COMMERCIAL BUILDING. The Local Legislature.

The New Brunswick Legislative Assembly session for the current year was opened at Fredericton last Thursday by H s Hon, Lt. Governor Snowball.

The function was characterised by old time observances of military daplay, and band music out of doors, and social brilliancy within the parlament bulding which always seem to be the right thing on such an occasion. There was a guard ment, under Capt, Nagle, the land of the are likely to come up for trial at 71st York, and a detachment from the Woodstock Feld Battery commanded by Capt. Good.

> GUARD OF HONOR AND SALUTE. As His Honor approached the Parliament Building a salute of fifteen guns was fired and the guard presented arms. The guard was closely inspected by the Governor, who complimented Capt. Nagle on their soldierly appearance. He then entered the building, and, Mr. Hazen said the language dealing accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Robert Barker and A. D. C. Capt. Winslow, and attended by Lt. White, D. O. C., Lieut,-Col. Wadmore, R. C. R.; Lient, Co., Loggie, 71st Regt.; Surg. Maj. Bridges, P. M. O. Major Good, Capt. Marshall, D. S. Capt Listor, R. C. R.: Sheriff Sterling and Coroner Multin, and proceeded to the Assembly Chamber, where he read the opening speech.

THE SPEECH.

The speech referred to New Bruns-Mrs. E. W. Jarvis returned on Saturday wick commercial and industrial prosnight's Maritime express from a flying visit perity, in common with that of the Mr. A. S. Ullock's many triends will be ment of the province in agricultural development, the successful exhibitions held during the year, railway construction for the development of the coal areas in Queens County and at Beersville, the St John dry dock, etc.

The speec also referred to the proest of the Government in behalf of the province against the reduction of New Brunswick's representation at Ottawa and stated that the Dominion authorities having adhered to their action the matter, an appeal had been taken to the Judicial committee of the P.ivy Council. On the subjects of the Provincial Fisheries, the Halifax award and p ovincial subsidies. His Honor said:-"During the recess my Government has continued to arge up n the Federal authorof the various questions connected with the ownership and administration of the Fisheries as between the Provincial and Dominion Governments. A BRILLIANT SCENE. It is seldom that so brilliant and animated a scene is witnessed in the political capital as that presented in the Assembly Chamber while His Honor was reading the Speech. Nearly all of the available space not occupied by members was filled by leading ladies and gentlemen of Fredericton and other centres of the province. and the galleries were also crowded, the handsome Windsor uniform of His Honor. the military full dress of the officers in attendance, and the rich co-tumes of the ladies, both on the floor of the house and in the galleries, combined with the elegant fittings and decorations of the chamber itself formed a combination that was very pleasant to look upon.

MR. HAZEN. Mr. J. Douglas Hazen, leader of the Opposition, criticised the address at cousiderable length. He thanked Premier Tweedie for having turnished him with copy of the Speech in advance of the open ing; he was, however, dis popinted with it, very little new legislation was promised. In reference to the Lunat c Asylum he said he and his followers would render any assistance possible in reforming the Lunatic Asylum management. He thought there should be a first class specialist in charge of the medical work and that the business expression to the opinion that there are not be there, but should be cared for by a youth could go to work to be raised their relatives or in the Alms Houses of fifteen or sixteen. It is pointed out that

Mr. Hazen wanted to know what was the matter with the fighting force now that they did not bring on the election for the St John vacancy. He also referred to the absence, through illness, of Hon.
