A CARD.

To the Free and Independent Rate Payers and House Holders of the Parish of Woodstock:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been solicited by a large number of the Electors of this Parish to allow myself to be put in nomination as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election, I take this the earliest opportunity of informing you of my intention to accede to the request so generally expressed.

There is scarcely a man among you, Gentlemen, who is not personally acquainted with me. You are well aware that in allowing myself to be put forward on this occasion that I seek no personal benefit, but that my interests are identified with yours, and that I am equally concerned with yourselves in the prosperity of this my native County.

Contrary to the usual custom on such occasions I shall refrain from pledges. When made, they are seldom redeemed, and I have always found those the most selfish who were the most lavish of their promises. Should you elect me my services are at your disposal. I shall meet you, Gentlemen, at the Hustings, where I will explain my views on the great and important changes about to be made in the management of affairs in this County.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient Servant,
JOSEPH CONNELL.
