

(Brought from page 171.)

Clergymen and Members of the Legal profession, in Fredericton and St. John, would not be the sense of the Church generally.

When, then, the Clergy have called such meetings as I have proposed, and have taken the sense of the several meetings on this simple proposition, the result can be forwarded to me, to lay before the meeting in St. John; or, if it be thought proper, two Lay representatives from each Mission, and in St. John from the several Parishes in that city, (chosen at the meetings proposed by me, by a majority of the persons assembled,) can be instructed to lay before the General Meeting the Resolutions of the parties with whom they are connected. Such Lay representatives should clearly reside in the Mission which they represent, and, in my judgment, ought to be communicants.

The time and place of the meeting can be fixed at the first General Committee of the Church Society in St. John. I think it right to observe, to prevent misconception, that I have no particular measures which I wish to see adopted by the meeting, and that the meeting is simply called, so far as I understand it, for the purpose of collecting opinions on this one subject. This at once relieves us even from the appearance of any collision with authority, and may serve, I hope, to quiet any doubts or suspicions which may arise.

I am, Rev. and dear Sir,

Your faithful friend and brother,

JOHN FREDERICTON.

By Telegraph to the Sentinel News Room.

St. John, Dec. 2.—By the Baltic at New York, on Sunday, we have English dates to the 17th ult. Trade continued good. No political news of interest.

Dates from the Cape to 9th October—states that the war is about drawing to a close.

In India it was expected peace would be concluded with the King of Ava, at Prome, on 3d or 4th October.

So great was the crowd at Chelsea, to see the remains of the Duke of Wellington, that two women were suffocated and several persons severely injured. The 18th had been made a national holiday by law, and no business of any kind would be transacted throughout the kingdom.

No local news. Weather mild with appearance of snow.

Married.

At St. Luke's Church, on the 28th ult., by the Rev. S. D. Lee Street, Rector, Mr. George Clowes, Jr., of the Parish of Northampton, to Miss Annabel, daughter of the late Alfred Beardsley of the Parish of Woodstock.

Died.

At Osnabruck, C. W., on the 16th inst., in the 68th year of his age, and the 43rd of his ministry, the Rev. Isaac Purkis, deeply lamented by a sorrowing family and a much attached flock, as well as by a whole community long bound to him by strong ties of regard and veneration.
