YESTERDAY'S RACES.

From Our Special Reporter.

Variety is the spice of life. Enjoying the calm for a while we soon long for the howling of the tempest. Even the angry elements of the surging sea may become monotonous. Horse racing is no exception. Yesterday, though there were very many more people in town and on the grounds than on the preceding day, there was less excitement, indeed, laziness and indifference were the chief features. There were, as usual, a few quiet drunks but no disturbance occurred. The races did not come on as promptly as on Wednesday, each jockey considering it contributed a little to the dignity of himself and his horse to dance round a while. One would think from the preparations and the antics cut that a Balaklava charge was to follow. Some of the horses were in first rate condition, others looked like their riders, as if they had been fasting for forty days and forty nights. [Our readers here will forgive us for stopping to suggest the necessity of having in larger letters on a larger blackboard the names of winners, time, etc., that persons at the lower end of the stand may be enabled to see without the aid of those pompous eye glasses.]

A KENNING RACE

was first called, for a purse of $150, mile heats, best 3 in 5. For this there were three entries, viz.: Countess, Davy Williams and Kentucky Bill. Williams showed a poor bringing up by bolting off the track several times before the start. They were finally got off well together, Countess taking the lead followed closely by Williams and Kentucky Bill. Countess maintained her lead to the turn, where Kentucky Bill caught her, and a sharp race home ensued, resulting in a victory for Kentucky Bill. At the last turn Williams, apparently not liking the company he was in, bolted and ran through the gate towards his stall, carrying his rider with him. He may have wanted oats.

In the second heat Kentucky Bill took the lead from the start, and led Countess all the way round, winning by about a length.

The third heat Countess turned the tables upon Bill, taking the lead at the start. She maintained it all the way round, although Kentucky Bill almost succeeded in passing her once or twice.

The fourth heat was also won by Countess, and as there was not time to run the last, night coming on, the remaining one will be run to-day.

The next called on was the race for the 240 horses, for which appeared Marquis of Lorne, Charley Slipp, French Sporter and Little Maid. Charley Slipp had the pole, French Sporter next, Little Maid next and Lorne the outside. After scoring four times they were sent off, Little Maid immediately taking the lead, followed close by French Sporter, Charley Slipp next and Lorne last. The Maid was never headed. Charlie Slipp passed Sporter when about half way and got second place, Sporter next and Lorne last. Time 2:35.

In the second heat the Maid took the lead at the start and maintained it as before, Charley Slipp, French Sporter and Marquis making a close race up to the home stretch for second place. Marquis gained it, however, but the judges put him back for running, which, indeed, he indulged in rather freely through all the heats; second place was given to Slipp and third to Sporter. Time 2:40.

In the third heat the maid again led, French Sporter second to the quarter, he was passed by Slipp, who maintained the place to the finish; Sporter third and Lorne last. Time, 2:36 1/2.

SUMMARY:

Little Maid, . . . 1 1 1
Charley Slipp, . . . 2 2 2
French Sporter, . . . 3 3 3
Marquis of Lorne, . . . 4 4 9

The next race was the free for all trot for a purse of $200. For this there were four entries, Frank Allison, Anodyne, Pocahontas and Nellie Thorne. The latter did not appear.

In the first heat Allison took the lead followed by Anodyne and Pocahontas in the order named. They went in this position almost to the last turn, where Anodyne passed Allison and led to the wire, Pocahontas third. Time, 2:36.

There was a great deal of delay in getting off this and the former heat. In this heat Frank Allison took the lead but was passed about the half by Anodyne, who won without a break, Allison second, Pocahontas last. Time, 2:34.

The third heat was about the same as the former, Allison taking the lead at the start, but Anodyne was too much for him, winning the heat and race, Allison getting second place, Pocahontas third. Allison did a great deal of running in all the heats, and should certainly have been put back in the last heat. He gained every time he made a break. Time in his heat 2:23.

SUMMARY:

Anodyne, . . . 1 1 1
Frank Allison, . . . 2 2 2
Pocahontas, . . . 3 3 3

LUSUS NATURÆ.

A Child with a Bear's Head.

We had heard so much about "the bear child" on exhibition that we were induced to go see it. We found where it was by a placard posted over the door, and on paying our 10 cents were admitted. From what we had heard we expected to see a child

WITH A BEAR'S HEAD,

but on entering a bright and intelligent face met our gaze. The child is five months old and is a marvel—in size, strength and intelligence—of its age. The lower part of the face is human in appearance, as also the eye and back of the head, but the forehead and fore part of the head

EXACTLY RESEMBLE A BEAR.

The likeness consists in a heavy growth of coarse black hair, exactly Bruin's, the forehead is deformed with wrinkles, is covered with the same strong, black hair, and the epidermis is black. When the child turns its head so that the light of human intelligence in the eye is not seen, the coarse, wrinkled, hairy forehead and the dead tufts of hair is

IS SICKENING TO LOOK AT.

The skin is elsewhere fair and soft, but over all the body are black spots covered with hair.

FORTY IN NUMBER.

The parents of the child are intelligent looking, and the mother exhibits her offspring. Strong indeed must be the mother's heart that will, for vile money, expose to the public gaze the horrors and deformity of her own flesh and blood. We interviewed her, and her story is that some months before the birth of her child she went to a well, some distance from her house, to draw water. The well was in a secluded spot and surrounded partly by a dense wood. She advanced within a few paces of the well when, on looking up, she saw a large black bear standing by it, intently watching her. The shock almost overcame her, but she had strength enough to return to the road. There again and terrified she ran home. This is her story, and her unfortunate, deformed child the result. Would that her maternal feelings were stronger or her love for money weaker. Her husband is as much to blame. We should not advise any one to go,—the curiosity is not great, nor the case a pleading one.

