DIED AT WOODSTOCK.—Mr. Charles T. Perkins died at his home five miles below town on Saturday evening last, after an illness of some duration. He was born in Kings county but moved to Queens when but a mere lad, where he married and lived many years. Some twenty-five years ago Mr. Perkins purchased the old church property known as "the Rectory." Here he lived until a few years ago, when the present occupant and owner Mr. John Flemming, purchased the property. Since then Mr. Perkins has lived with his son, Charles H. L. Perkins, who married Miss Florence Bull. Mrs. Charles T. Perkins pre-deceased her husband some ten years. Of a family of three children who moved with their father to Woodstock, only the son above referred to, survives. Two daughters, Agnes, wife of Frederick Griffith, and Emily, wife of Arthur J. Raymond, have passed away. Mr. Perkins was a man of sterling character, upright and honest in all his dealings, a good neighbor and an industrious and capable farmer. Since he came to Woodstock he won the respect of all with whom he came in contact. He was a devoted member of the church of England.—Woodstock Despatch.

TO EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE.

In reporting Mr. H. W. Woods' Declaration speech, you credit him with saying that there was $20.00 paid for a vote in Petersville, which I say is entirely untrue.

Then he explains that a certain man in said Parish had done some work on roads and claimed for his work $20.00 and his claim was not allowed. This, I also say was not correct, as I happen to know that the claim was a just one, and the chief commissioner would have settled it long before the date referred to, only some difficulty arose between Burton and supervisor which caused the delay.

Then he says that the said certain man told the government candidates when they solicited his support that if the money was not paid for the said work before the Election Day that they would not receive any vote from him. The said certain man George R. Burton in the presence of a good, reliable witness, told me on the 2nd day of this month that he never saw nor spoke to either of the government candidates in his life. Then he says on Friday evening before the election the $20.00 was paid.

I will now explain how and why it was paid. I knew the work was done as I had written to the Hon. Mr. Farris in reference to it and I also explained the matter to the Honorable Chief Commissioner on one occasion and both of those gentlemen said the claim would be paid if it was a just one, as soon as things could be made all clear with said supervisor. With these facts before me and Mr. Burton being a good neighbor, he was in my office just a week prior to nomination, I said, Burton, I suppose we will see you up to the election. He replied, if they don't pay me for the work done I will not leave the house that day. I explained that I feared that it could not be paid at that time on account of the Election Campaign, but I would write to Mr. Winslow in the Board of Works Office and if the money did not come at once as he needed it at the time, I said, George, I have a cheque for $60.00. Not Boodle Money as described by Mr. Woods but my own money, which I would get cashed and give him the $20.00 and wait till the Board of Works paid the bill.

I went to St. John and got the check cashed, and on Friday evening previous to election, I called at Mr. Burton's house, and in presence of his wife and father (and I would not have objected if Mr. Woods had been there), I handed Mr. Burton the $20.00, and the only words I said as when you are down some day, I will take a receipt for the $20.00.

I positively say that during all or any conversation with Burton, I never mentioned to him how I expected him to vote or in any way hinted so that it could possibly be construed, or imagined, I was bidding for a vote.

Then Mr. Woods reads a sworn statement from Burton in order to prove the above statements to be true, which the said Geo. R. Burton says is not correct, as he never swore to any statement made to Woods. He does admit, however, that he gave Woods a statement that the $20 was paid by H. Johnston, for work done on roads as stated in my letter above.

I would just be as justified in the eyes of the public to state here that the $3.00 paid by the said H. W. Woods to the said George R. Burton on Monday after the election for driving the said H. W. Woods to the polling booth was paid for a vote as Mr. Woods was in making the statement that the $20.00 was paid for a vote. But I can assure my friend, Woods that Mr. George R. Burton is not the man to be bought as easily as he thinks. Yours,

H. JOHNSTON. Welsford, Queens Co., March 7th, 1899.

I have carefully read over the above letter written and signed by Mr. H. Johnston and I do solemnly say, and I am prepared to prove, that it is a true and extremely fair statement of each and every matter and subject referred to therein.

GEORGE R. BURTON. ROBERT McDONALD, Witness. Welsford, March 7th, 1899.

Mr. Wannamaker's Advice.

Tomkins. "Good morning, Mr. Wannamaker, I have called to see if you can give me a position in your establishment. I can turn my hand to almost anything."

Mr. W. "No, we are full in every department, and you are the twentieth man I have refused today. Why don't you take up a line in which there is less competition and better pay?"

Tomkins. "I'd only be too thankful if you can put me on track of such a position."

Mr. W. "When I was 20 years of age, I was a stranger in a strange land, with neither work nor money, when a friend of mine, a lawyer, advised me to take a book agency saying he had educated himself by canvassing; like drowning men grasp at straws, I took his advice, and in 5 years saved $5,000, and with this sum started my present business. It is just 50 years ago today that Mr. Bradley, the founder of the present Firm of The Bradley-Garretson Company, Limited of Toronto, sent me my first book prospectus, and to his beautiful letters and good advice, I owe much of my present success. Yes, young man, if you have anything in you, there is just as good a chance for you today with this old established House as there was for me. Write them and see what they have to offer."

Tomkins. "I have seen the advertisements of this firm, for agents, for years back, and have often thought of writing them, but have never done so. I will write today; and I am very thankful to you, Mr. Wannamaker, for your good advice."
