A LANDLORD'S STORY.

Mrs. McDougall writing from Ballina says:—I was introduced at Ballina to a fine, clever-looking man, with that particularly well-kept and well-fed appearance which is as characteristic of the upper classes in Ireland as a hunger-bitten, hunted look is characteristic of the poor. I would not like to employ as strong language in speaking of the wrongs of the tenantry as this gentleman used to me. He is both landlord and agent. He condemned all the policy of the Government toward Ireland in no measured terms. Spoke of the emigration that is going on now, as well as the emigration that had taken place after the last famine, as men going out to be educated for and to watch for the time of retribution. Retribution for the accumulated wrongs which mis-government had heaped upon Ireland he looked upon as inevitable, as coming down the years slowly but surely to the place of meeting and of paying to the uttermost farthing. Well, now, these are queer sentiments for a landlord to hold and to utter publicly. He acknowledged freely that a great part—a very great part—of the excessive rents extorted on pain of eviction, the eviction taking place when the unfortunate fell behind, were really premiums paid on their own labor. Furthermore, he acknowledged that he himself had raised the tenants' rents on the estates for which he was agent, compelling them to pay smartly for the work of their own hands. He spoke highly of

A LANDLORD,

THE PEOPLE AS A WHOLE,

of their patience, their kindliness to one another, and their piety. He spoke of the case of one man, a peasant, who could only speak broken English, who came under his notice by coming to him to sell rye grass to make up his rent. This man with the imperfect English was a tenant of the gentleman's brother. He held three acres two roods of land in one place at a rent of £7 [illegible], where his house stood; one acre at £1 4s. Of course he or his ancestors built the house. His poor rate and country cess is 16s or $46.25 yearly four acres two roods of land. If they got it for nothing they could not live on it, say some. The best manure that can be put upon land is to salt it well with rent, say Mr. Tottenham and Mr. Corscadden. Well, this man, since the famine, has no stock but one ass and a few hens. He cut and saved his rye grass himself, sold it for £3 10s, sold his oats for £3 4s 6d; had nothing more to sell; had remaining for his wife and two little ones a little meal and potatoes. He is a year and a half behind in his rent, and likely after all his toil and struggle to be set on the roadside with the rest. He has no bog near, there is none nearer than over five miles, except some belonging to Miss Gardiner. Of course that mild and sober spinster that will not oblige her own tenants has nothing in the way of favor for outsiders. It took him twelve days last year to make sufficient turf to keep the hearth warm. He went to the bog in the morning on his breakfast of dry stirabout, with a bit of cold stir.. about in his pocket to keep off the hungry grass, as the peasant calls famish pains, and walked home to his dry stirabout at night, having walked going and coming eleven Irish miles over and above his day's work. He drew home seventy ass loads of turf at the rate of two loads per day—twenty-two Irish miles of a walk. Let Christians imagine this man at his toil in his thin clothing, poor diet and bed of straw with scanty coverlet, toiling early and late to pay an unjust rent. Often after his hard day's work he has gone out at night with the fishers and toiled all night in hopes of adding something to his scanty stores. Said the landlord, "The vilest criminal could not have a harder life than this God-fearing, uncomplaining peasant. What I tell you I drew from him, for he made no complaint." "You have a hard life of it, my man," said the landlord to him. He was not his tenant. "Well, sir, sure God is good and knows best," was the man's answer. I was very much astonished at this gentleman's narrative and his other admissions, and I ventured to enquire for my own satisfaction had he made to the tenants. "Have you, sir, restored what you have robbed?" I did not suggest the four fold which is the rule of that Book which we acknowledge as a guide and law giver. "I am doing so," he replied, and he handed me a printed address to the tenants offering twenty five per cent. reduction on arrears, if paid within a certain time. Now I was very much interested in this gentleman and in his opinions, but I could not bring myself to agree with him that this was restitution. However, I state the matter and leave it to that enlightened jury, the readers of the Witness, "too large to pack at any rate," and let them give their decision. I think myself that a little of the Sermon on the Mount, applied conscientiously, would be good for those who hold the happiness of Ireland in their hands. When justice becomes loud-voiced and likely to pass into vengeance, they talk of giving a little as charity.

RESTITUTION

HELPLESSLY DRIFTING HALF A YEAR.

San Francisco Chronicle.

