RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF COMPETITORS.

- 1st.—No person shall be allowed to compete unless he becomes a member and pays in his subscription of five shillings or upwards on or before Saturday the 22nd day September, and in no case will a member be allowed to offer as his own the property of another.
- 2nd.—All Stock, Grain, Manufactures, &c., must be grown, raised, or manufactured, in the County, and must be entered with the Secretary previous to the day of exhibition, who will furnish each competitor with a Numbered card, corresponding with the entry in his book, which must be permanently attached to the article exhibited, and the premiums will be awarded to the respective numbers.
- 3rd.—Cattle pens and other arrangements suitable for the safe keeping of stock, &c., will be arranged on the ground, previous to the time of exhibition; and halters or ropes must be furnished by the owners of horses and neat stock, that they may be tied securely; a committee will be present to arrange their position, as well as other articles for competition, wherein they must remain until the close of the exhibition; Stock must be on the ground by nine o'clock a. m.
- 4th.—No animal that has taken the first premium at any of the former exhibitions of this Society, shall be allowed to compete again in the same character.
- 5th.—Persons competing for premiums on the largest quantity and best quality of grain and other crops raised upon a given quantity of land, must produce not less than one bushel at the exhibition, and an affidavit made by the competitor and another respectable person that such statement is correct, and the Sample exhibited a fair one, and like proof as to the quantity must be furnished the Secretary of the Society as soon after the Show as practicable.
- On Vegetables, not later than the first Tuesday in December, and on Grain, not later than the second Tuesday in March, next, at which time the Judges of Grain Crops will meet to determine the successful competitors.
- 6th.—Written statements will be required from successful competitors for Grain and Root Crops, as to the mode of preparing the Lands, time and quantity of Seed sown, and subsequent management of the same, with any other information in reference to the subject that may prove useful to the Public.
- 7th.—Competent and Impartial Judges will be appointed who will commence their Examination at HALF-PAST TEN o'clock, and their decision will be final.
- 8th.—The Judges shall be at liberty to withhold any Premium, if they consider the animal, or article offered deficient in merit.
- 9th.—Special Premiums will be awarded upon any Manufactures, or implements of Husbandry not specified in the above list, should such be offered, which in the opinion of the Judges are worthy of encouragement.
- 10th.—Hay will be furnished by the Society for all Stock offered for a Premium or Exhibition which are owned by Members residing at such a distance as to render it inconvenient to drive in the same morning of the Show.

JAMES ROBERTSON, Secretary.
Woodstock, July 30th, 1849.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber begs to inform those Persons having Accounts with him of a years standing, or more, that unless the same are settled without delay, either by payment or note, they will be placed in the hands of his Attorney for collection, and such as are indebted to him by note or otherwise for Breakstuffs are requested to pay the sum forthwith, or they will be sued.

The want of means to pay, should not prevent persons calling and making a settlement once a year, and as I am determined that my Books shall be so balanced, persons neglecting to call can have no reason to complain if their Accounts are put in suit.

April 2nd, 1849.

NOTES standing over a year must be either paid or renewed.
RICHARD ENGLISH.

NOTICE.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between the Subscribers under the firm of NEWCOMB & UPHAM, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons having demands against the said firm are requested to present the same to G. B. UPHAM, for adjustment, and those indebted to the said firm are requested to make immediate payments to the said G. B. UPHAM, who is authorized to settle and receive all debts due to the said firm.

PRO BONO PUBLICO!

NOTICE.

THE Nobility, Gentry and Commonalty of the County of Carleton and all others whom it may concern, will please take Notice, That several peddling Merchants in Woodstock are disposing of Tinware representing the various articles in that line as having been manufactured by me. Therefore, in order to prevent the public from being imposed upon by these spurious and unperfect Wares, I beg leave to say, that there are no merchants in this Village that have any Tinware to dispose of, manufactured by me, nor can it be obtained in any other place but at my own manufactory next door to the residence of John S. McBeath, Esq., and nearly opposite to the Post Office—sold wholesale and retail. Likewise all sorts of jobbing in my line of business done at the shortest notice. Cash given for old Copper, Brass and Pewter.

JAMES MURPHY,
Tin, Copper, & Sheet Iron Manufacturer.

Woodstock, July 22d, 1849.

N. B.—The Subscriber informs the public that he has lately invented a portable SHOWER BATH, for which he intends taking out a Patent.

NOTICE.

THE Time appointed in a previous "Notice" for receiving payment in country produce, having expired, I now call upon all who are indebted to me to pay their bills immediately in CASH, for I wish to settle up my business, as I intend leaving the Province for two or three years.

Those who do not attend to this notice will be waited upon by the Constable. Though all bills due, must be paid now, yet for the accommodation of those who may need my professional services between this date and the time of my leaving the place, the usual credit will be given.

The dwelling house now occupied by me is to be rented or leased for two years.

Feb. 6th, 1849.

C. D. RICE.

WEBBER & CO'S EXPRESS, TO FREDERICTON, ST. JOHN, NOVA SCOTIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

Leaves Woodstock as follows, for the above places, Monday's Wednesday's and Friday's, at 8 o'clock a. m.

If safety and punctual delivery, be any object to the public, we feel confident that they will patronise the undertaking, as our charges are in reality scarcely a recompense for our trouble—Heavy freight received and forwarded during the summer season, for a small commission over freight, cartage, &c. Any information will be cheerfully given on application to
