

nelly's recognizing the voice of his Bishop, as hat of Jesus Christ, is very felicitous.

In our ignorance we thought that the multitude in their adulatory exclamation, to that impious Prince, merely alluded to one of those celebrated men of antiquity, whom the Nations who had lost the knowledge of the true God, deified after their decease; but your Correspondent has not only enlightened us, but has also corrected the text: for whereas, it reads: "It is the voice of a God and not of a man," your Correspondent would have us read: "It is not the voice of a man, but of God. His Happy discovery, therefore, that the two instances, referred to, are similar is an admirable—a logical deduction!

The complimentary and courteous terms in which your Correspondent introduces the Right Rev. Dr. Connelly to his readers as the Popish Bishop of Fredericton, must be highly gratifying to his Lordship, and convince him that both our language and our manners are somewhat different from what he was accustomed to in Halifax.

There are some men, Mr. Editor, in whom Prejudice "Grows with their growth, and strengthens with their strength." I hope, however, that your Correspondent is not incorrigible, and that he may yet forgo his Prejudice against his neighbors, merely because their sentiments of religion, are not in accordance with his own. That he may become the happy recipient of the Divine Virtue of Charity, which "Thin keth no evil," is the fervent wish of

THE AUTHOR OF THE ADDRESS. Woodstock, Nov. 25, 1852.

CONSUMPTION

Every body knows is a flattering disease. It commences and progresses so insidiously, that before one is aware of it, the lungs are a mass of ulcers, then a sudden exposure or change from heat to cold, produces an inflammation, and in a few days or weeks it is said, he or she died of hasty CONSUMPTION. For all troubled with cough or lung complaint, we would refer to the advertisement in another column of Judson's Chemical Extract of "Cherry and Lungwort," which is said to be a certain cure for this awful disease.

Died.

On Wednesday the 24th November, of Cancer, in the 48th year of her age, Eliza, beloved wife of William Anderson, of Williamstown—leaving a large family and circle of friends to mourn their loss.

At Richmond, on the 7th instant, in the 18th year of her age, after a short but severe illness, Jane, fifth daughter of Captain Samuel Porter.

See the lovely blooming flower
Fade and die within an hour;
So our transient comforts fly,
Mortals only bloom to die.
Time is passing swift away,
Earthly joys will soon decay;
O, may we have prepared on high,
Pleasures that will never die.
Christ stands waiting to receive,
If thou wilt on him believe;
Haste then, pilgrim, haste away,
And prepare for judgement day.
