Local Happenings. Items of Local Interest Carefully Prepared by the Gazette's "Man About Town."

DEBTISTRY.—Dr. H. E. Belyea, dentist, is at the Hotel Dingee where he is practicing his profession.

REPAIRING.—Mr. G. A. Williams is repairing the DuVerriet house lately purchased by Mr. Isaac Fox. The latter expects to move into it this fall.

NO SERVICE.—There was no service held in either church here on Sunday evening owing to the storm.

KILLED A DEER.—Steve, the Indian, killed a deer on Monday. He also wounded a pure white deer and expects to capture it to-day.

ONE MONTH IN JAIL.—At Fredericton, on Friday last, an Indian was sent to jail for one month for killing a moose this side of the St. John River.

OBITUARY.—James Boone an old and respected resident at Geary, Sunbury Co., is dead, aged 88 years. Deceased drove her majesty's mail for many years.

APPOINTED SHERIFF.—D. Beverley Hatfield of Norton, warden of the municipality of Kings county, and stipendiary magistrate for the parish of Norton, has been appointed sheriff of Kings county to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sheriff Freeze.

IMPROVING.—Thos. E. Bridges, of Sheffield, who was admitted to the Victoria Hospital last week suffering from an attack of blood poisoning, is progressing favorably, and seems to have passed the danger point.

H. W. Woods, General Merchant, Welsford, has just received a fine, new line of the celebrated B. Laurance Spectacles and Eye glass in Gold, Gold-filled and nickel frames. Mr. Woods keeps a perfect line of test lenses, and can guarantee perfect satisfaction to any person who require perfect aids to vision.

BOATS STOPPED.—The Smt. Olivette came down from Fredericton on Saturday, she being the last boat of the Star Line. The Weston did not come up on Saturday. The river is still free of ice and the reason for the steamers stopping before the closing of navigation is a mystery. The mails were transferred to the winter routes on Saturday.

S. S. MONTICELLO'S LAST TRIP.—The S. S. City of Monticello made her last trip to Gaspe on Monday, but will return before going to St. John for the winter. During her trip on Thursday she went aground a mile west of New Carlisle, getting off about two o'clock Friday. Owing to the fog on Saturday she did not get to Dalhousie till Sunday.—Campbellton Telephone.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A most distressing accident, by which Bedford Allen, of Bayside, lost his life, occurred at Rayworth's Upper Cape factory Saturday morning. Young Allen was attending the engine, and in getting sawdust for the fire he got under the edge saw, which hit him, splitting his head open. He died in a few minutes. Allen was only about 15 years old and was a steady, hard-working boy. He is a son of Geo. L. Allen of Bayside.—Moncton Times.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—War or no war I am still in the front rank in fitting trim, having lately secured the services of Mr. J. A. McKinnon, a late graduate of Mr. J. Mitchell's cutting school of New York. I am now fully prepared to give my numerous customers a first class fit, workmanship unexcelled, style perfect, and prices that will astonish you. I respectfully invite you to call and inspect my large stock, no trouble to show goods and give you quotations at Joseph Walker's, Merchant Tailor, second door above People's Bank, Queen Street, Fredericton, West End.

GEORGE DEWEY WILLIAMS.—Geo. G. Williams has full and ample reason for the large broad grin of satisfaction that illuminates his countenance. A baby boy that tips the beam at sixteen pounds, came into the world at his home on Garfield avenue this week. The mother and child are doing nicely. The youngster will be christened George Dewey Williams, after the famous victor of Manila, and George expects to see him a living duplication of his illustrious namesake.—The Marquette, Wis. Daily Eagle, Oct. 6.—Mr. G. G. Williams is a son of Mr. G. A. Williams of this town.

SUNDAY'S STORM.—A regular old time storm set in here on Sunday morning. The wind was from the north east and blew a heavy gale. The snow was piled in some places and in other places it was completely blown off. The wind did considerable damage and trees are across the roads in several places. On account of the bad condition of the roads Mail Carrier Thompson had not arrived at office-closing hour on Monday night.

COOK'S NEW BLOOD PILLS.

BARN BLOWN DOWN.—Mr. John Gaunce's barn, in course of construction, was blown down by Sunday's gale. The frame was all up and partially boarded in. This is quite a loss to Mr. Gaunce as a number of the frame sticks are badly broken, as are also the boards used for boarding in the building.

SEVERE STORM.—The storm of Sunday seems to have been universal. Telephone and telegraph wires were badly interrupted all through New England. Chimneys were blown down in St. John and other places. In Boston Harbor thirty schooners and barges were wrecked and twelve lives lost. The storm in New England was only exceeded by the hurricane of 1851.

CHAMPION DUCK SHOOTER.—John Bartlett of Mougerville, is without doubt the champion duck shooter of Central New Brunswick. Up to the present time this season he has succeeded in bagging no less than eighty of these crafty birds, which is somewhat below the usual average for a season. Mr. Bartlett is now approaching the three score and ten mark but his eye seems to be as keen and his aim as accurate as ever. Among his most notable achievements with the gun, is the killing of eight ducks at one shot, out of a flock of eleven on the wing, and eleven out of a flock of thirteen setting on the water.—Herald.

