PASTORAL LETTER.

The following is a copy of the Pastoral Letter of his Lordship the Rt. Rev. James Rogers, Bishop of Chatham:—

JAMES ROGERS, BY THE FAVOR OF GOD AND OF THE APOSTOLIC SEE, BISHOP OF CHATHAM, ETC., ETC.

To our Dearly Beloved Brethren in Christ, the Clergy, Religious and Laity of our Diocese,

HEALTH AND BENEDICTION.

DEARLY BELOVED BROTHERS,—

The authoritative voice of the Sovereign Pontiff, Christ's Vicar on Earth and Supreme Visible Head of the Church, again invites the members of his numerous flock to unite prayer, fasting and alms-deeds with the worthy reception of the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion—the usual conditions for gaining a Plenary Indulgence—while he, on his part, employs the POWER OF THE KEYS entrusted to him, to unlock the Spiritual Treasury of the Church—THE MERITS OF CHRIST and of his Saints—by granting the Indulgence of a Jubilee to all the Faithful who comply with the prescribed conditions.

The holy Word of God teaches us that "Man's job on Earth is a warfare."—(Job vii. 1)—"The kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence and it is only the violent who bear it away." (Matt. xi. 12)—"Your enemy the Devil goes about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour, whom resist ye firm in faith." (Pet. v. 8.)

The Christian's arms in this spiritual warfare are watching and prayer, fasting, almsdeeds and requestration of the sacraments.

Christ our Master and model, in the commencement of his public life, immediately after his baptism by John, when in confirmation of John's testimony, the Holy Ghost, in the form of a dove, alighted on the head of Jesus and the Eternal Father proclaimed from the clouds: "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased," retired into the desert to fast and commune in prayer with his Heavenly Father during forty days, to prepare for his spiritual combat with the Tempter ere he commenced his public ministry.

During all the period of that active ministry—the three years in which "He went about doing good," calling his Apostles, instructing his disciples, healing the sick, restoring the dead to life, converting sinners, &c.—it was his custom to withdraw to the mountains or other retired places to pray; and his Apostles he admonished to "always pray" informing them that certain evil spirits could be cast out, and banished only by "prayer and fasting." On the night before his Passion he prayed with great anxiety and earnestness, preparatory to the terrible trials of the morrow to which he foresaw he should be exposed; and he warned his apostles in the garden to "watch and pray lest they fall into temptation."

VOLUME II. CHATHAM, N. B., MAY 14, 1881. NO. 256.

teaches and exhorts, by oft repeated precept, his followers to pray, but also gives us the example of his own personal recourse to this sacred duty of praying to God at all times but especially in afflictions and temptations.

In the XII chapter of the Acts of the Apostles we read that after the martyrdom of the apostle St. James, St. Peter was also arrested and kept in prison, by order of Herod, to be put to death to please the Jews.

"But prayer was made without ceasing, by the church for him." (verse 5.) God sent his angel to deliver St. Peter from chains and prison; while of his wicked persecutor King Herod, we read near the end of the same chapter:

"And forthwith the Angel of the Lord struck him * * * and eaten up by worms he expired." (verse 23).

Such was the efficacy of the prayers of the Faithful in obtaining the deliverance of St. Peter the first Pope—such the terrible chastisement with which God punished the persecutor of the Pastors of His church especially her Chief Pastor!

Now what happened in the early history of the church, as above related, has in her subsequent history, happened over and over again, and has been renewed even in our own days. We might cite well known facts of passing history to illustrate this, but we prefer to pass on to our special subject, without entering the field of secular or political history.

Our Lord tells us: "The servant cannot be greater than the Master." (Matt. x. 24.) As Christ was treated so shall be his followers. He was infinite goodness and yet he was calumniated, insulted, persecuted unto death—even the most ignominious of deaths! But then followed the glory of his resurrection, his triumphant ascension back again to Heaven, the descent of the Holy Ghost to complete and perfect the establishment of his Church, the miraculous success of her first Pastors, the Apostles, notwithstanding all the persecutions to which they were so often and so unjustly subjected.

As it was with Christ so must it ever be with his church. Her history is a series of alternate trials and triumphs. She is the Church Militant, ever warring against evil, against false or erroneous principles in Faith or Morals. Though she is the "PILLAR AND GROUND OF TRUTH." (1 Tim. iii. 15.) "THE CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD having neither spot nor wrinkle nor any such thing." (Ephes. v. 27.) the immaculate spouse of Christ, sanctified, directed and preserved from error by the Holy Ghost—nevertheless men have calumniated, persecuted, misunderstood and hated this church, just as was done to Christ her Founder. But like Him also, though she is made to suffer the greatest wrongs and injustices, yet she ever in the end triumphs—advances on her course and fulfills her mission; while her more prominent persecutors are smitten like Herod! They wither like the grass, are forgotten as if they never existed—unless indeed they become converted into her Apostles like St. Paul, through the prayers of those whom they persecuted!

Just now the Pope, from his elevated position and with official insight sees danger ahead. He sounds the note of warning to the universal flock. The incessant war that has been waging against the Papacy since the epoch of the Reformation is passing through another of the many crises of the conflict that with varying fortunes has employed the master-minds on both sides since that great Revolt against Spiritual Authority commenced. The principle of private judgment in the interpretation of the Word of God, on which the Reformers set forth when leaving the Ark of safety, the Bark of Peter has carried many of the greatest minds, by divergent though rigidly logical routes to conclusions against which their common sense and natural piety revolted; but instead of recognizing in the strictly logical yet absurd conclusion, the falsity of the principle which formed their premises—as Geometricians do in what is called the indirect demonstration, or reductio ad absurdum—they could not abandon their cherished principle of "PRIVATE JUDGMENT," until, bewildered in the mazes of mental contradictions to which this ignis fatuus in religious matters leads they came to doubt of the truth of everything which is not materially palpable and evident: that is, they ceased to believe in the supernatural order, the world of spirits, the soul, angels, and sometimes even in the existence of God.

When belief in the supernatural order is taken away from men—when they are brought to disbelieve in the existence of their souls, of a future place of rewards and punishments where patient self-denying virtue will get its due recompense
