VOLUME I.

FREDERICTON, N. B., SATURDAY, MARCH 29, 1879.

NUMBER 75.

CONDEMNED BY A CLOCK.

BY WILKIE COLLINS.

On a summer evening, years ago, a man was found murdered in a field near a certain town, in the west of England. The name of the field was "Pardon's Piece." The man was a small carpenter and builder in the town who bore an indifferent character. On the evening in question a distant relative of his, employed as farm bailiff by a gentleman in the neighborhood, happened to be pass-ing a stile which led from the field into the road, and saw a gentleman leaving the field by way of this stile rather in a hurry. He recognized the gentleman (whom he knew by sight only) as a Mr.

Dubourg.

They passed each other on the road in opposite directions. After a certain this difference only, that it was more quarrel and an absence at the moment combinations. It is woolen pekin with lapse of time—estimated as being a carefully sifted. Mr. Dubourg had the of witnesses on the spot—these were half hour—the farm bailiff had occasion | double advantage of securing the ser- | really the commonplace materials which to pass back along the same road. On vices of the leading barrister of the cir- had composed the tragedy. reaching the stile he heard an alarm cuit, and of moving the irrepressible raised and entered the field to see what sympathies of the jury, shocked at his was the matter. He found several per-sons running from the further side of nocence. By the end of the first day Pardon's Piece toward a boy who was the evidence had told against him with pocket by the chair. It had stopped- | hang him. evidently in consequence of the concusthe man as the carpenter and builder the defence.

mentioned above. At the preliminary inquiry, the stop- agitation which roused the curiosity of father appeared unspeakably grateful knowns which are to be in fashion this tle, and roses. The bridal handker- tailor's bench, he began peddling pic- head, and whoever differed, flattened page of the watch at 8 30 was taken as the audience. He demanded the im- for, and the boy indignantly repelled. offering good circumstantial evidence mediate hearing of the new witness, One man gave him an orange; the boy Old-gold color will still be worn, but has in one corner the interlaced name odicals. In this occupation he made a that the blow which had killed the man whose evidence in the prisoner's favor hurled it spitefully into the face of his not so much as formerly; that is, the of the bride, and in the other the Prus- scanty living, living in obscurity and had been struck at that time.

bailiff declared that he had met Mr. ters on either side, the court decided to eral chorus. A lady gave him her hand-Dubourg hastily leaving the field by continue the sitting. the stile at that very time. Asked if he had looked at his watch, he owned proved to be a young woman in delicate ever. I handed the poor little innocent vious circumstances, which he men- oner had paid his visit to the lady she the car window, and the urchin wailed mings. tioned as having impressed themselves | was in that lady's service as housemaid. | more indignantly than ever. All the on his memory, enabled him to feel The day after she had been permitted time the father never got cross or grew sure of the truth of this assertion without | (by previous arrangement with her mis- impatient, but "allowed he could hush having consolted his watch. He was tress) to take a week's holiday, and to him off to sleep after a bit." pressed on this important point, but he go on a visit to her parents in the west And by-and-by, sure enough, the pain what in this style without altogether seen Mr. Dubourg hurriedly leave the field. At 8.30 the watch of the mur- since to return to her employment. Hav- over on the father's shoulder, the broken on the side, which lie perfectly flat and Dr. Holland thus discusses a very im- navy, deceased since 1804. "Caspar It having become necessary that he dered man had stopped. Had any other person been observed in or near the field at that time? No witness had been discovered who relation to her mistress' clock:

had seen anybody else near the place. Had the weapon turned up with which the blow had been struck? It had not of them in particular.

alternative but to request Mr. Dubourg of her leave of absence, she had deter- gave a hurried jab at the boy with his lisse. The waist is cut very low in the because houses are built improperly. that during the long years since no -well known in andout of the town as mined to put matters right again, if extended fingers to push him further on neck, and is square both front and back. The arrangements for plumbing and claimant had ever appeared for the fora young gentleman of independent for- possible by herself. tune, bearing an excellent character-sulted once more on leaving the lady's more.

