

off, for it was made large, and in such a way as to afford ample provisions for the animal to partake of its food with it. Today Bernichi's receipts were greater than usual, and on the strength of this fact he betook himself to a sample room near by, where he got gloriously drunk. He then came forth again with Bruin and told the crowd of bystanders that he would show them something they had never seen before. He unfastened the muzzle and took it off. No sooner had this been done than the pet pounced on him and commenced to "chaw" on his throat. The crowd thought this was only some part of the show, and looked on with increased interest. The poor man yelled, but as he was in the habit of yelling and making a great noise when he was exhibiting the bear, no attention was paid to that. Presently the blood rushed out, and Bernichi fell. Some one then rushed to his assistance, and found that he was dead. The bear had taken a large piece of flesh out of his neck and devoured it. It then flashed across the minds of the lookers-on what had happened. The struggles of the man with the bloody monster were terrible. The bear was shot, and Bernichi was buried in the town cemetery.

The unfortunate showman had, once or twice, been in Frederickton.

The Morning Star.

JOS. E. COLLINS,.....EDITOR.

FREDERICTON, NOV. 12, 1878.

Nomination, and what it revealed.

We are ashamed, to-day, the first time in some years, to raise our pen and write—for we have to give a sketch of our County representatives. We did not go very near the Court House, Saturday last—it stank of political corruption. Dr. Dow was trotted out like a buffalo to be jeered and sneered at. Indeed, he seemed to take the position himself with alacrity. Inveective and abuse were both poured on, the points and the jokes were tried against him, and the finger pointed at him. He stood up to explain, and every time he opened his mouth, he "put his foot in it." Facts and figures were against him; he owned up and tried to defend his position. He corroborated all the Star had said in that "libellous article" against him.

The Doctor admitted having received money. A wrong, a sin crying in the face of honor; a blot upon him socially and politically, so long as his heart beats! But did the wrong end here? Is Dr. Dow the only sinner in the whole squad? We answer no! and care not whom we "huff." Dow says he got $550 from Colter. Did he take it by violence? No! Colter gave it to him, or Colter's friends did. A blot be it on Colter, that ought but political sack-cloth and ashes shall ever make full satisfaction for. We have been mistaken in Mr. Colter, grievously disappointed in him. Pity, pity!—It only goes to show that the saints are in heaven, that on earth they may become demons,—that political honesty is as rare a thing as political ability. We have no excuse to offer for Mr. Colter—he is opposition, but what of that. He shirked investigation. He must have been afraid of the light.

Then comes Mr. Frazer, the leader of the government. The impression is, Dow has handled some of his money, too. "Horrible, horrible, most horrible!" And he the leader of the government! The man who should be an example to all others; the man who should see that the law be carried into effect. Think of it! A man makes a law, and the people believe he breaks that law; what faith can be in him!

But look where we will we see instances of the same thing—"Bribery and corruption"—is the cry all around. Sad is the state of morality, sad the state of the laws—legislation is only a farce, laws are made only to be broken. From both sides come the vandals. The opposition gives them, the government gives them. They are all infected in the wool. Shame! Blair and Thompson manfully have taken the field. Success to the honorable, be they government or opposition.

Local Politics.

Our local politics just now seem to be in a bad mess. They are in Chaos. But even as form grew out of the void and confusion in the beginning, so do we expect to see something develop itself. Bengough has a process of development which brings forth an alligator—our politicians may bring forth lame ducks.

As parties now stand we profess little allegiance to one side or the other. On both sides are some able men, on both sides are some complete asses, "unfinished things." "One knows not what to call." The Government as it now stands go in for purifying, probing, investigating, and the rest. This they bound themselves to do; this certain members offered as a justification for joining the side on which swam the fishes and were baked the loaves. These men were like the minister and the sister of charity, who would live in the blackest slum far the sake of eradicating vice and purifying morals. We hope they may carry out their promises. If not let them make up their accounts by time. We hold a Damoclesian sword over their head.

And then for the opposition. This august body just now has neither head nor tail—body nor soul. All these may exist in disjointed parts and only require putting together to make a fine piece of machinery. Among the oppositon are some able heads in whom the best interests of the country would be safe. Blair is a provincial Beaconsfield, and a whole team in himself. And there is our little St. John oracle, Mr. Willis, who has just as good an opinion of himself as any man needs to have, nor can we say he has those feelings without some reason.

Then in the Government there is some very able dealers. Of course it will be contended that Mr. Fraser has brains, or he would not be the leader of H. M. Government, we know Mr. Adams is a clever and brilliant young lawyer, that Mr. Landry is acute and sound, that Mr. Wedderburn is, the little polish excepted, a passable specimen of the kind of Governments Nem Brunswick is blessed with of late. Then there are those men, some of whom are in the ditch, and others of which are on the fence.

Mr. Elder is the notable. He is now on the uppermost round—of the fence—ready to flop any way the political wind blows strongest. We justify Mr. Elder in his undignified perch. The Government have blundered in ignoring Mr. Elder's ability. Since a departmental office could not be given him he should have had the speakership. Mr. Elder as we have already said deserves this both for his ability and good service.

We have little interest in either party, but both seem to be undecided and in a muddle. The "want of confidence vote" will develop much.

Dr. Rand's Carelessness.

Student teachers have been before a kind of mongrel or mock court for some weeks past in the Education office on the charge of having fraudulently changed and extracted certain examination papers. No locks were broken or bolts drawn in getting the papers. Why did Dr. Rand leave the papers where they could be tampered with? Why did he not put them under lock and key? The Dr. should come in for a little share of the punishment with the students.

A PRESIDENT'S MUSCLE.

LINCOLN'S GIANT STRENGTH—HE OUTLIFTS SOME POWERFUL SAILORS.

General Viele in Scribner.

Few were aware of the physical strength possessed by Mr. Lincoln. In muscular power he was one in a thousand. One morning while we were sitting on deck, he saw an axe in a socket on the bulwarks, and taking it up, held it at arm's length at the extremity of the helve between his thumb and forefinger, continuing to hold it there a number of minutes. The most powerful sailors on board tried in vain to imitate him. Mr. Lincoln said he could do this when he was eighteen years of age, and had never seen a day since when he could not. It occurred to me when reading the details of the plot which terminated in the death of the president, that his abduction, which was at one time proposed by the conspirators, would have resulted very disastrously to those who should have the temerity to undertake it. The plan proposed was to waylay the president at night during one of his frequent visits to the war department, where he was in the habit of going to read the telegraphic dispatches during the time of important military movements, and where he would often remain until a very late hour, returning alone through the grounds of the White house. A half dozen men were to seize and carry him off; but had they attempted it, they would probably have found that they had met their match, for he had the strength of a giant. Judge Swett, of Chicago, who was an intimate friend of his, says that he has seen him dash into a crowd where two powerful men were fighting, and taking each by the collar, hold them out at arms' length in the most helpless and ridiculous position.

It may be gratifying to Mr. Anglin to know that the STAR'S charges against Mr. Dow were not "lightly made." The Dr. has owned up. Calamity birds,—especially the doleful birds of darkness—like to sympathize with each other. Mr. Anglin had a kindly feeling for Dr. Dow. Doleful pair!
