., New York, where their many friends-especially in this, the bride's native town-will wish them both life long happi-

of the S. P. C. A., or other persons of humane inclinations, arrived at the conclu sion on Hallowe'en that the elephant must be both cold and dry, so they borrowed a sulky from Mr. Geo. Russell's emporium for invalid vehicles on Dake Street, and a scarecrow from Mr. Lawlor's turnip garden, and harnessing the elephant, they, after a circuitous drive in the Lature of a warmingup heat, halted at the fountain. Leaving the driver in his seat and the elephant to quench its thirst, and having satisfied themselves that no regular policeman, or any of the myriad specials which the World announced as being engaged for the night were about, they proceeded to quench theirs. The driver, meantime, remained in a somnolent condition, with his hat over his eyes, while the elephant was as quiet and immovable as a wooden elephant could be. The humantarians who had brought these highly satisfactory, picturesque and comfortable conditions about had it borne in upor The municipal election for Gloucester them about this time, or later-that is, early—that the public proclamation of a good deed done robs it of the greater half of its merit and, remembering that the police had been seen about the town one night this season and might again venture out of doors; remembering also that it was Sanday morning and some of them, at least, must be in church, they left the rig at the fountain for the night. Thus it was that it was found there on Sunday morning, the hugh mammal standing contentedly by the water trough, the driver still unawakened and the sulky as unblushingly in evidence as if it had been honestly obtained.

No policeman had seen the circus come to town. When the force was questioned on the subject, the suggestion was advanced that they would have seen the elephant travelling along two blocks in the part of the town most needful to be watched, if h had not been taken by way of the wharves. The admission was made, however, that the su key couldn't have gone from Mr. Russell's premises by that route, nor could its driver, with that unusually fine hat, Mr. W. B. Another Astonishing Case Female Troubles Cured by FERROZONE.

"Before taking the first box of Ferrozone, writes Mrs. Annie Jeffry of Sandy Cove, N. S., my condition was deplorable. Though I employed the most skilful medical aid, I grew steadily weaker. In fact, I was in such a condition that it was impossible for me to walk across the room. My heart was very weak, and I suffered from terrible palpitations, which the doctors said were om troubles peculiar to women. F jeuds urged me to try Ferrozone, and I bought six boxes. When I had used the third box my old-time vigor and strength returned. The palpitation ceased, my appetite increased, and I got a good rosy color in my cheeks. It would be impossible to speak too highly of Ferrezone. All weak women should use it. I hope many suffering sisters will use Ferrozone, for it will surely cure them. Rev. J. C. Morse, D. D., pastor of the Baptist church, Sandy Cove, bears witness to the recovery of Mrs. Jeffry, and writes "This is to certify that Mrs. Annie Jeffry is a lady upon whose word you can depend. I have known her since childhood, and believe her to be a truthful bonest woman."
