"OLD COUNTRY" NEWS.

A correspondent writing from England to the Montreal Witness says;—

THE RADICAL PROGRAMME.

The nature of the plans which the Radical party has formed for the next session may be partly estimated from the following notice of motion put on the paper the day before yesterday, and which will be renewed next session by Mr. Jesse Collins, M. P. for Ipswich: "That it is desirable, in order to increase the productiveness of the land, to arrest the decline of the rural population, and to promote the interests of the commercial industries of the country, that provision should be made by Parliament to facilitate the acquirement by agricultural laborers and others of proprietary rights in the soil they culture." Mr. Collins is not what Lord Palmerston used to call a "Radical tramp," on the contrary, he is a retired Birmingham merchant. of very large means, and an active promoter of free libraries and education leagues. His motion may go a little further than Mr. Gladstone is willing to go at present, but the party at the Premier's back will eventually insist on legislation in this direction. The Farmers' Club and the Agricultural Laborers' Union will posess a strength after the assimilation of the borough and county franchise which no Liberal Ministry could afford to lose, and the recent cetastrophe in the harvest will hasten the rise of an agrarian agitation in England such as she has never seen.

THE "SUSPECTS."

Although Father Sheehy has been informed by the Dublin Castle authorities that they see no good reason why he should be released, it may be taken for granted that all the prisoners will be released within a month. Mr. Gladstone feels the scarcely-concealed taunts of the advanced Radicals that Coercion Acts are not fit instruments for a Liberal Government to use, and he will let the prisoners go the moment the Irish Executive reports that the country is thoroughly quiet.

MR. FORSTER.

The rumor that Mr. Forster will leave the Cabinet is again revived, and I have reason to believe that there is some foundation for it. The Chief Secretaryship is by all odds the most difficult post in the Cabinet, and poor Mr. Forster has been terribly mauled, not only by the Irish members, but by Mr. Cowen and the extreme Radicals. Fortunately for him, Sir William Hartcourt, by his impetuous onslaughts on the League, which he holds to be indirectly connected with the New York Fenians, in that it accepts the American subscriptions and refuses to disavow the views of the Fenian leaders on your side of the water, has drawn some of the Irish fire, and "Hang..dog Hartcourt" is now pilloried side by side with "Buckshot Forster." Mr. Gladstone will find it difficult to get a suitable man for the Chief-Secretaryship, for the painful duties of the office and the baiting to which the occupant is subjected every session would try even the sweetness and oil of Lord Granville.

THE LAND ACT

The Land Commission will begin work on Monday, and its operation will be watched with great interest. The rains have injured the root crops in Ireland somewhat, but with fine weather for a fortnight an abundant crop can yet be secured. The people are tired of the agrarian agitation. The agitators still beat their drum with vigor. but it has lost its charm. The Irish will follow a leader into the last ditch with a light heart, but he must be a leader with a stake in the country. Not one in ten of the active spirits of the League has a patch of Land. Some of them are journalists, but most of them are simply professional agitators, who must keep up the excitement and fill the hat, or in default be compelled to work for their living, and it is rather amusing to hear these gentry talking about the rights of the tenant and championing the cause of the laborer. Mr. Parnell ann Mr. Dillon are men of means and eminent respectability, but their lieutenants are not the stuff out of which great popular leaders are made, and their harangues have the metallic ring which charrcterized them of the mercenary patriots who, five and twenty years ago, composed the "Pope's Brass Band." My advices from Ireland are to the effect that the people are well disposed to give the Land Act a fair trial. They are fairly prosperous. The Post-Office Savings Bank returns show a marked increase in the deposits, even in those eight counties which were scheduled as distressed, and the people are weary of blatant talk and anxious to test the Act upon its merits. [There is a good deal of bigotry, ignorance and stupidity in the above paragraph. —ED. Star.]

FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

There is a growing soreness over the unfriendly attitude of France towards England, as shown in the Tunis affair, and in the refusal to make an equitable trade treaty. This feeling is rather strengthened than discouraged by the Ministerial press which, is irritated at the support given to the fair trade movement by the course of the French Government. The taunts and reproaches of these journals are only ridiculed in France, and render the people and the Ferry Ministry all the more determined to adhere to their high tariff policy. Some little coldness has subsequently grown up between the two Governments, but little attention is now paid on the continent to the opinions of England on any question. Whatever may be the cause, it is certain that never did England's name carry so little authority with it.

