I. Bynum and Alexander Wall, fought a duel in Courtland; Ala., a few weeks ago, and shot each other through the head. Verdict of the jury-died because they were darned fools.-

FROM MONTREAL. A telegraph despatch to the Boston Chronicle says that the Roman Catholic Mayor of Montreal has been arrested, at the instance of the friends of some of the parties who were murdered at the late riot in that city, for ordering the troops to shoot down Protestants, whose only crime was defending their own lives when attcked by a lawless-mob. We hope they will make an example of him.
