

A Grand Display

DRY GOODS,

John J. Weddall's.

FOR THE CHRISTMAS TRADE.

DRESS GOODS

A SPECIALTY.

FURS, IN ALL THE NEWEST STYLES.

Jacket and Ulster Cloths.
At Right Prices.

Our Stock is unusually well assorted.

SILK SEALETTE!

So much worn—We have a splendid range—prices $4.30 to $12. The better ones can hardly be told from real seal.

Blankets, Comfortables, Flannels, Swans-downs, Cottons, and all the ordinary articles, in immense quantities and at lowest prices. All as represented or the money refunded.

Also Agent for McCall's Celebrated New York Patterns.

John J. Weddall.

Christmas - 1891.

Ready-made Clothing,

Custom Tailoring Emporium.

A large and FIRST-CLASS stock of Ready-made Clothing, in

OVERCOATS, ULSTERS, COATS, PANTS, VESTS, &c.

ALL KINDS OF

Gents Furnishings

AT LOW FIGURES.

Our Custom Tailoring Department is first class. Our stock of

Winter Overcoatings and Heavy Suitings,

The best ever imported to the city CALL AND EXAMINE.

JAMES R. HOWIE.

A HANDSOME

Christmas Present

Just what you want to send to a friend at a distance, or at home—not too costly, but just the right thing. That is a copy of the volume of sermons by REV. A. J. MOWATT, entitled

"Words of Life."

The price for this large volume, containing 350 pages, nicely bound, is only $2. To be had by mail or by calling.

HERMAN H. PITTS,
"Reporter" Office.
Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 9.

Local News.

We Wish Our Readers a Very MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Good markets these days.

Monday was the shortest day.

Hang the stockings up tomorrow night.

The Fredericton Curling club will give a ball this winter.

Appropriate services will be held in most of the churches on Christmas morning.

Mr. Jamieson the Prohibition M. P. has been appointed a County Court Judge.

There were several persons baptised at the Gibson Baptist Church on Sabbath morning.

The semi-annual meeting of the York County Council will open on Tuesday, 19th January.

Mrs. T. B. Barker, sister of Sir Leonard Tilley died at her residence in St. John last week.

REORGANIZED.—The 71st Batt. Band has been re-organized with W. E. Miller as instructor.

ALL ARE WELCOME.—Mr. Jas. D. Fowler, whose attractive jewelry establishment is opposite the Post Office, has a great variety of elegant goods especially suited for Christmas presents. He has a most unique assortment of gold and silver goods and lots of curios and pretty articles that must prove just the thing for holiday gifts. Anything in his line will be well represented and whether you want to give a friend a gold watch or a trifling bit of jewelry you'll find the price all right. One of the specialties of the establishment is a fine line of spectacles and eye glasses.

Private Buzzle, a member of the I. S. C. Band for several years has been compelled to withdraw from the service on account of ill health.

THE RINK.—The Curling Rink will be open for skating to the public every Tuesday evening and the season will begin New Year's night.

THE WEST END saw mill started again, after a brief shut down, on Monday morning. It is expected the mill will run the greater part of the winter.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of Walter Ward whose death occurred in West Virginia last week, took place from his father's residence on Tuesday afternoon.

SNOW PLOUGH.—Mr. Aaron Smith has been awarded the tender for cleaning off the snow, for the upper half of the city and Mr. Wm. Smith for the lower part.

Dandruff is due to an enfeebled state of the skin. Hall's Hair Renewer quickens the nutritive functions of the skin, healing and preventing the formation of dandruff.

RE-ELECTED.—Hon. A. F. Randolph was re-elected president of the Boom Company, and Mr. H. J. Olive, Secretary, at the meeting in St. John last Wednesday.

A NOVEL PLAN.—While young and old are either giving or expecting a present this season of the year, Mr. Lottimer has devised a plan by which all may get a present free by making a purchase at his shoe store. He has a splendid stock of leather and rubber goods and is determined to make his patrons call again by giving goods as represented. Mr. Lottimer is making a fine display of fancy slippers, moccasins and other articles suitable for gifts. Don't fail to call while shopping and before entering the store take a good look at the "revolver" in the window.