Mr. Dubourg admitted that he had been | scratching the brass frame of it—and | of coal and got his face smutty," induced by a friend to employ the man set the hands of the clock by guess. on some work. Further interrogation She was flurried at the time, fearing eyes greater than ever. extracted from him the following state- that her mistress would discover her. "An' I thought," continued the fath- flounces. Down the sides of the apron suppose, can doubt the great useful- of which he was a member to a sufment of facts:

grossly impertinent manner; that an al- fast, that Mr. Dubourg had seized the man | ting the clock right again, had occurred the man an infernal scoundrel (being in | At the hour of the evening when Mr. self-possession; and lastly, that, on his asserted, twenty minutes past eight. oath (the altercation having occurred cumstances were considered as being Cornish village to which she had gone unfortunate circumstances for Mr. Du - next day, and in which her illness had boug-nothing more. He had his detained her from that time, nobody "alibi" to appeal to, and his character had heard of the inquiry or the trial. to appeal to; and nobody doubted the She would not have been then present

The lady appeared as witness. was simply this: She looked at her on her taking the journey with him to clock when Dubourg entered the room, the court the next morning. thinking it rather a late hour for a The evidence virtually decided the strike the funny-bone of his left forelated by the maker only the day before) in the crowded assembly when the wo- out the difference between a knee cap among the plaits, will give height and sweet, it does not stay long or work pointed to twenty-five minutes to nine. man's statement had come to an end. had been no necessity to set the clock sisted from first to last, in obstinately ! "falls behind," before, terminating in an assault and a question with which he persecuted false statement of the question of time. | thing about the clock?" in Pardon's Piece.

The trial occupied two days. covered in the interval. The evidence stances. Chance, which had put innofollowed the course which it had taken | cence in peril, had offered impunity to at the preliminary examinations—with guilt. An infamous woman, a jealous sion of its owner's fall on it—at 8:30. The and the proceedings were on the point had been crying that way, the man said, combined small bunches of many col- ten feet and a half square, which will spent seventeen years steadily devoted man who has to furnish the stomach. body was still warm. All the other of being adjourned for half an hour, all day long, and he couldn't imagine ored fine flowers. These flowers are be fastened to the top of the crown, to the goose. Then he entered in valuables, like the watch, was left on it. when the attorney for the people was what ailed him. He "allowed he might marked on cashemire. The new color enveloping the princess. All the lace Uncle Sam's army, went South, was The farm bailiff instantly recognized seen to hand a paper to the counsel for have the earache." .The passengers n plain goods is called "chaudron." is of the finest point d'Alencon; the wounded, discharged, and finally with he declared to be too important to be de- baby sister, sleeping in the mother's color is not exactly the same. Gold and sian eagle. The recent bereavements comparative poverty. His wife, mean-The next question was, if any one had layed for a single moment. After a short lap, and the terrified young lady added been near the body at 8.30? The farm | colloquy between the judge and barris- | her wail of fright and pain to the gen-

