Bozus Codfish and Bait Story.

An absurd telegram of over half column purporting to come from Gaspe in reference to a consignment of Caribou meat having reached that place from Newfoundland in a little schonner, to be used as codfish bait, is finding its way into a number of the newspapers. The telegram in question says amongst other thing :--

This year the stored supply of caplin, squid, etc., is small, and the big packing houses which control the market are setting a high, almost prohibitive value upon it.

To good sportsmen, it acems to be a shame to kill such noble creatures as the caribou simply for cod bait, but that was the material the scheoner brought. affords a startl ng idea of the game supply of the old colony to learn that 4 000 or Chatham
