

this County, that they are unfit to take charge of their own matters, and are generally indifferent to the doings of their rulers. I believe such is not the fact. From my acquaintance with them I believe there is no people in this Province that look so closely after their own interests, and who would do greater credit to themselves than these, if they had a chance. And although their temporal rulers may flatter themselves their acts are acknowledged to be all right, because they hear nothing to the contrary, yet I happen to know that in many instances a restless discontent is manifested, and would be publicly expressed but that a fear of "authority" prevents it being done.

If you send me your paper I will be thankful for it, and endeavor in some way to return the favor.

Yours, &c.,

[FOR THE CARLETON SENTINEL.]

Mr. Editor,—

The remark dropped by a number of individuals when speaking of the fire on Wednesday morning, to the effect, that they heard the alarm, but paid no attention to it, in consequence of the hideous yellings of men and boys through our streets almost every night during this winter, inducing them to place the cry of real danger to the same account, leads me to make the suggestion, that proper and speedy steps be taken to put a stop to these nocturnal brayings on the part of that portion of our population who annoy the quiet of their neighbors and develop their own asinine qualities by such disgraceful practices.
