

creep into houses and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts," and in fact Pope Peter himself gives his holy brethren quite a shot, when he said "They have eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls, an heart have they exercised with covetous practices, cursed children."

Catholics you must be one of those of whom your beloved Pope Peter the first speaks when he says "There shall be false teachers among you, who shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them and bring swift destruction upon themselves."

Will Catholics tell me how Pop. Joan of the ninth century could be a successor of Peter being a woman? or how Gregory the sixteenth of the nineteenth century being an idolator?

How can the Church of Rome be the true Church, when she so frequently imbrued her hands in the blood of Saints?

To whom does the Apostle refer when he speaks of those who give heed to seducing spirits and doctrine of devils, forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats if it be not the Church of Rome.

Mr Editor when these questions are answered you shall hear from me again—when I shall tell you a little about transubstantiation.

I remain, Dear Sir,
Yours, &c.,
SHANICUS.

Woodstock, Jan. 22, 1853.

[FOR THE CARLETON SENTINEL.]

Mr. Editor.—As the New Year advances, (altho' late in the day,) I cannot but tender the compliments of the season and congratulate you on the many improvements in our County and other parts of the Province. Altho I could wish this duty performed by a more able hand. First, I shall briefly remark that our improved system of education is quite sufficient to qualify the rising generation for the many profitable offices that will be opened in the rail road and mining operations, and which all will stand an equal chance of obtaining.

Woodstock, Sir, is getting to be a place of some considerable notoriety, the contrast in a few years is wonderful indeed. Formerly the want of employment for young men, was so great, together with bad examples of gambling and drinking, as to cause much alarm. Now how different since it has become the resort of persons possessing rank, wealth, dignity and talents of the highest order, from other counties our young men have an opportunity afforded them of profiting thereby, and settling down as valuable members of society, which will help herhaps, before another year goes round, to cause great prosperity and increase of population. It is much to be regretted that our natural resources are not sooner opened up to advantage, but the devoted zeal and energy with which rail roads and mining is now carried on affords every consolation, and I hear that we shall very soon be able to take a pleasure trip to Boston or New York in one day. Now indeed it is considered quite an enterprise to go from hence to Fredericton with a family by land carriage to a ball, but still the rich scenery of one beautiful river will entice monied fashionables, who may have other business on hand and who have been known to leave a good portion of their change behind—what may we not expect then when these great operations are completed.

Ever Yours,

SPRUCE BOUGH.

Richmond, Jan 17th, 1853.

About a year ago a Mr. Groves was killed by a railway accident at Arundel, resulting from negligence. His relatives sued the Brighton and South Coast Railway for compensation; and a special jury in the Court of Common Pleas has awarded them $2000.

The land and sea forces in Great Britain and Ireland number 234,300 men, besides 45,678 in the colonies. There are now building thirteen screw steamers, numbering from 50 to 120 guns each, and making a total of 1167 guns.

We omitted to state, in our report of the Common Council proceedings, relative to the amendments of the Charter, that the amendment to the 2nd clause of the Bill, proposed by Alderman Vanhorne and passed, provides that the Sheriff and Coroner, as well as the Mayor shall be elected by the people on the first Tuesday of May.—St. John Freeman.

The joint resolution, authorizing the President to confer the rank of Lieutenant General, by brevet, on Major General Scott, as passed the United States Senate, by a vote of thirty-four to twelve—a high compliment.

NOVASCOTIANS IN HIGH PLACES.—Mr. Upham, Mayor of Salem, Mass., and member of the U. S. Senate, is a native of Annapolis in N. S.; and Mr. Redding, elected to the Legislature of California, is a native of Yarmouth N. S.

The Princess Vasa, whom rumor has so long designated as the future spouse of Louis Napoleon, has bestowed her hand upon Prince Albert of Saxony.

Married.

At South Richmond, on the 20th inst., by the Rev. J. Hunter, Mr. Charles J. P. Wetmore, to Sarah Jane, second daughter of Mr. Isaac Gidney.

At Boston, on the 11th December, by the Rev. Mr. Flint, Mr. Otis Bailey, Jr., to Miss Nancy J. Peabody, of Woodstock, N. R.

(We tender our thanks for a liberal slice of the Bridal Loaf.)

Died.

Suddenly, at Lincoln, Sunbury County, last Sunday evening, Charlotte, the beloved wife of the Honorable George Hayward, and youngest daughter of the late Israel Perley, Esq., in the 60th year of her age.