IRISH AFFAIRS.

Sir Gaven Duffy left London for Ireland on Friday. His advice recommending the Irish to accept the Land bill is warmly eulogized by the English press, which fails, however, to see the necessity of Sir Gaven Duffy's slightly sedtious suggestion that the price of peace in Ireland is the concession of not only their own Government and their own Parliament, but their own military and naval forces and their own distinguished flag

The Irish party are to lose a most eloquent parliamentary champion. Mr. [illegible] has declared his intention to resign his seat and retire from political life. The doctors have warned him that a return to his parliamentary labors will almost certainly prove fatal.

Mr. Parnell and Mr. T. P. O'Connor will probably proceed to America next month, after the Land League convention has been held, with a view of appealing for increased monetary aid from Irish Americans. It is rumoured in parliamentary circles that should Mr. Parnell carry out his intended visit to America, Lords Dunraven and Donoughmore will speak in the United States, with a view to counteract the effect of the Irish agitator's appeal meanwhile.

There have only been two Fenian scares this week besides those sent daily by the New York correspondents of the Standard and Daily News. One was a basket of cartridges seized at Birmingham station, which turned out to be blank cartridges made specially for cheating at shooting galleries at country fairs. A supplemental scare is the report that Mr. Crowe, of Peori, is coming to Ireland as agent for an American dynamite firm at Limerick.

A DIVORCE CASE.

In the Divorce County Court Judge Wetmore delivered judgment in the case of David Pugh vs. Charlotte Emma Pugh, granting a divorce a vinculo, and declaring the marriage void upon the ground that the defendant was the sister of a deceased former wife of the plaintiff, and justifying the plaintiff in instituting the proceedings, the wife having left her husband's home some years ago, and rejected his entreaties to her to return The husband was directed to pay the costs. The parties, knowing their inability lawfully to contract marriage in New Brunswick, agreed to meet and did meet in Houlton in the State of Maine, where such marriages are permitted by the laws of the State, and were married, intending to reside in New Brunswick. They lived together, as husband and wife for eleven years, and had several children born to them, but the wife's conscience being awakened to the impropriety of the marriage, under the pretense of visiting some friends in the United States, went to Rochester, New York, and refused to return home, alleging that she expected at the time of the marriage that her husband would sell out his property in New Brunswick, and remove to the United States It was claimed for the defendant that she being domiciled in a State where such a marriage was allowable was entitled to hold the contract valid, but the Court found against this contention.

Liver Complain and Indigestion.

Dear Sir,—My business has been that of an engraver and carver in woad. Owing to confinement to ill ventilated rooms my health gradually declined when I was unable to prosecute my business. At this time I was suffering from great prostration of strength extreme indigestion and disordered liver. My usual weight was 135 lbs but I had become so much emaciated that I weighed but 109 lbs In the early part of May last I commenced using the Peruvian syrup and almost immediately felt its tonic and invigorating influence. In the course of four months I used four bottles. My weight is the day 149 lbs. I have neither liver complaint nor indigestion, but consider myself in a perfect health and in good spirits. The Great American Remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LOSS OF VOICE, HOARSENESS AND THROAT AFFECTIONS.

Prepared from the finest Red Spruce Gum. (Delicious Flavor.) Balsamic, Soothing, Expectorant and Tonic. Superior to any medicine offered for all the above complaints. A scientific combination of the Gum which exudes from the Red Spruce tree—without doubt the most valuable native Gum for Medicinal purposes.

Every one has heard of the wonderful effects of the Spruces and the Pines in cases of Lung Disease. In France the physicians regularly send their consumptive patients to the pine woods and order them to drink tea made from the spruce tips.

GRAY'S SYRUP OF RED SPRUCE GUM.

In this preparation the Gum never separates, and all its anti-spasmodic, expectorant, tonic, and balsamic properties are preserved. This Syrup, carefully prepared at a low temperature, contains a large quantity of the finest picked Gum in complete solution.

Its remarkable power in relieving certain forms of Bronchitis, and its almost specific effect in curing obstinate hacking Coughs, is now well known to the public at large.

Sold by all respectable chemists. Price, 25 and [illegible]
