

HORRIBLE.—We learn that a man of the name of Parker, a bricklayer by trade, was burned to death on Saturday night. It appears that he had been drinking considerable, and had crawled on the boiler of Wilder's machine shop, the boiler is situated in an out shed by the side of the building, and was full of boiling water and steam. The unfortunate man had probably laid down to keep warm, and dropping to sleep was literally baked when he was discovered yesterday morning. What a warning to dram drinkers.—Det. Tribune.

A HAPPY MAN.—Don Jose Manuel Gallegos has been elected Delegate to Congress from the Territory of New Mexico. He does not understand a word of English, and consequently cannot understand the Congress speeches. His own speeches must be delivered in Spanish, which will be equally a relief to the other members.—Providence Journal.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The Bangor Mercury of Thursday last says, that Mrs. Page, wife of Jackson Page, of Orono, left home two weeks ago last Tuesday, to make a call about two miles from home, since which nothing has been ascertained of her whereabouts. Two days after she left, a letter was found in the Post Office directed to Mr. Page, purporting to be from her, in which it was said it would be no use to search for her, as she had gone to a factory, a few miles from Boston.—Mrs. Page is about 23 years old, has been married five years, and has a little girl, three years old, whom she left at home. No cause is assigned for this strange disappearance.

A lady, aged 80 years, who died in New York city Almshouse a few days ago, had made by keeping a boarding school $50,000, which she invested in insurance stock in 1835, and lost it all by the great fire.

AN INTERESTING FACT.—Some of the New York papers publish a statement that Emperor Faustin, of Hayti, is anxious for the introduction of religious books and papers into the island, and that he has given orders that henceforward no duty shall be charged upon Bibles, Testaments, or Protestant religious tracts or books, or other publications.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Mr. Duncan Sutherland while engaged in boating on the Tobique River near the narrows, fell from the boat into thirty feet of water, although timely aid was at hand it availed not, and was drowned on the 4th inst.

His body had not been found at the time of our information, and there is said to be a watch on his person, that was on a brother who died in a similar manner.

Our reasons for not replying to the Advocate in this number, will be explained in our next.