Dubourg had called at the house she up and down the aisle with him, darted had been cleaning the mantelpiece, a glance out of the window, stooped on either side with the peplum trim- tion. He furthermore says that "not a Her husband gave the matter little been found. Was any one known (rob- | She had rubbed the part of it which | down and looked again, and shouted: bery having plainly not been the mo- was under the clock with her duster. tive of the crime) to have entertained a had accidentally struck the pendulum, grudge against the murdered man? It and had stopped it. Having once be take him-here! I can't more slender appearance. The most enforce it, be given." This is all right mentioned, giving the facts. The result was no secret that he associated with fore done this, she had been severely wait! Don't let him roll off! Watch suitable material for these dresses is as far as it goes, but it does not go half was a letter of inquiry from a lawyer doubtful characters, male and female; reproved. Fearing that a repetition of him!" but suspicion failed to point to any one | the offence, only the day after the clock | had been regulated by the maker, baby into the seat behind his wife, get- has a lemon-colored faille skirt, trimmed built under public sanitary supervision. don in 1804, leaving a fortune of £1,000,-In this state of things there was no might lead perhaps to the withdrawal ting him just about half way on. He with double ruchings of faille and crepe Men are dying in New York every day 000 invested in four per cent. securities; in the tenth century, but were only dark, and failing to set the pendulum was down on the platform in a flash. the lower trimming of the skirt. The Men put up buildings all over the counsince that time; and that he was He immediately admitted that he had going again properly in that way, she The mother quickly put down the baby lemon-colored plush train is taken back try just as they please. We have built desirous, if possible, of finding the passed through the field. But, in con- next attempted to lift the clock and give and turned to attend to the boy, two or in revers, and bordered with a band of houses for human dwellings, and we rightful owners. The claims of Mrs. tradiction to the farm bailiff, he declared it a shake. It was set in a marble case, three passengers at the same time sprang satin embroidered with flowers. The have never yet been questioned by any Hummell seemed, he said, to be well that he had looked at his watch at the with a bronze figure on the top, and it forward with the same purpose; all too peplum point is covered with jet work public officer as to how many fatal traps established, but he asked for further it became so important that it grew into moment before he crossed the stile, and was so heavy that she was obliged to late; before the father was well out of land colored flowers. Many plush trains we had set for human life. House- information, with documentary evidence the name of dower, which was settled that the time by it was exactly 8.15. hunt for something which she could use the door, the boy toppled off the seat, are worn by ladies who do not dance. poisoning has now become the most of her identity. Then followed more Five minutes later, that is to say, ten as a lever. The thing proved to be not came to the floor with a thump and a This fashion is particularly popular, as common form of poisoning. Diphtheria, correspondence, in which the family minutes before the murder had been easy to find on the spur of the moment. howl of real pain and fright, and when plain faille toilets can be altogether pneumonia and typhoid fever are the history and records were thoroughly committed, on the evidence of the dead man's watch—he had paid a visit to a she wanted, she contrived so to lift the came back into the car, the poor little of the plush train. This train must be modes of building, and there is no aulady living near Pardon's Piece, and had clock a few inches and drop it again on fellow, wide awake to all his old miseries in a color contrasting with the remain- thority, apparently, to prevent the form- mell received the information that there its banks, she noticed a thin film upon remained with her until his watch, con- the mantelpiece as to set it going once and the cne crowning, insulted new one, der of the water, which proved to be an oil

Here was what the defence called an move the hands on. Here again she until we got to Terre Haute, and I don't "alibi." It entirely satisfied Mr. Du- was met by an obsticle. There was a know how long after that. And all this sons who fully adopt this fashion arrange ered from sight; but he moves in, and which could be obtained by herself or museum in Alpwick there is some ointbourg's friends. To satisfy justice also difficulty in opening the glass case time nobody else had been able to see them in the following ways: The panier one after another of his family sickens her representative upon complying with ment preserved in an alabaster vase it was necessary to call the lady as a which protected the dial. After useless- anything to excite the father to such a is taken from the side and falls among and dies, and he learns, at last, that he the necessary legal forms. There was, which still has a very powerful odor, witness. In the meantime another purely ly searching for some instrument to remarkable degree, and he saw our won- the folds of the train, or forms a tuni- has dealt with a criminal, and that the however, a serious obstacle to remove, formal question was put to Mr. Du- help her, she got from the footman der in our coutenances. bourg. Did he know anything of the (without telling him what she wanted it "The man was a coal-miner," he ex. and fastened to the waist like a puffed no protection. With some appearance of confusion, opened the case - after accidently "and I reckon he'd been loadin' a car light blue crepe de Chine and white em- have boards of health established in to little more than furnish the necessi-That the work had been very badly over-estimated the interval of time that and seeing that some further explana- pink double faced ribbon. On the lower but if they could be armed with powers | vinced that the claim was probably valid, | ty-five hours he was unconscious of done: that an exorbitant price had been | had passed while she was attempting to | tion was necessary and expected, "I charged for it; that the man, on being put the clock right. She had, in fact, thought his eye was blacked, an' remonstrated with, had behaved in a set it exactly a quarter of an hour too l'lowed maybe there'd been a fight."