ARMSTRONG-McMULKIN.—A very neat wedding took place at Lawfield, on Wednesday evening last, when Mr. John Armstrong, of Summer Hill, was united in the bonds of wedlock to Miss Amelia McMulkln, daughter of the late Edward McMulkln, of Lawfield. A goodly number of the friends of the bride and also of the bridegroom were in attendance. Needless to say the bride was tastefully dressed and looked very nice in her bridal garb. The marriage took place at 7 o'clock and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Neil McLaughlin of Gagetown. A large table stood in the room where the marriage took place piled up with beautiful and useful presents. Tea was served at 8 o'clock. Shortly after tea while Mrs. McLaughlin was rendering a march on the organ a number of serenaders stole quietly to the house and suddenly made such terrific noise as to drown the music within. The serenaders were invited into the house and wished the bride much joy and congratulated the groom. They were then treated and after the exchange of some pleasant remarks and of kindly feelings in general the serenaders retired after giving three cheers for the young couple. Miss McMulkln was a general favorite and her presence will be much missed at Lawfield and also at Gagetown where she is well and favorably known. We congratulate Mr. Armstrong upon his choice.

THE REV. IRL R. HICKS Annual Almanac and monthly paper, WORD AND WORKS, are now known from sea to sea. We are pleased to call the attention of our readers to the Almanac for 1899, now ready. It is a splendidly printed and illustrated book of 116 pages and the storm forecasts and diagrams and astronomical and scientific matter are superior to anything that has ever been seen before in a 25 cent book. His monthly Journal, WORD AND WORKS, is one of the best literary, home and scientific magazines in the country, besides containing his monthly storm forecasts with explanations. The subscription price of WORD AND WORKS is $1.00 per year and a copy of the Hicks Almanac is sent as a premium to every yearly subscriber. Single copies of WORD AND WORKS, 10 cents. Price of Almanac alone 25 cents. Send your order to WORD AND WORKS PUB. CO., 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Two Papers for One Price. We have made arrangements with the "Family Herald and Weekly Star" Publishers whereby we can supply that paper and the QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE, for one year, for $1.50. Subscribers will also receive the beautiful picture entitled the "Thin Red Line." Taking the picture into consideration, the subscribers for the "Family Herald and Weekly Star" and the QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE will receive two papers for the price of one. This is a golden opportunity. Address, JAS. A. STEWART, GAGETOWN, N. B.

MARRIED. ARMSTRONG-McMULKIN.—At the bride's home Lawfield, Wednesday, Nov. 23rd by Rev. Neil McLaughlin B. A., Mr. John Armstrong of Summer Hill to Miss Amelia McMulkln daughter of the late Edward McMulkln of Lawfield, Queens Co.

McKENZIE-FOWLER.—At Welsford, on Nov. 24th, by the Rev. W. B. Armstrong, Rector of Petersville, Arthur Z. McKenzie to Annie B. Fowler, daughter of the late George A. Eowler, both of Welsford, N. B.

FLETCHER-IRELAND.—Nov. 22nd at the residence of the bride's father, Salt-springs, Kings Co. by Rev. E. A. Warnerford, Samuel L. Fletcher of Chipman to Miss Alice Jane Ireland.

TRUE-PATTERSON.—At Free Baptist parsonage, Fredericton, by Rev. F. C. Hartley, Nov. 24th, Mr. Howard True to Miss Lillian Patterson, both of Lincoln, Sunbury Co.

PARLEE-HUGHES.—At the Baptist parsonage, Nov. 24th 1898, by Rev. J. D. Freeman, William N. Parlee to Lizzie M. Hughes, both of Oromocto.

SAVE MONEY BY HOME DYEING.

Easy Way to Make New Autumn Dresses Out of Old and Faded Costumes and Suits.

Diamond Dyes for Long Years Have Been the Standard Home Dyes.

Don't wear a faded gown. Don't look shabby simply because you cannot afford to buy a new dress.

It is not necessary to wear clothing that is faded and shabby because you have no money to buy more. With one or two packages of Diamond Dyes, that cost only ten cents, the old dresses can be dyed a fashionable and beautiful color and made to look like new. Thousands of women will have autumn dresses this year that cannot be told from new, but which have cost them only a trifle, the result of coloring over their old materials with Diamond Dyes.

Diamond Dyes give the newest and most beautiful colors that will not fade, crock or wash out, and are the only package Dyes that have stood the test of years of use. Never risk your goods with any of the common adulterated dyes.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for "The Story of the Philippines" by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as Official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco, on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the Hospitals at Honolulu, in Hong Kong, in the American trenches at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of the Olympia with Dewey, and in the roar of battle at the fall of Manila.
