Wanted.

The laboring men want employment as long as it can be had this fall and no Due Bills.

The Season.

During Monday night upwards of six inches of snow fell but as it rained all day yesterday and the greater portion of last night, there is nothing left on our streets but mud.

The Shooting Season.

A number of gunners from abroad are wending their way to the shooting grounds. Wild geese and duck are plentiful in the Bays. During the storm Monday night several dead brant and ducks were found round one of the light houses on the South side of the river. In all likelihood they were attracted by the light and owe their destruction to striking against the glass.

Indians Drowned.

During the snow storm of Monday night last, three intoxicated Indians left Chatham in a bark canoe, bound for their homes at Bartibogue. Nothing was seen or heard of them until yesterday, when one was found upon the shore in an exhausted condition who gave the above information. The bodies of the other two have not yet been found.

Narrow Escape.

A portashing party, consisting of three men and a span of horses, while engaged on the Nepisiquit River, had a narrow escape from drowning last week. They were crossing the Esquidelick bridge with a heavy load when six plank broke and if the seventh had not held out the men, waggon and horses would have been precipitated into the river a distance of twenty feet. These bridges should undergo a test whenever an undertaker has finished his work; and if it does not prove satisfactory, a fine should be imposed upon him, as he does not know how many lives would be endangered by his lack of duty.

Municipal Elections.

At the approaching Council election for this Parish there are three candidates, Messrs. Peter Loggie, Thos. McLaughlin and John Fortheringham.

There are three candidates out for the Parish of Glenelg, Mr. James Fitzpatrick, William McNaughton, and Hugh Cameron.

There are four candidates out for the Parish of Newcastle, Messrs. R. B. Adams, Charles E. Fish, John Wood and William Smallwood.

Fire.

Last Sunday night a fire broke out on board the steam tug "Relief," which was lying at the proprietor's wharf, and whilst the captain and crew were taking their night's repose within its scorching timbers. About half-past eleven the captain, Alex. Degrass, was awakened by the entering of smoke into his apartment which was joining the place where the fire is supposed to have originated. He awoke the other men right away, some of whom gave the alarm whilst others applied water to the fire with buckets, till the hand engine came. The work performed by the men in attendance at the hand engine kept the fire from spreading till the steam engine came, when they both rallied on, and by one o'clock the fire was quenched. If there had been horses, the engines might have come to the fire much more quickly and thereby stayed its progress. Whereas they had to remain where they were till a sufficient number of men had gathered to haul them. It is not safe to depend upon volunteers to haul an engine here and there at midnight. Not many minutes would have passed before the fire had catched some of the warehouses and the whole town would be thus endangered. The damages to the boat were estimated at about $350, while the loss of the men's clothing would be about sixty dollars.

STAR BRIEFS.

Sleighing.

Sleigh bells.

Portashing.

Who sold Lo the rum?

The beautiful snow.

The muddy, muddy streets.

Get your sleighs in order.

Get your skates sharpened.

The rink is getting demolished.

Use your bells and save the fine.

Our town is in splendid condition.

Good season for those dealing in rubbers

Saw-mills were not cutting on Tuesday.

Six inches of snow fell on Monday night.

Don't miss the Exhibition on Friday next.

Our late Councillors feel proud of our streets.

Our sidewalks are the admiration of strangers.

Lumbering men are sending parties in every day.

Geese saved Rome but the old cow killed Joseph.

And the abomination of our citizens, who grumble but do not act.

Don't forget your misters and long-legged boots.

"You cannot run again." This is the tune the "old cow died on."

"When all fruit fail, welcome haws!" and the party accepted him!

They had to fall back on Johnny. He will soon be a "Shannon veteran."

Market bare for good winter apples. Selling on the street at auction from $1.50 to $2.50.

In some stores in Chatham the clerks ignore the prices of things till pay day, and then they know right well how much to take off.

There is no wind but blows fairly for some person. Our road commissioners will get clear of an amount of work on account of the snow.

The "Relief" needed relief on last Sunday night, and we assure you it was a relief to the owner when she did get relief.

Put away your gas light and lamp light and use the cheapest and brightest light known as Gaseline. H. P. Marquis, is Agent at Chatham.

On Thursday afternoon last a young lad named Robert Bingay was accidently killed in one of the slopes of the Spring Hill Mines. The deceased was the main support of a widowed mother.

Peculations by Cabinet Ministers seem to be by no means uncommon in Russia. The latest victim is no less a person than the President of the Council, who has just been removed from office on account of financial irregularities.

Fat heifers, live weight 400 to 500 lbs, at $19.25 to $25.00; heifers 2½ years at $15.00; 1 pair fat steers, live weight each 550 pounds for $44.00. Hay per ton at $15.00.