tercation had taken place between them; No safe opportunity of secretly putby the collar of his coat, and had turned until the last thing at night. She had him out of the house; that he had called moved the hands back to the right time. a passion at the time) and threatened to Dubourg had called on her mistress she "thrash him within an inch of his life" positively swore that the clock was a (or words to that effect), if he ever pre- quarter of an hour too fast. It had sumed to come near the house again; pointed, as her mistress had declared, to that he had sincerely regretted his own | twenty-five minutes to nine—the right | violence the moment he recovered his time then being, as Mr. Dubourg had Questioned as to why she had refrainsix weeks ago), he had never spoken to ed from giving this extraordinary evithe man, or set eyes on the man since. dence at the inquiry before the magis-As the matter there stood, these cir. trate, she declared that in the distant to state the vitally important circumstances to which she had just sworn if Confronted with Mr. Dubourg on the the prisoner's twin brother had not question of time, and forced to answer, found her out on the previous day, had the absolutely contradicted him, on the not questioned her if she knew anytestimony of the clock on her own man- thing about the clock, and had not telpiece. In substance, her evidence (hearing what she had to tell) insisted

Practical experiment showed that the She was closely cross-examined as a time required to walk the distance, at matter of course. Her character was rapid pace, from the stile to the lady's inquired into; corroborative evidence beuse, was just five minutes. Here, (relative to the chisel and the scratches then, was the farm bailiff (himself a on the frame) was sought for, and was respectable witness) corroborated by obtained. The end of it was that, at a another witness of excellent position late hour on the second evening, the and character. The clock on being ex- jury acquitted the prisoner without amined next, was found to be right. leaving their box. It was too much to The evidence of the clock-maker proved say that his life had been saved by his that he kept the key, and that there brother. His brother alone had per-and wind it up again, since he had per disbelieving the clock-for no better reaformed both those acts on the day preceding Mr. Dubourg's visit. The which asserted the prisoner's guilt! accuracy of the clock thus vouched for, He had worried everybody with his inthe conclusion on the evidence was irre- cessant inquiries; he had discovered sistible. Mr. Dubourg stood convicted the absence of the house-maid after the of having been in the field at the time trial had begun and he had started off

ing attempted to set up an alibi by a hang my brother; can you tell me any-There was no alternative but to commit | Four months later the mystery of the him to take his trial at the assizes, crime was cleared up. One of the disman confessed on his deathbed that he had done the deed. There was nothing No new facts of importance were dis- interesting or remarkable in the circum-

A Patient Father.

After we left Vincennes this afternoon, writes Bob Burdette in the Burlington standing at the back of a cattle shed, in such irrisistible force that his own coun. Hawkeye, a man got on with his wife is a pretty gray material. Foulards will inches in width, and there is attached reverses. Joseph Hummell is a native a remote part of the enclosure, scream sel despaired of the result. When the and two children. One of the little be more worn than ever, as also surah in front, a little toward the right, a of Germany, and there he married his ing with terror. At the boy's feet lay, prisoner took his place in the dock on ones, a boy three years or over, was "corah des Indies," and "louisine," small bouquet of myrtle. The train is wife, a widow, seventeen years older than many asses with short ears." face downward, the dead body of a man the second day there was but one con- fretful and weepful, and the father did which is handsomer even than surah. thirteen feet long, and is covered by a himself. In 1843 they came to America with his head horribly beaten in. His viction in the minds of the people in his best, and in the tenderest, patientest It is as soft as satin, and always comes rich lace flounce, the width of which is to seek their fortunes. They landed in in a farmyard? A pig; because he's watch was under him hanging out of his court; everybody said, "The clock will manner, to quiet the child and put him in light shades. In these materials three feet and a half, and upon which is New York, remained there two years, killed first and cured afterwards. hang him."

to sleep. How the little fellow did cry there are Scotch plaids in large designs laid a branch of myrtle. The bridal and in 1845 went to Boston, where and kick, and throw things around. He and very pale shades, with which are vail is a square of lace blossoms, about Joseph learned the tailor trade, and an empty stomach, but we pity that were full of sympathy for which, as they It is coppery-brass color, or rather a design modern in style, representing a his wife went to Cincinnati. Unable by ber threw a small crumb of bread into The counsel rose, showing signs of strove to express it in various ways, the some smelling-bottle; he dashed it on silver are now much used for the dra- Among these are a velvet dress, bodice, The witness, appearing in the box, the floor, and howled more fiercely than peries and trimmings of ball dresses and lace, and a dress of rep, the satin insercare of his aged and helpless wife, hopthat he had not done so. Certain pre- health. On the evening when the pris- my pocket knife; away it went out of held to his declaration. At 8.30 he had of Cornwall. While there she had fallen and impatience yielded to the father's ill, and had not been strong enough patient soothing, the little head dropped dresses, with very long peplum points of the Medical Profession to the State," formerly an admiral in the English ing given this preliminary account of sobs became less and less frequent, and are trimmed on the ends with tassels. herself, the housemaid than narrated the finally died away, and the poor little The princess apron forms the upper following extraordinary particulars in fellow just began to forget his troubles part of the peplum point, and the plait-On the morning of the day when Mr. | tion, when suddenly the father, walking

