

for nothing. Some people look over the marriages and deaths, and actually complain of the editor, if but a few people have been so unfortunate as to die, or so fortunate as to get married in the previous week. An editor should have such things in his paper whether they occur or not. Just so many subscribers as an editor may have so many different tastes he has to consult. One wants tales and poetry; another abhors all that. The politician wants nothing but politics. One wants something smart; another something sound. One likes anecdote, fun and frolic, and the next door neighbour wonders that a man of sense will put such stuff in his paper. Something spicy comes out, and the editor is a blackguard. Next comes something argumentative, and the editor is a dull fool. And so between them all, you see the poor fellows get roughly handled. And yet to ninety-nine out of a hundred these things do not occur. They never reflect that what does not please them may please their next door neighbour; but they insist that if the paper does not suit them it is good for nothing.—Am. Paper.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CARLETON,

GENTLEMEN,—

AS a General Election is about to take place, I have determined again at the solicitation of a large number of Freeholders of this County, to offer myself as a Candidate for your Suffrages, and should I be successful, will endeavour to discharge the duties of a Representative faithfully and to the best of my ability—referring to my past services as a guarantee for the future.

I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,

Your Obedient Servant,

CHARLES CONNELL.

Woodstock, June 4th, 1850.

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF THE COUNTY OF CARLETON.

GENTLEMEN:

YOU will in a few days be called upon to exercise one of your dearest and most important rights as British subjects,—that of the Elective Franchise,—and having been urged by so large a number of respectable and influential residents of this County to offer myself as a Candidate for your Suffrages, I feel myself in a measure bound to answer their call, and shall appear before you at the Hustings in that capacity.

It is not my intention here to point out the political views I entertain, or the course of policy which I conceive ought to be pursued, but I am clearly of the opinion that the time has arrived in this Province, when it becomes the duty of every Candidate to identify himself with some Political party, and to avow openly and unequivocally the principles upon which it is his desire to rest.—When I have the honour of addressing you at the Nomination, I shall endeavour to satisfy you upon this point, as well as to remove any doubts which may have existed as to my legal qualification as a Candidate, through the rumours which have with so much industry been circulated by my opponents to the contrary.

I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. H. BEARDSLEY.

Woodstock, 4th June, 1850.