BRUIN CONFRONTED HER,

LOCAL BITS.

THE CONCERT last evening was a grand success.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday Mr. Hawthorn's holer got a bad kick from a horse on the leg.

THE "STAR"—It was necessary to hire a horse yesterday to bring a load of STAR's to the race course.

GOVERNMENTAL.—A meeting of the Council was held last evening. The people's interests are safe.

SCHOOLS.—Grading schools commences soon. Mr. Crockett is the grader.

OBITUARY.—After bearing its ill with noble fortitude, a white duck, belonging to John H. Reid, gave up the ghost yesterday morning. We have all our little troubles in this life.

Mr. Tuck's new building is about as dead stock in Fredericton as the Evening Globe.

A PLACE FOR A FEED.—If you want to gormandise yourself on oysters, Gorman's is your place on Queen street.

DRAMATIC.—We learn the play last evening was a decided improvement on Wednesday's performance. The company was in full strength and drew and attracted immensely. To-night they will give a splendid entertainment, and we bespeak for them a bumper audience.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Colonel J. Wimburn Laurie, D. A. G., M. W. G. M. of Free and Accepted Masons, of Halifax, N. S., is in the city. He is known as widely for his flock of 60 thoroughbred Devons as for the string of letters about his name.

OUR INDUSTRIES.—Mr. H. A. Crompton's specimens from his bindery are highly creditable. Indeed Fredericton is fully represented in all the branches.

OMISSIONS.—We have purposely omitted a list of the entries at the exhibition. Anybody living in Fredericton too lazy to go out to the Reid Monument is not deserving of an exhibition; and any one too poor to go there could not be expected to raise money enough to buy the STAR and read an account of it.

MINSTRELS.—"Pinkie" and some "ob de brederen" held an open air concert last night much to the annoyance of the public.

MISTAKEN—"JEST IN THAT WAY."—Mr. Marsh was slightly mistaken, so he swore in an awful grip of special constables. He anticipated an invasion, which, we believe, was never contemplated.

PRESENTATION.—During the concert last night the handsome silver pitcher, won by the 71st team on Wednesday, was presented to them by Lieut-Governor Chandler in a few well-chosen remarks.

In the competition Sergt. E. A. Smith made the remarkable score of 90 points out of a possible 105.

INFORMATION WANTED.—What about that bonnet hop in the palace to-night? Has the affair fallen through? Who is to run it, anyhow, and why don't they advertise? Send in word to the STAR forthwith.

WHEN? Complaints reach us of the delay on the part of the Board of Education in issuing license to candidates who attended the recent examination. Have the righteous to suffer because of the unjust?

SCRABBLE.—You had to be smart to get a meal at the Queen or Barker yesterday. William assisted "friend Burnham."

THE WIND TOO HIGH.—The boat race which was to have taken place yesterday, had to be postponed in consequence of the high wind.

PEOPLE IN TOWN.—It was almost impossible to get along the sidewalks yesterday so thronged were they. There will be as many in town to-morrow.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have on hand several communications from country contributors, which we are obliged to hold over for a day or two.

HIGH PERFUMERY.—Two young snobs of our Celestial City, who are very fond of sporting a covered carriage and a young lady apiece, yesterday took a drive towards Spring Hill. In the dusk of the evening a very pretty kitten was observed by the roadside, and the young lady expressing a desire for the same one of the gallants jumped out and took possession of the animal. He placed it under the seat, and the ladies began to stroke it. After a while the handkerchiefs of each was applied to the nose and things became pretty uncomfortable for the quartette. The carriage is now for sale at half-price, and the apparel of the young folks is laid by. It was only a skunk.

The Most Wonderful Clock in Europe.

There is now on exhibition at No. 1,160 Broadway an exact counterpart in miniature of the celebrated great clock at Strasburg. This clock is the work of a journeyman watchmaker, who devoted seven years to its completion, and then, like Brown, he had got his head so "full of machine" that he had to be taken to a mad-house. It is one of the most interesting pieces of mechanism seen in this city for some time, interesting no less for its delicate and intricate combinations of mechanism than for the historical associations which cling around the world-famed time-piece of which it is so excellent a representation. It stands seven feet front, three feet six inches deep, and eleven feet high. Inside the clock-dial are four smaller dials, which indicate the month, day of the month, day of the week, and phases of the moon. Underneath this is a globe, half of which is shown, which shows the movements of the earth, and has a dial filled with the figures of the ancient zodiac. The top section is in the form of a gothic chapel, with a small door on either side under the spires, and a small door over the balcony in the center. At every half-hour the Disciples emerge from the right door in procession, and a door opens in front of the chapel, disclosing

A FIGURE OF JESUS. As the Disciples pass before him they turn, and he bows to each, all return the bow except Judas, who turns in the opposite direction. At this moment a gilt cock which forms one of the finials flaps its wings, and crows three times, and a

A FIGURE OF SATAN pees cautiously from above. This is the pantomime which crowds daily assemble in the great square of Strasburg to witness. These are also a number of other anionic figures, one of which, a skeleton representing Death, which is only three inches in height, is, on the authority of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, anatomically correct.

There have been 692 deaths from cholera at Casablanca, Morocco, between Sept. 7th and 24th. The epidemic is now decreasing.
