

Died.

At Richmond on the 8th inst., Mr. ROBERT FLEMING, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, leaving a very large circle of friends to mourn his departure.

The deceased in early life was deeply impressed with a sense of the great importance of Religion, which he then embraced, and to which he held fast throughout the long course of his life. For upwards of thirty years he was a member of the Church, during which period his exemplary life was a proof that his devotion was unfeigned. He died as he lived—trusting to obtain Salvation through the atonement of a Merciful Saviour.

At Wicklow on the first of July, of Consumption, Nathan Henry youngest son of Mr. George Milbery, in the 18th year of his age. His end was peace.
