WHAT I WOULD DO.—If I were possessed of the most valuable things in the world, and was about to give them away, the following would be my plan of distribution:—

I would give the world truth and friendship, which are very scarce.

I would give an additional portion of truth to lawyers, readers and merchants.

I would give to Physicians skill and learning.

I would give to Printers their pay.

To gossiping women short tongues.

To young women good sense, modesty, large waist, and natural teeth.

To young sprouts or dandies, common sense, little cash and hard labor.

To old maids, good temper, smooth faces, little and good husbands.

To old bachelors, love for virtue, wives and children.

HIGH WORDS.—A fashionable lady in Buffalo once said to a friend:—

"My new house, now 'directing,' is to be 'sublimated' and 'splendiferous.' There is to be a 'Porto Rico' in front and a 'Pizaro' in the rear—a 'lemonade' all round it. The water is to come in at the side of the House in an 'anecdote,' the lawn is to be 'degraded,' and some large trees are to be 'supplanted' in the 'critic' in the 'rear.'"

This is the same lady who told Governor Clinton, how remarkably stormy it is apt to be when the sun is crossing the 'Penobscot.'

A lady had a custom of saying to a favourite dog "come along sir." A would-be witty and social gentleman took occasion to step up and enquire, "was it I, madam, you called?" "Oh no, sir," said the lady with composure, "it was another puppy I was speaking to." Didn't he feel cheap.