The next necessity was, of course, to | made the windows rattle, and kept it up for) a small chisel. With this she plained, as he took the screaming boy, basque. An evening toilet may be of

Later in the day she found that she had er, nervously patting the boy's back, is a trimming consisting of blue and ness of our New York board of health; ficient extent, and they becoming con-

Chrystal's "Xylophonics."

On thyme-The gardener's foot. A pedestrian's wages-Gait money. The earliest spring on record—The mond ring. There is a wide difference between a pupil and a pup ill. A lamp-host—The landlord who lights you up to your room.

ed by an editor's boot? No matter what rank vegetables may ribbon. attain, the cabbage will always be a

An assembly composed of paragraphers would probably be called an O pun

A man with a pair of creaky boots always has music in his sole, and is not likely to forget it, either.

A man may be full weight, yet dishonest; he may be large, but lazy; and guise sake—and how few know the im- dition which it finds. If it finds a peoyet we generally judge a man by his eyes. visitor to call on her. The clock (regu- trial. There was a great burst of relief limb against a frame in order to find good color, or a thick gold chain twisted place where everything is pure and and a cap E.

> We smile at the ignorance of the savage who cuts down the tree in order to reach the fruits; but the fact is that a blunder of this description is made by patient in the pursuit of pleasure.

FOR THE FAIR SEX.

The Fashions. when the murder was committed; of to interrogate the girl, knowing nothing ing and table linen are embroidered in your build, the shape of head and face having, by his own admission, had a and suspecting nothing—simply deter- many colors. Handkerchiefs have must be considered if you aim at being quarrel with the murdered man not long mined to persist in the one everlasting monograms worked in cotton or silk in pleasant to the artistic eye. If the threat on his side, and, lastly, of hav- every body: "The clock is going to often adorned with plaid designs and are rather wide, roll the hair over pads store in front and tenement in the rear, borderings striped in all colors. There at the temples or friz it out; if your is an old man of sixty, her husband, are scarcely any more suits made in two forehead be too large for your face, any with a passage-ticket for London in his now trimmed with "pekin" or Scotch you lack height, dress the hair high, upon his lips, about to sail for Europe charged with the murder of the builder reputable companions of the murdered plaid goods in altogether different colors brush off the brow, and wear a flower or to obtain possession of an immense forare made of satin cashemire, for bonnets head be depressed or flat at top, plaits and neckties and to trim suits.

> kind has just been manufactured for cushion. -Mrs. Haweis. spring wear which will serve for many narrow satin stripes. These stripes alternate, one being plaid and in a natural shade, and the other having small riage to Prince Arthur, Queen Victoria's Now he finds himself suddenly a milgrounding, which is in a different color | splendor at Windsor, is of heavy white | wife, with whom he plighted his vows from the grounding of the plain stripe. satin, and the low bodice is embroidered in the fatherland long years ago. Another novelty in pekin is called "ina- with lace four inches in width. The It is a strange story—strange even movible." which means immovable. It skirt is orgamented with lace twelve in these times of sudden fortunes and kind of golden brown. Among the fantastic combination of oranges, myr- reason of his wound to sit upon the a basket, carried by a servant on his spring are red, straw-color and biege. chief is made on the same pattern, and tures, books, church papers and peri- the pellet at one side. silver are likely to be mixed with differ- in the two royal and imperial families time, had been a confirmed invalid; and, ent tissues and combined with embroi- have rendered several black robes de gathering together a few dollars, he deries. Materials shot with gold and cour for the princess indispensable. invested it in a little stock of papers, moss is now combined with flower trim- | tion of which is adorned with rich bead | ing for nothing more than a comfortable

