PROSPECTUS

The Anglo-American Magazine.

On the first of July next will be published the first number of a Monthly Periodical, under the title of THE ANGLO-AMERICAN MAGAZINE.

Each number will contain 96 pages royal octavo, with double columns and numerous illustrations. Price 15s. per annum, paid in advance, and sent by mail to any part of British North America, or the United States.

It is proposed to publish in each issue one or more original papers on subjects connected with British America, carefully excluding party politics or religious articles of a denominational character. Selections of the best writings in the leading British periodicals will be copied, especially such as have reference to the welfare and interests of these Colonies.

A careful digest of the current news of the world, Scientific Discoveries, Commercial News, Musical Intelligence, and all matters of general interest, derived from the most recent information.

It is also intended to publish a series of Biographies of eminent men of Great Britain and Ireland, from Alfred the Great to the present time. This department will be illustrated with portraits from the best masters.

As it is proposed to make this work a national and not a local work, it will unflinchingly advocate all questions affecting the common interests of our Colonies as an integral portion of the British Empire.

An experience of several years in supplying the reading public of Canada with the serial publications of the United States, convinces the projector of this periodical that they are entirely inadequate to the wants of the majority, and little calculated to form or improve the taste of a people essentially different in their feelings and principles from those for whom those Periodicals were prepared; and believing that the enterprise will meet with encouragement from those for whose pleasure and information it is designed, he trusts that the experiment will realize his expectations.

The Magazine may be made one of the best Mediums for Advertising yet offered to the Colonial public; and the terms will be regulated in such a manner as to induce all parties to avail themselves of its pages.

THOS. MACLEAR.
