NOTICE.

Now preparing for the Press, and will be published as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers are obtained, a new work, entitled

THE HISTORY AND DEFEAT OF ORANGEISM.

BY THOMAS HILL.

THIS work will be found compiled with all possible care, and will contain about 300 pages. It will contain a sketch of the History of Ireland, from the massacre of 1641, down to the present time; with copious extracts relative to the great Rebellion of 1793. It will contain authentic accounts of the rise and progress of Orangeism, embracing a sketch of its Founder, William III., and going thoroughly into the history of the Parliamentary enquiry, concerning that Institution, in 1835. The slanderous attacks of its enemies will be considered and answered, and the conduct of the members set forth, upon all occasions whenever their country required their services, especially in the years 1796 and 1848. The History of the Rise and Progress of the Association in the British North American Colonies will also be given, and the malignant attack made upon the Institution in March last, in the New Brunswick House of Assembly, by James Brown, Esq., refuted. In fact, this work is intended as a book of reference, which every true Protestant would do well to possess himself of. It will be neatly bound.

Subscriptions will be received by THOMAS HILL and JOHN BOWEN, in St. John, and by Messrs. GEORGE ANDERSON, Frederick, JOSEPH CONNELL and WILLIAM HALEY, Woodstock, and OLEPH L. MULLER, Georgetown.

TERMS.—100 copies for £15; 500 copies for £24; 20 copies for £3 10s; five copies for £1; and single copies five shillings each—cash on delivery.