The steamship "City of Peking," 17 days from Yokohama, arrived in this port yesterday. The following particulars of the fortunate rescue of a party of sailors who were lost on the ocean are related by one of the passengers: "The second day out from Yokohama it was our good fortune to rescue nine men from a dismasted helpless Japanese vessel which had been blown off the coast of Japan from the entrance to the Bay of Yeddo during a typhoon. Their account of the disaster is that the storm occurred on the 9th of December last. They lost their masts and rudder and had been drifting at the mercy of the winds, they knew not where. After their own provisions were exhausted they subsisted on their cargo, mostly beans and dried fish, and such rain water as they could catch during the six months which had elapsed since the typhoon occurred. They had burned most of the small wood work, doors, berths, windows, &c., of their vessel for fuel, and were on short food rations, 40 beans per day for each man being the allowance. Their fire, when put out from time to time, they had rekindled by rubbing two pieces of wood together. They had given up all hope of ever seeing land or anything human again, when, on Saturday, the 28th May, in latitude 36° 37 north, longitude 143° 54 east, about 300 miles from the Bay of Yeddo and Yokohama, they sighted the "Peking" on the wide waste of water. Captain Berry, in answer to their signals of distress, bore down and sent one of the boats off with an officer and the doctor to examine into their sanitary condition, and the poor souls were soon landed on our deck. One of their number had died the day previous from exposure, hunger and anxiety. The passengers, aided by Capt. Berry, gave a concert on board for the benefit of the destitute ones, which netted a purse of $143.

THE RASCALLY SPANISH GAMBLERS.

The Madrid police on Tuesday night seized a man in the act of placing a bomb of thirty centimetres in diameter, charged with powder and dynamite, in a public place. Within the last nine days about thirty explosions have alarmed the city at night. Several shells also have been found in churches and letter boxes. After six hours of obstinate silence the prisoner admitted he was the son of the manager of a gambling-house, who, with others, combined in that system of alarm to oblige the Government to dismiss the Governor of the city and to cease the prosecution of the gamblers. The authorities instantly arrested thirty members or managers of gambling houses. Many fled, but it was necessary to satisfy public opinion, as the three children were mangled and maimed for life on Tuesday night by the shell given to them by two well-dressed men, who escaped before the explosion took place. The gamblers who were arrested will probably receive a severe sentence.

THE DANGERS OF WHALING.

Captain Sparks, who, with a boat's crew, was adrift eleven days in mid ocean, almost without food or water, has returned to Provincetown from Pensacola. They went in pursuit of a whale and lost the vessel, chased a whale for food and caught a small one, which they partly ate, and drank water squeezed out of their shirts. They were received at last ebb, after being refused assistance by some vessel from Guadeloupe, by a German vessel, who kindly cared for them all Oppression After Eating.

Many persons after an ordinary meal, feel a sense of weight and discomfort in the region of the stomach, the sure sign of an imperfect digestion, and probably the forerunner of a settled dispepsia. Nothing will relieve this oppression like the PERUVIAN SYRUP, by the stimulus it gives to the digestive powers. Sold by all druggists.

JAMES A. HAY,
CARRIAGE BUILDER,

Light Driving waggons, Concord, Piano Boxes, Express Carts etc. Trimming and repairing a speciality. Best stock kept always on hand. Come and inspect.
I have also the sole right to use
Young's New Axle Cutter
Patented in the United States and Dominion of Canada. We would call the attention of alll owners of carriages or waggons to this Machine and the benefits derived from its use. All waggon axles after being two or more years in use become worn till they become loose, requiring the use of leather washers to take up the lateral play; the washers soon filling with sand, cause the axles to wear much faster, unt the axle is soon ruined, or nearly so.
THE REMEDY.
By the aid of this very simple machine, the shoulder for the axle nut is cut back and the thread extended, allowing the nut to be screwed farther on, causing the wheel ll turn as evenly as when new. Give us a cap before purchasing elsewhere. A Paint shop is in connection with the Factory.
☞ Orders respectfully solicited and sutisfaction guaranteed.

The Great American Remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LOSS OF VOICE, HOARSENESS AND THROAT AFFECTIONS.

Prepared from the finest Red Spruce Gum. (Delicious Flavor.) Balsamic, Soothing, Expectorant and Tonic. Superior to any medicine offered for all the above complaints. A scientific combination of the Gum which exudes from the Red Spruce tree —without doubt the most valuable native Gum for Medicinal purposes.

Every one has heard of the wonderful effects of the Spruces and the Pines in cases of Lung Disease. In France the physicians regularly send their consumptive patients to the pine woods and order them to drink a tea made from the Spruce tops.

GRAY'S SYRUP OF RED SPRUCE GUM.

In this preparation the Gum never separates, and all its anti-spasmodic, expectorant, tonic, and balsamic properties are preserved. This Syrup, carefully prepared at a low temperature, contains a large quantity of the finest picked Gum in complete solution.

Its remarkable power in relieving certain forms of Bronchitis, and its almost specific effect in curing obstinate hacking Coughs, is now well known to the public at large.

Sold by all respectable chemists. Price, 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

The words "Syrup of Red Spruce Gum" constitute our Registered Trade Mark, and our wrapper and labels are also registered.
