

ENGLISH NEWS.

Arrival of the Europa.

The elections in Great Britain are nearly over. Of the 481 members of Parliament already elected 187 are thorough supporters of the Ministry, 237 are professedly Liberals, and 52 are moderate Conservatives.

Serious election riots have broken out at Cork, Limerick, Belfast, and elsewhere in Ireland.—The military were called out and some persons were shot.

The Challenge of the American Club to the ship builders of England, attracts much notice, but, we do not hear, however, that it is likely to be taken up.

FRANCE.—The celebrated Arab chief Abon Mirza has escaped from the fortress of Ham, in which he was confined. The severest orders have been sent to all the railway stations and ports to prevent his leaving the country. Abon gave the French great trouble in Algeria, and his escape at the present moment, when the Colony is so distracted, is regarded with alarm by the French authorities.

BELGIUM.—The resignation of the Belgium ministry is accepted, and a new Cabinet is to be nominated.

ITALY.—Letters from Kossuth have been seized in various parts of Italy, and sent to the Austrian Government at Lombardy, who immediately caused a number of arrests to be made in Pavara, Milan, Brescis, Mantua, Venice, &c.,

Mr. Hastings, Chaplain to the American legation at Rome, has just returned from the Vadois Valley to make preparations for his return home, in consequence of a sudden call. He will be succeeded by Mr. Baird. Edward Murray is yet in confinement at Ancona—the Pope's pleasure not being known respecting him.

INDIA.—The Indian mail has arrived, with dates from Calcutta to June 2nd, and Bombay to June 5th; Rangoon, 26th May, and China to 24th May.

The British had attacked the town of Kessir and carried it by assault in 50 minutes with a trifling loss, the Burmese losing 800, mostly slain by the bayonet.

There is severe fighting in the northwest of India, where Colin Campbell, with 4000 men and ten guns, has his hands full with the revolted hill tribes.

A battle attended with immense loss of life, has occurred between a native Prince, son of Yar Mahomet, and the Sidars of Candahar, each ten thousand strong, and supported, one by Persia, the other by Dost Mahomet, the celebrated Afghan chief.

The battle lasted eight hours, and resulted in the total defeat of the Sidars, with a loss of 2000 men.

STILL LATER!

By Telegraph to the News Room.

HALIFAX, August 5th, 4 o'clock A. M.—The Niagara has just arrived with 62 passengers for Boston. The news by this arrival is of less than usual interest.

ENGLAND.—The English papers are extremely dull. The Parliamentary elections are now almost over, and according to the most careful classification, the new House of Commons stands thus: For the Ministry, 325. Opposition, 272. Majority for the Ministry, 53.

In the above are included, as Ministerialists, 40 Liberal Conservatives, between 30 and 40 places had still to be heard from. Of the above 167 are new members, who take the seats of 172 members of the old House, who retire defeated. The above small majority, it will be seen, is barely sufficient, under the most favorable circumstances, to carry on the business of the House. Thomas Gisborne, who but for the state of his health, would have been brought forward by the Liberal interests, at the late election for Nottingham, has died this week, from disease of the heart, having been for upwards of twenty years, an active reformer.

At a Yacht race, at Cowes, on Thursday, the America was distanced 2 minutes and 3 seconds, by a yacht named the Arrow.

FRANCE.—Louis Napoleon has been on a visit to Strasburgh and Baden, where he appears to have been received with every demonstration of respect. It is rumoured that his visit to Baden is connected with matrimonial projects, and the lady to whose hand he aspires, is the Princess Caroline Stephaine Devasa, Grand Daughter of Baden, and related to the dethroned Royal family of Sweden. Field Marshall Exelmans was thrown from his horse on the road from Sevees and killed.

A BEAR FIGHT.

In Andover North Surplus, (Oxford County, Me.) on Thursday last one of the smartest bear fights came off, that ever happened in this state or any other. As Erastus Bean, a young man of twenty years, was haying in his field, accompanied by a boy of twelve, named Dunn, he looked up and saw a large black bear, of the white faced breed, (the most savage of the black variety.) Having taken his gun with him to shoot partridges he caught it up and fired at the brute—but with little effect, as the bear immediately began to close upon him. Bean fell back slowly, loading his gun the meantime, when, just as he got the charge in, his foot caught against a twig, he fell backwards, and the bear leaped upon him! His situation was frightful—but his coolness did not forsake him—and he immediately fired again, but with no visible effect. The bear at once went to work—seizing his left arm, biting through it and lacerating it severely. While thus amusing himself, he was tearing with his fore-claws the man's breast. Having dropped his arm, he opened his huge mouth to make a pounce at his face. Then it was that the young man made the dash that saved his life. As the bear opened his jaws, Bean thrust his lacerated arm down the bear's throat as far as desperation would let him! And there he had him! The bear could not advance nor retreat—though the position of the besieged was anything but agreeable, on so hot a day as last Thursday.

