

simultaneously left the House in a body. The Speaker then pronounced the reprimand.

The consequence is, that a resolution has been adopted by the editors and reporters of the united press at Toronto, to the effect that they feel it incumbent on them to protest, by withdrawal from the House, against the usage Mr. Ure has received from the third estate, and they have agreed to make use of the votes and proceedings only, without reporting any more of the sayings of the Legislators.

The remainder of the Sermon preached at Jacksonton on the 12th will be given in our next.
