ies' Tortoise Shell Hair Combs, and a great many other kinds of Goods too numerous to advertise.

In each of the above departments of Goods will be found every variety, and scarcely an article can be inquired for that cannot be supplied. The subscriber presumes that the public are well enough acquainted with his manner of doing business without any puffing on his part, nor does he pretend to sell goods without a profit, nor will he sell one article at or under cost for the purpose of getting an enormous profit on another, but all of the above named goods will be sold at a moderate profit, and the business done in a fair straightforward manner, and every customer used alike. Personal attention will be given to business and he hopes to receive as formerly a large share of public patronage.

June 12, 1852. H. McLEAN.