Bean now called upon the lad to come and take from his pocket a jack-knife, and open it. The boy was a fitting companion for this brave young man. He marched up to the work boldly. But before he could get at his pocket, he had to crowd the bear's head over a little to get at it—the beast meantime not being at all easy with such a huge mouthful in his throat. Having got the knife, Bean with his untrammelled hand, cut the bear's throat from ear to ear, killing him stone dead while he lay on his body! He then threw the beast off, and notified his friends, had his wounds dressed and is now comfortable. It was judged that the bear weighed four hundred pounds! One of his paws, which our informant saw, weighed 2 pounds 11 ounces.

The young man had been married but a few weeks, and the thought of his young wife mourning disconsolately his untimely end, no doubt nerved his arm to make a noble fight for her happiness as well as for his own life.—Eastern Argus.

It seems that the bitter feeling in England, between Protestants and Roman Catholics, is daily on the increase. The correspondent of the New York Herald, tells us that the cry in every part of the Island is now, "No Popery," and "Down with Papists." The London Times also, the editorial articles of which are characterized by great talent and powers of language, contributes much to fan the flame, and to induce a perfect hatred of everything relating to the Roman Catholic religion. That journal, in an able article, retorts on the Irish and Roman Catholics, as having been, by their agitation and aggressive proceedings, the cause of the late fatal riot at Stockport. The following paragraph also, which was sent to the steamer just previous to her sailing, will serve to show the state of public feeling on this subject in England: Liverpool Borough Election for Parliament. The Candidates were nominated on Tuesday, and the following are their flags: "Mackenzie and Turner—Our Protestant Religion, Ships, Colonies, and Commerce—Town and Trade of Liverpool." Opposed by "Cardwell and Ewart—Free Trade." Polling commenced on Wednesday morning, and at noon Mackenzie and Turner were 1,000 ahead.—Toronto Colonist.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The Intelligencer has a semi-official editorial, stating that the British Government, notified the American Government, on the 7th of July, of its intention to protect the border fisheries, and of having sent vessels of war to the Bay of Fundy for that purpose.

The British Minister at the same time informed President Fillmore that the British Commanders of vessels of war were strictly enjoined to avoid an interference with vessels of friendly powers, except when violating existing treaties, and upon all occasions to avoid giving cause of complaint.

The Intelligencer further says that the U. S. Government has given orders to send one of our best vessels into the disturbed regions to protect Americans and inquire into abuse, and warn all parties from invading their special rights.

A SHIP SUNK BY A WHALE.—We learn by the London News, that the French brig Pauline, homeward-bound with a cargo of sugar from Porto Rico, on the forenoon of the 17th of June, in longitude of 40 10 W. of Paris, and in latitude 40 30 N., was struck by a whale upon the bows, and so much damaged that she almost immediately filled and sunk. The captain and crew, consisting of ten men and a passenger, succeeded in hoisting out a boat, into which they stowed a bag of biscuit and a little water, and then abandoned the sinking ship. On the fourth day they were fortunately rescued by the British ship Crusader, treated with the greatest kindness, and landed safely at Cowes.

DEVoured BY A SHARK.—The other night one of the men on board the U. S. ship Pennsylvania attempted to make his escape from the service, by plunging overboard in expectation of reaching the shore in safety. The poor fellow had scarcely, however, touched the water, when he was seized by a large shark and speedily dispatched. It is said that a number of these fish are in our waters, having followed the Cyane when she came in from sea, with several men upon her sick list—their instinct, when there is disease on shipboard, prompting them to pursue in the wake in hopes of prey.—Norfolk Argus.

At the bombardment of Rangoon, Lieut. Campbell, of the Sesostri, worked so hard that he fell down exhausted, and slept alongside of a gun for an hour and a half, while it was discharging ten pounds of powder at every fire.

A melancholy suicide was committed at Niagara Falls on Friday. A young girl named Mary Skinner, who became depressed in spirits by the loss of her father, threw herself into the rapids, and was carried over the falls.