The proprietor of the York Street restaurant had to contribute $50 to the corporation for recent violation of the Scott Act. That Blanch Ackerman case was dismissed.

FUR GOODS.—You should see the splendid assortment of Ladies and Gentlemen's fur goods, now being shown by Fred. B. Edgecombe. Day after tomorrow will be Christmas you know.

Saturday was the 87th Anniversary of the birth of His Lordship, the Metropolitan. Though suffering from a severe cold, His Lordship is still quite active, and attends service regularly.

With many clergymen, public speakers, singers, and actors, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the favorite remedy for hoarseness and all affections of the vocal organs, throat, and lungs. Its anodyne and expectorant effects are promptly realized.

Messrs. Hugh Hay and Wm. T. Drysdale are candidates for the mayoralty of Woodstock.

Mr. J. Fraser's livery stable on King Street was slightly damaged by fire on Friday night.

Mayor's election will be held on Monday 11th January. The Aldermen's election two weeks later.

Judge Stevens sentenced Atkinson, of St. Marys, to six months gaol for assault upon Rev. Mr. Manzer.

EXCURSION.—Quite a number of the teachers took advantage of the cheap railway fares to St. John on Saturday, and many of the College and Normal school students went home for the Holiday.

HOME FOR XMAS.—Nelson W. Brown has resigned the principalship of the Petitiocodiac school and accepted the principalship of the Milltown high school. Mr. Brown passed through Fredericton on Saturday on his way home to spend Christmas.

As Ayer's Sarsaparilla outstrips all other blood-purifiers in popular favor, so Ayer's Almanac is the most universally familiar publication of the kind in the world. It is printed in ten languages and the annual issue exceeds fourteen millions of copies. Ask your druggist for it.

PRESENTATION.—On Friday evening last the Rev. B. H. Nobles, of Gibson, was presented with a very fine fur coat and cap by the ladies of his congregation. Mr. Nobles is a great favorite with his people, and he appreciates very highly his congregation's recognition of his services.

A GOOD FIRM.—Messrs. Kitchen & Shea, the young and enterprising firm of metal workers on Phoenix Square, have worked up a fine business already. They are prompt in filling orders and especially as plumbers they always give good satisfaction. When looking for stoves or tinware don't fail to give them a call.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The Royal Templars of Temperance continue to hold fortnightly Sabbath afternoon temperance mass meeting in their Hall at Gibson. The attendance is always large, and the interest good. On Sunday last Mr. J. W. McCready very acceptably addressed the meeting. Mr. Chapman occupied the chair.

EVERYTHING IN STYLE.—It is scarcely necessary to direct the attention of the readers of the REPORTER to Mr. Weddall's dry goods establishment, but in the hurry and bustle of this week it will be to the advantage of all shoppers to take a look through his immense stock which has been carefully selected with an eye to the holiday trade. Among the newest and latest importations will be found some very pretty goods, and although we are not familiar with the modern names of many articles, all lady customers should ask to see the latest Creapon and Chiffon. If you desire something suitable for a holiday gift, Weddall's is just the place to get it. His big staff of clerks will be found at all times anxious to assist in making selections and the proprietor will ensure you a welcome. Mr. Weddall is this year presenting his patrons with a pretty calendar.

If you want any printing done neatly and cheaply, call or send to the office of this paper where your orders will be filled promptly. Books, pamphlets, sermons, library cards and catalogues, tickets, labels, programmes, contribution envelopes, letter heads, bill heads, business, visiting and collecting cards, envelopes, posters, hand bills, circulars, etc. Estimates given.

FRUIT SUPPER.—The ladies of the Methodist church, Lower Kingsclear have made elaborate arrangements for a first class supper in the Temperance Hall of that place on Wednesday evening Dec. 30th. Tickets, 40 cts, children under 12 years of age 25 cts. It is likely that quite a number of Fredericton people will drive up, as the distance is just right for a sleigh drive if the weather is favorable.

ADVANCED.—A number of High School students, who are attending the Normal School have been advanced to the senior class. They are Ida Myles, Mary Perkins, Grace Porter, Maggie Sisson, Fannie McNally, Janet Rossborough, Edith Porter, Mary Phillips. The following go to class A:—Jessie Belyea, Emma Maxwell, Myra Sherman, Mamie McNally, Jennie McLeod, Nellie Estey, Susa Boyce, Bessie Babbitt.

