Local Happenings.

Items of Local Interest Carefully Prepared by the Gazette's "Man About Town."

SCHOOL BLANKS.—Mr. Angus Daigle Chipman, has for sale District School Assessment Lists and School Tax Notices.

NOTICE.—Probate Court, Queens County, will be held on the 2nd Wednesday in each month until further notice.

AT A STANDSTILL.—The freshet has been at a standstill the past few days.

Unflagging interest prevails everywhere in the Union Blend Tea keys.

LAUNDRY AGENCY.—Mrs. Rubins has secured the agency for the Globe Laundry, of St. John. All laundry left at her store will receive prompt attention.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.—The Rev. A. B. McDonald, of Cambridge, preached in the Methodist Church, here, Sunday, both morning and evening. His sermons were both able and instructive.

APPOINTED GAOLER.—Mr. Abner Belyea has been appointed gaoler of Queens County, in place of Mr. William Brander, deceased.

NEW DENTAL PARLORS.—Dr. H. E. Belyea has opened an office at the corner of King and Charlotte streets, St. John, N. B., where he will be pleased to see his many friends and patrons.

PROPERTY TRANSFERRED.—Mr. Wm. Allingham has purchased from Mr. John Law the property on Main Street, known as the old DeVeber property. Mr. Allingham has removed his residence to his newly acquired property.

NOTICE.—The Mouth of Jemseg correspondent wishes to inform the travelling public that the interval road and between the ferry at Mr. Scovill's and Mr. Bates' is not passable on account of the many washouts caused by the high freshet. We hope the commissioners will take note of the above stated and soon make the way clear.

QUEEN'S COUNTY QUARTERLY MEETING.—The Queen's County Quarterly Meeting will convene with the Baptist Church at Upper Newcastle, beginning on Saturday, June 3rd., at 10 A. M. On the afternoon and evening of the day previous the Sunday School Convention will hold its sessions.

COLD WEATHER.—The weather has been exceedingly cold the past few days and on Sunday night there was a very heavy frost. In some of the gardens the vegetables that started early were badly damaged by the frost. The fruit men are greatly concerned about their fruit as most of the trees are in blossom and it is thought that the frost will blight them.

DEATHS.—Miss Lizzie Morgan daughter of W. E. Morgan, died of consumption at her home in Three Tree Creek, Sunbury Co., on Sunday, aged 36 years. Miss Jennie M. Titus died at her home in Gibson on Sunday, after a lengthy illness from consumption. She was the daughter of the late Frederick Titus, who met a tragic death at St. Marys several years ago, and 22 years of age.

A GOOD INDUCEMENT.—The Farm Journal is choke full of gumption and it has the largest circulation of any farm paper in the world. It is good everywhere. We offer it for a short time as a prize to advance-paying subscribers to the QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE a year ahead and the Farm Journal five years, all for the price of our paper alone.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—War or no war I am still in the front rank in fitting trim, having lately secured the services of Mr. J. A. McKinnon, a late graduate of Mr. J. Mitchell's cutting school of New York. I am now fully prepared to give my numerous customers a first class fit, workmanship unexcelled, style perfect, and prices that will astonish you. I respectfully invite you to call and inspect my large stock, no trouble to show goods and give you quotations at Joseph Walker's, Merchant Tailor, second door above People's Bank, Queen Street, Fredericton, West End.

FORRESTER'S PICNIC.—The Forrester's annual picnic will be held at Fredericton this year. Watch for date in next issue.

FORRESTER'S PICNIC.—At the regular meeting of Court Aloha, I. O. F., held on Tuesday night, it was decided to hold their annual picnic and excursion to Fredericton, the last week in June or the first week in July. The committee will arrange the date after making arrangements with the Star Line Co., for the Stmr. Aberdeen. The committee in charge of the affair are J. W. Dickie, Fred Ebbett, C. L. Scott, Wm. Hamilton, T. W. Gilbert.

ERECTING A LARGE ELL.—Mr. Fred. Dingee has the plasters at work on the ell that he is having erected at his residence. The ell is forty-three feet long and two story high. The second story is made with spacious bed rooms and the lower story will comprise the dining room kitchen and pantry. The kitchen and dining room will have hardwood floors and will be fitted up in the most modern style. Mr. G. A. Williams is managing the building.

WILL ATTEND DIVINE SERVICE.—Sunday, June 18th, has been set apart by the Supreme Court I. O. F., as a day for the Forrester's to attend Divine service in a body to give thanks to God for the prosperity of his Order. The Court Aloha will attend St. John's Church in full regalia on the evening of the 18th June. The rector, Rev. N. C. Hanson, will preach an appropriate sermon for the occasion.

SUDDEN DEATH AT WASSIS.—The startling sudden death occurred at Wassis on Sunday afternoon of Mr. Thomas O. Nason, a well known and universally respected farmer of that place. Mr. Nason was standing in the kitchen of his home looking out of the window when without a word or cry he fell backwards upon the floor; his wife and family rushed to his side and found that life was extinct, that death had been instantaneous, presumably from heart disease. The deceased gentleman leaves a widow and three children and a large circle of friends.

EBBETT & PICKETT.—In another column of this issue will be found the card of the new firm of Ebbett & Pickett, barristers of St. John. Mr. Ebbett will still retain his offices in this county and will hold Probate Court on the second Wednesday in each month. Mr. Ebbett will be greatly missed by the residents of Gagetown and vicinity, but his friends will be glad to know that he has entered a field where there is a better chance for advancement. Mr. Pickett, his partner, has established quite a business in the city and the firm starts with every prospect of a bright future.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE.—Messrs. J. Otty Morrell and J. L. Sutherland, who have been in the employ of Manchester, Robertson and Allison for the past (10) years, have opened a very attractive Dry Goods and Gents furnishing store at No. 29 Charlotte Street, directly opposite the Young Men's Christian Association building. This firm are both young men but thoroughly understand their business, having had about fifteen years in the leading retail Dry goods store, of St. John. Their stock is entirely new and comprises a large selection of staple and fancy Dry goods, Housefurnishings etc. Their advertisement in this issue of 5% discount should be taken advantage of by all person requiring anything in Dry goods.

Biggle Horse Book is as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. Its motto: "Always speak to a horse as you would to a gentleman" is the keynote of its treatment of the whole subject. There are twenty-five chapters including advice on feeding and watering, stable management, whims and vices, ailments and their remedies, harness hints, about stables, colts' education, care of the feet, etc. Many of the illustrations have been made from life. The book is handsomely printed and substantially bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

The Appetite of a Goat Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pill, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.
