RUSSIA.

Dread of assassination still hangs over the Czar's head, as the sword did over Damocles. Liberty in the vast Dominions of the Czar is in chains, but the spirit of liberty is at large, and trying to break the galling fetters.

There is no kind of liberty in Russia, because the Czar is supreme and to-day may shut up the churches of the Poles, by a scratch of his pen, or to-morrow send the writer who dares to criticize the doings of his government to Siberia.