CONCERT AND XMAS TREE.—The teachers and scholars of the Union Sabbath School at Nashwaaksis propose holding a concert and Christmas Tree in the Nashwaaksis Hall on Christmas night. Admission ten cents. Quite a number of our Fredericton people should go over and patronize the entertainment, which will be very enjoyable from the programme provided.

Miss Carrie Thompson, of St. Louis, daughter of Mrs. James Thompson, formerly of this city, is in town to spend the winter.

DELAYED.—Monday night's St. John Express was delayed in arriving here till nearly midnight owing to an accident on the western train.

The country roads are very bad owing to the snow having all worn off. The Christmas season was very discouraging on account of the soft weather and poor going.

MORE WONDERS.—Customers and clerks and proprietors all seem to be alike busy in the mammoth establishment of Lemont & Sons. The attractions are so numerous that everybody can select a present without difficulty. The members of this enterprising firm know exactly what the people want and ten cent counters and others up to one dollar are filled with surprising bargains which take like hot cakes. Oh, the dolls, the prettiest and cheapest in America, and every little girl in town and country ought to have one of Lemont's dolls this Christmas. Sleds for boys and girls, tops that beat anything before shown, and games suitable for all ages are being cleared out this week very cheap. Bohemian ware, pretty china and silverware most elegant, together with household furniture beyond description, all tend to make Lemont & Sons establishment so popular with the people. Don't wait until the last day to make your purchases as sales are quick.

FIRE IN NEWCASTLE.—A fire occurred in a barn in Newcastle, owned by James Mitchell on Monday night, completely destroying the building. Loss about $350.

SMELT.—Lots of smelt are being caught by men who are fishing for them through the ice on the Miramichi. The warder has tried to put a stop to it but has failed so far.

Mr. A. N. Laforest the plumber, is just now offering some good bargains in stoves. He has lots of tinware in stock and Christmas week would be a good time to replenish the kitchen.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pleasant wedding took place at the residence of William Speedy, Tweedside, on the evening of the 16th, inst., when his daughter Janie was married to Geo. Lister of York Mills. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. McLean, resident pastor. Robert Torrens and Miss Maggie Speedy supported the happy couple. Many guests were present and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. They go to housekeeping at York Mills with the best wishes of all.—Herald.

Who Can Dispute It?

Barry's Corners, N. S., Feb. 15, 1890. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR:—Your Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are the best selling pill in the market. This is a fact. I speak with knowledge on the subject, as I have been dealing in various kinds of Pills, and sell more of Morse's than any other.

If any one does not believe this, I ask him to write any of my customers about it, or better still, I ask him to try a box and see if he will then use any other. I hope I may always have them.

Yours faithfully,
H. M. G. BARRY.

EXHONORATED.—Miss Graves the young lady teacher of Carleton St. John, who was charged before the police magistrate with assaulting one of her scholars, because she whipped him for profane language, was honorably acquitted on Monday last, after a full hearing. The verdict of the general public was that she did perfectly right and should have whipped him more soundly.

A HANDSOME XMAS PRESENT.—The volume of sermons by Rev. A. J. Mowatt. Handsomely bound in brown English cloth, 16m. 350 pages, price $2.00. Just the thing you want to get for your friend for Christmas. Something that young men should have, and old persons too, who cannot always get out on Sunday. For sale at the bookstores or at the REPORTER Publishing Office, Fredericton N. B.

A BIG CHRISTMAS SALE.—In this day of push it is the man of enterprise who succeeds. Mr. F. B. Edgecombe is fully up to the times with staple and fancy dry goods calculated to meet the wants of the public and at very reasonable prices. This is the fur season and he has the finest assortment of furs anybody need want to look at. This is the week to get big bargains in this line. Up stairs over the main store may be seen an endless variety of novelties including the latest inventions in toys and fancy articles and these goods have to go this week and bargains await your order. Edgecombe's dry goods establishment is known to everybody, and while shopping call in there and get a surprise both in the display shown and in the low prices offered. Among the fancy articles and novelties will be found goods from all parts of the world.