spect to the make of dresses is the draping of the paniers. Some modistes

try to make their spring suits someadopting it; others make tight-fitting in sleep as the train slowed up to a sta- ing a l'Ecossaire is narrow at the top, every county and every town, and that too, an admiral, and died about the date becoming broad toward the lower border | there should be no man upon it who has | mentioned. Can it be that I am the one of the skirt. The plaiting is bordered not a scientific, medical or legal educa | wanted to lay claim to his inheritance?' ming. This Grecian style has great ad- schoolhouse, not a jail, not a hospital, thought or attention at first, but finding "What's the matter with that man?" | vantages; it is admirably suited to small | not a sewer, should be built unless com- ther positive in her statement of family "Hello!" he shouted. "Here, Emily, figures, to which it gives a taller and petent sanitary advice, with power to history, decided to write to the address silk. A dress made in this style, and far enough. The truth is that every named Weber, in London, stating that With a hasty motion he tossed the worn at one of the latest Parisian fetes, private house that goes up should be Caspar Weiss, an admiral, died in Lon-After poking under the clock in the to the door of the car, shot out of it, and a large peplum point, which ends on but utterly vicious and murderous. of interest-bearing greatly increased was screaming away at a rate that fairly pink faille or satin dress the train may puts up a block, and offers his houses tity, and that she was the long-sought made by the heat of the sun. The

que. Some paniers are made very short. municipality or State has afforded him and that was the lack of funds. Mr. beads. On the left shoulder, falling is of almost infinitely more importance. Is a man well bred, when he is "rais- down the back, are long loops of the Doctor Roosa speaks of what is done

> Hair Dressing. Many have scanty locks-for them.

head to the front and bound to the head! offer it for sais of reuti by narrow straps of ribbon, gold, or black velvet. Between these straps the hair is loosened and raised, which gives A New York paper says: Everything an undulating line. This is a rival of now worn is in several colors-ribbons, the old medieval fashion. It is absoembroideries, and even the straw of lutely necessary to study yourself bewhich bonnets are made. Undercloth- fore you dress your hair; your height, as many as seven different hues, and are forehead is narrow, while your cheeks shades of the same color. They are form of fringe may be cultivated. If pocket, and his wife's good-bye kiss from the bodies of the dresses. Tissues jewel as high as possible. Should the tune, estimated at $20,000,000, to which across diadem-wise will be a great addi-Pekin continues in fashion. A new tion; or the hair may be brushed over a Germany his nation, and for the past

A Royal Bridal Dress. Louisa Margaret of Prussia, whose mar- his means of obtaining a livelihood. embroidery. The traveling costume is living and a life in conformity with the and as matters began to improve the The chief question at present in re- gray, braided with soutache.

Village Boards of Health.

recent address before the New York advertisement asking for the where-State Medical society on the "Relations abouts of the heirs of Caspar Weiss, Doctor Roosa very wisely says that grandfather. Can it be that this is in there should be a board of health in relation to him and his heirs? He was, for sale. The buyer sees everything for descendant, and entitled to at least To return to the paniers. Those per- fair, for the sources of disease are cov- a large portion of the funds in question,

