HEALTH FOR A SHILLING !

diraordinary Cure of Loss of Health, Dismerdered stomach, Indigestion and determination of Blood to the Head. a Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erw-wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

-Professor Holloway, 10 IR,-I avail myself of the first opportunity of inform | 24 John Sept 10. th you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a gerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, mended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and oferally impaired health. Every means had failed to me any permanent relief, and at length it became ve larming that I was really afraid of going about without attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited perlai ally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purse of consulting him as to what I had better do; he lordly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, As aith, and ena bled to resume my usual duties. You are liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think all I am, Sir, your obedient Servant, JOHN LLOYD. (Signed) June 6th, 1852.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY. Illatract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852. ate Professor Helloway,

DEAR SER -I deem it a duty I owe to you and the the blic at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery om that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under Jojod, was affected by your invaluable Pills. I was tappried five times within eight months, and skilfull treated by ctiad recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I ourse of six weeks.

EDWARD ROWLEY. W NEALLIBL CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINL, WITH INDIGESTION. AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Of Extract of a Letter from Mr. S. Cowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY: DEAR SIR -- I am requested by a Lady named Thom Otas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you nethat for a period of eight years, herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of verbe Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, rilviele au Head-aches, pains in the side, weakness and gene In the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last go she had recourse to your invaluable Pills which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that hishe continued them, and the whole family were restored d. to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those N complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of he Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

S. GOWEN. (Signed) es A DANGEROUS. LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASMS IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED. E Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852. to Professor Holloway :

DEAR SIR,-I have much pleasure in handing to you a att testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighborhood with whom I am well acquainted was affected for a long time with violent pasmodic pains in es the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position which he was obtiged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the saintary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs, that he has been restored to the enjoy-I remain, dear Sir, yours faithment of good health.

The Life and Times of the Late Duke of Wellington,

An invaluable remedy for Scratches, Galls, Bruises BY LIEUT. COL. WILLIAMS, (A COMPANION-IN-ARMS OF MIS GRACE.

Comprising the Campaigns and Battle-Fields of Wellington and his Comrades, the Political Life othe Duke and his Contemporaries, and a detailf ed account of England's Battles by Sea and Land, from the commencement of the Great French Revolution to the present time, interspersed with Aneedotes, Personal Incidents, and Adventures, &e.

ton has closed; one of the greatest men of the nineteenth century, the foremost military commander of fany age, has paid the debt of nature The time has now arrived for giving to the world a History of the Great Captain-of the Events of his Life and Time-a life marked by patriotism, probity, honor, and events the greatest which have ever agitated the civilized world, and whose influence will be felt upon society till the end of time .--Such a work must appeal to the best and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton-the glory of his country, the honor of its name and position among the nations-General Agent at Woodstock. nay his own existence as a freeman, are recorded and engraven in the annals of "the well-fought fields," and the "deadly imminent breaches," the immostal battles and the glorious seiges in which Wellington and his Companionsin-arms gathered unfading laurels placed their country's 6 honor and renoun on the highest pinnacte of fame and glory, and tore the victor's wreath from the brows of heroes decorated with the trophies of Itaty, Egypt, and Germany.

To supply auch a desiratum in English literature the publishers of The Life and Times of the Duke of Wellington have determined to produce a book which shall present to the reader, not only the dry details which a mere biographical sketch would afford, but a comprehensive work, embracing the contemporaneous history of the period; exhibiting the circumstances which brought about the great events in which the Dake and O his contemporaries were engaged, and giving to the reader a connected parrative of the lives and actions o the Warriors and Statesmen of the nineteenth century, and this from the pen of one who was a companion-inarms of the great hero, and participated with him in many a well-fought field.

In order to carry out their views, the Publishers have determined that the work shall be profusely illustrated by Portraits of the Warriors and Statesmen of the last half century who have shed a lustre upon the history of their country, slso representations of the most important engagements by sea and land, from the period of 1780 till 1852, so that the work, when finished. shall form an Illustrated Gallery of the Naval and Military Exploits of England.

It has been well said, "Character is the true strength of nations, true glory their best inheritance. When the time shall come that the British heart no longer thrills as the names of Cressy, Poictiers, Agincourt, Blenhein, Ramilies, Oudenarde, Malplaquet, of Talavera, Salamanca, Toulouse, Waterloo,—the last hour of the British Empire will have struck." The promotion and elevation of national spirit and feeling is therefore the duty and interest of every true and loyal son of England. May Heaven inspire the hearts of every one of us with that spirit and feel ng. Conditions of Publication -The work will be issued on the 1st and 15th of every month in Parts at 1s. 3d., and Divisions handsomely bound at 9s. 41-2d., Printed on Imperial 8 vo. double columns, each part will be embellished by two highly finished steel engravings, and will contain 32 pages of letter-press. A beautiful steel Engraving, 13 by 19 inches, the Storming of Seringaptam, the first victory in which the late Duke of Wellington was engaged in India, to be given to every subscriber to the work. GEORGE GAY.
