The result of the conference was an understanding that the Liberals of the different parishes were to be asked (and the ADVANCE is requested to ask them through their existing parish Liveral associations and if any parishes have let their associations lie in abeyance to reorganize them at once) to send delegates to a meeting to be called at such place as may be named to nomin ate a candidate. It was suggested by Hon. Mr. Equmerson that the voters in each parish be represented pro rata at the convention, and the Liberal Candidate for the county be the choice of the body so constituted. The speeches and proceedings were of the most harmonious character and there was manifested on all hands a wish begin de nova, with a desire to "let bygones be bygones" and unite all Liberal, including all the old and new elements, in a brigade which could not do otherwise than win one of the old-time