The truth is that we not only need to being enabled by his very scanty income broidered gauze. The train skirt is many places where they are not, but we ties of life for himself and his invalid to avoid persecution. Our amazement looked out of our plaited. The white satin apron is cov- need to have their powers much en- wife. Finally, however, he succeeded ered with small embroidered gauze larged where they exist. No one, we in interesting his friends in the society border of the apron is a blue-plaited that would enable them to act more di- consented to advance sufficient funds to fatigue and hunger, when suddenly, flounce. Down the back of the skirt rectly upon the prevention of disease, enable him to make the journey to Lon- becoming aware of them, he ordered are puffed draperies, drawn in to the they could be much more useful. If don and claim for his wife, who is unable some food to be brought, which proved middle of the train by means of many they could have authority to dictate the by reason of her age and infirmities to to be some beef and two slices of bread. large ribbon loops. Large ribbon loops | plumbing and ventilation of every struc- | travel, the fortune. fall in cascades over the draperies, start- ture, private as well as public, erected ing from the right side of the waist. in this city, they could save the city a The waist is plaited all the way down, large percentage of its cruelest mortaliback and front. The upper part of the ty. If they could have the control of waist is opened and trimmed with a ruf- the cleaning of the streets, does any one fle of embroidered gauze and ribbon doubt that they would greatly improve Never on hand when wanted-A dia- loops. The neck trimming is completed the health of the city? We talk about with a crepe lisse and lace collarette, the adulteration of food as if it were a with a blue ribbon through the centre. great thing, and our board of health Over the arm-sizes is a roll of crepe de busies itself about it in the absence of Chine. The sleeves, which reach to the other work; but the adulteration, the elbow, are of white net, worked with absolute poisoning, of the air we breathe, double-faced ribbon. The belt is of pink in the way of preventive medicine by our wise system of quarantine, by which the city has been saved from epidemics. With our yellow fever lesson of last year fresh in memory, it really seems as far from forbidding borrowed ones. I if towns should learn something. enjoin them. Many have hair so heavy | There is no question that all these epithat it really needs elaborate fasten- demics become fatal in the degree in ings. Some have bald patches, caused which the air is vitiated by poisonous by the dragging of too much false hair odors. When yellow fever or cholera or by injudicious tying; to these I re- visits a place, it becomes a terrible or commend some dainty head-gear for dis- a mild visitation, according to the conprovement that some form of ornament | ple already poisoned with foul streets It isn't necessary for a printer to is to the hair. A little cap of antique and had drainage, it finds food for a lace or a gracefully-managed ribbon of great and grave mortality. If it finds a importance to the figure, by drawing such mischief. There are some States the eye, through color, to the top of the which have a board of health, or may head. The generality of women have have one, in every town, armed with a hair neither dark enough nor light considerable amount of power-with enough to be conspicuous per se. To the power, at least, of holding inquest all of these some headdress is a great on private premises, and determining every person who is over-eager and im- improvement. One of the prettiest what shall be done to remedy evils; modes of doing up the hair is that but what we really want most is a wider have adopted what may be considered a ing a fall of temperature within an affected greatly by the artistic world. power of prevention, such as shall make peculiarly discriminative liquor law. It hour; if the temperature be rising it is The hair is cut in a fringe over the it incumbent upon every builder to se- prohibits all liquor-dealers in the city checked, and if very high it can be The fellow who tumbles off the "tail. forehead, or the fringe is simulated by cure the approval of such a board be- from giving or selling liquor to a lawyer owered, and so time is gained for the

MILLIONS OF MONEY.

Mrs. Hummell's Vast Inheritance-A Newsvender's Wife Falls Heir to $20,000,-

Out in Betts street Hospital, says the Cincinnati Enquirer, lies an old lady seventy-seven years of age, a confirmed invalid for twenty years, unable to care for herself. Down on Budd street, Handkerchief. in a little dingy brick building, a news his wife has suddenly found herself en titled. Joseph Hummell is his name; fifteen years, since a bullet at the battle | tremities. of Daval's Bluff rendered him unable to The bridal dress of the Princess of newspapers and periodicals has been sit upon the tailor's bench, the vending army. Probably you have heard of its squad-drills. branches in bright colors on a plain third son, was celebrated with such lionaire, through an inneritance of his speaks for herself."

books and sacred pictures, and for years which he is a devout member. Two Weiss," she said, "was the name of my Hummell, the husband, was very poor, Catching Cold.

"Colds" are among the unsolved medical problems. They used to be thought due to the suppression of the excretions of the skin; but this takes place whenever the surface is exposed to cold, and often without harm; and colds are sometimes taken when only a few square inches of surface are exposed. It is a fact, too, that men and the brain, and blood that came back animals may be varnished without producing the symptoms of a cold.

Still, the ordinary medical view lating apparatus.

A cold is a slight fever. It begins with a chilly sensation, followed by helmet, so well known in lunatic asyheat. The fever runs its course in a lums, had to be resorted to. After a day or two. Like other fevers, how-Hence, rheumatic pains, headache, nasal catarrh, sore throat, catarrh of the inaround the mouth).

Sweating, whether by medicines ad-Companion.

