This she uses a 165-grain bullet and has a velocity of over 2,000 feet per second, making it the most powerful cartridge made for an American arm, with the ex-ception of the .30-40 U. S. Army. It is sufficiently doubly for any game known in North America. Another great advantage is that the barre's are bared and rifled (but not chambered) exactly the same as the regular .32-40 Martin, one turn in 16 inches. This makes the use of black powder and lead bullets as satisfactory and convenient as in a regular black powder sille. This size is the first bigh-pres-sure arm developed in this country for a callber larger than .30, and the first to use a slow enough twist to give best results with black powder ammunities.