The common council of Racine, Wis., board" of a wagon is the man who the ends of the hair brought over the fore he can live in his house himself or of the place who used to be a leader at recovery of the patient, -Scientific the State bar, but is now a drunkard. I American

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A man of pluck-The fowl-stripper. Every baker's shop has the stomach

This is the walking year, the next will be leap year.

The chief necessity of the season-

The average size of the farms in the United States is 153 acres. In Siam the penalty for lying is to have the mouth sewed up. "Mischief, thou art a foot!" exclaimed the man of many corns. Diphtheria is regarded as the most atal of all the diseases of children. Your professional pedestrian may be said to be a man who profits by his ex-

Dancing has been introduced into the

Some malignant slanderer says: "Woman needs no eulogist, for she

As a rule leather men are no better than other people though they have both inner and outer soles.

There is a very suggestive proverb which declares that "There are a great

Which is the most wonderful animal

The origin of electing members by ballot came from the Grecians. When a member was to be elected, each mem-

Of Mr. Shelley, a nephew of the poet, Mr. Conway tells an interesting story: This gentleman, while searching for adventures in Africa, got among a tribe whom he found suffering poverty for want of a little knowledge about cattle breeding, agriculture and other things which he was competent to give. He remained with them for a while, taught them what they most needed, requirements of the church of Rome, of Africans desired to worship him as a god descended among them. Mr. Shelyears ago, however, his wife, in looking ley's only trouble was that they so Writing in Scribner of Dr. Roosa's over a newspaper, chanced to notice an loaded him with their favors and environed him with their devotion that he could not get away. The one thing they would not hear of was his leaving. should return to England, he was forced to have recourse to stratagem. He proposed to go on an expedition with a mounted company, and, carrying these with him to a point not far from an English colony, he got up silently in the night and rode off furiously, making good his escape.

Curious Facts.

The word purse originally meant a receptacle for arms, and was not invented to mean simply a place of safety for money. Gloves were introduced into England used by the wealthy people, and were considered very valuable. As New the seat, but missed him and darted off The dress is cut from the waist down in ventilation are not only incompetent, tune; that it had by the natural process Year's gifts they were quite popular, or sometimes "glove-money" in place of them. "Pin-money" originated in somewhat the same manner. Pins were so costly that money spent or laid aside for them was called "pin-money," and upon the lady at her marriage. Attar of roses was discovered by accident. The wife of an Eastern and as she was walking one day upon Egyptians were very famous in the manufacture of perfumes, and at the notwithstanding it must be between

2,000 and 3,000 years old. The word hermit comes from a Greek word meaning a desert place, because deserts were generally sought in order Sandwiches were named from Lord Sandwich. It is related of him, that one day in a gambling-house, being very much fascinated by play, for twen-Placing them together he ate them. His friends gave them the name of sandwiches, and in his memento he declared this act to be the most important one of his administration.

Fortnight comes from the Anglo-Saxons, who counted time by night, and means fourteen nights.

The Medical Ice-Hat.

Dr. Richardson believed that by icing blood that went through the carotids to

through the jugulars, we should directly lower the temperature of the brain itself; and probably it may have been that the passing off of effete matter from | done experimentally, but in practice it the skin being checked the blood is al- was not found easy to do. It was diffitered in character. The corrupted blood cult to keep any kind of cravat or then in its turn affects the heat-regu- collar that was tried, filled with ice, round the neck of the patient; it slipped off, and the old India rubber bag or ice time Mr. Thornton combined a particuever, it may have various complications. lar form of cap which answers the purpose extreaely well. A pail of water with a large lump of ice in it is placed testines, herpes labialis (eruptions above the bed of the patient, and the stream of ice water runs through the cap, which is formed of a soil of India ministered internally or otherwise, is the rubber tubing lined with linen. That main reliance for hastening a cure. But is placed upon the patient's head, and the pores should be kept somewhat open is made of different sizes and shapes to by warm clothing, or the heat of a warm fit the patient; the other extremity of room for several days, during which the tube is put into a second pail at the there should be no exposure. - Youth's side of the bed, and by this means the head is iced. The effect in lowering temperature is very marked, the thermometer in almost all instances indicat-