

Communications.

To the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel:

SIR,—In the Reformer of the 14th instant I read a communication from a person signing himself "A Lover of Peace," who, if we are to judge by this effusion, must have a very high opinion of himself, and no wonder he would, for he is a great writer entirely; otherwise he would not commence, when labouring under so many apparent difficulties. He says he begins "with feelings of disgust and pain!" The former signifies malevolence, or inclination to hurt others—the latter means punishment, or uneasiness of mind. Now a man that publicly acknowledges himself to be malevolent, I think must have a very high opinion of his rhetorical powers, or else he must be void of common sense, if he think he can persuade men to believe him, when he says he is "A Lover of Peace." This discrepancy shows that the pains he talks of must have affected that soft substance enclosed in his pericranium, though I have heard it doubted whether there was any thing there but vacuum; in accordance with an old adage, that "some animals can live without brain." He says, "I wish to bring under your notice, and that of all the honest men of the County of Carleton, no matter what his creed," &c. He appears to be a tip top grammarian, as well as a great rhetorician, this "Lover of Peace," he is almost fit to be a magistrate himself—guess he thinks so.

In speaking of the editorial remarks in the Sentinel, he says, "to give them a passing notice would be placing myself on a level with the man who gave them existence." He reminds me of the fable of the old foolish crow who borrowed and bought on credit all the gay feathers he could get from other birds of handsome plumage, and when he got deck'd out in these, he strutted with great airs, striving to make others believe he was a bird of a better class; this gave such offence to the others that every one claimed his own, and he was soon stripped of all his gaudy plumage, and left what he was before—a poor black crow.—Any one can apply the moral of this fable.

But the poor puff up being (this "Lover of Peace") if he were in tenfold better circumstances than he is, and if he were even elevated to the office of Magistrate, (which would certainly be a disgrace to the Bench) he would still be infinitely below the level of that editor, because he is not possessed of either the manners or principles that constitute a gentleman. He says "there cannot be found three other Protestants in the County, besides the editor of the Sentinel, who object to the appointments." Now this is an absolute something, that politeness prevents me from naming; but I will venture to say that there is not another man in the County who regards veracity, will make a similar statement; for it is a well known fact, that these appointments have given general dissatisfaction throughout the County, not only to Protestants, but to a large number of Catholics also, and the time is not far distant when this will be made manifest, because it is the general opinion of all that one of the persons appointed, is a vain, puff up, bigoted coxcomb, and the other is as great an ignoramus as ever left Cork or the bogs of Skibereen.

I have not time at present to follow this "Lover of Peace" further, but I have not done with him yet—he will hear from me again.

I remain Sir, your obdt. servt.,
Carleton, 16th July, 1853. L. S. D.

THE GAVAZZI RIOT IN MONTREAL CORONER'S VERDICT.—Montreal, July 13.—The coroner's inquest into the Gavazzi tragedy closed last night. Nine protestant jurors found, among other things, that the firing upon the citizens on that occasion was by the order of the Mayor and that the said firings were unnecessary and unjustifiable. Ten Catholic jurors, return a verdict agreeing mainly with the other but stating the order to fire was given by some person unknown.

SUPPORTING THE PRESS.—A number of the merchants of Glasgow recently presented the Editor of the "North British Daily Mail" with a purse containing £390 in testimony of their appreciation of his enterprise as a journalist.

SAINT ANDREWS AND QUEBEC RAILROAD.—The three gentleman—Messrs. Connell Wolhaupter and Hatheway—appointed by the Executive as Directors on the interest of the Government in the St. Andrews and the Quebec Railroad—arrived in St. Andrews in the beginning of the past week and continued here till Saturday morning. The object of their visit was to examine into,—for the satisfaction of the Executive,—the progress and general management of the undertaking.—This object they were fully enabled to accomplish during their stay by the favourable state of the weather and the every facility afforded them to prosecute the minutest examination of every thing connected with the work; and we understand,—indeed the result could not have been otherwise—they not only expressed their perfect satisfaction with the whole state of the work and its management, but acknowledged that far more had been accomplished than they expected to witness.

We should have mentioned the Government Directors went over the line of Railway 23 miles.—Charlotte Gazette.

The quickest Atlantic voyage on record was made by the Cunard steamer Arabia, on her last trip to Liverpool. The particulars are as follows:—The Arabia sailed from New York at 38 minutes afternoon, on Wednesday, the 15th of June, and arrived at Liverpool on Saturday, the 25th, at 10 A. M. The passage was thus made in 9 days, 21 hours, 22 minutes; but from this period must be deducted, as customary, the 4 hours and 45 minutes lost in going to the Eastward, so that the real time is 9 days, 16 hours, and 37 minutes. The Collins' steamer Arctic, in February of last year, made the same run in 9 days, 17 hours and 30 minutes, so that the Arabia is now the champion of the course by a matter of 53 minutes.

The Montreal papers mention the death of two more of those who were wounded at the Gavazzi riot. One is Mr. James Lewis, of the firm of J. & D. Lewis, extensive wholesale and retail merchants of that city. Mr. Lewis died from the effects of a gun-shot wound, received in the heel, while quietly returning home from the lecture given on the 9th ult. The name of the other is Thomas O'Neil, who at the time he met with his unfortunate fate was employed as a Clerk in the Office of the Government Emigrant Agency in Montreal. The deceased leaves a wife, to whom he had been married less than a month, to mourn his loss.

AN EXODUS FROM THE ANTIPODES.—Some of the oldest residents of our Australian colonies arrived at Southampton on Saturday, by the Brazilian packet Teviot. The Melbourne Argus in noticing this "Victoria exodus," says: "It is rather a sorrowful thing to find so many of our oldest residents leaving us, but it is some satisfaction to know that few of them go without a fair share of the good things of the richest country in the world; and if we can only succeed in stirring up our empty mockery of a government into securing some approach to a better condition of society, we have a very strong conviction that, numerous as are the desertions at present from our shores, the time will come when most of our runaways will be glad to come back again."

MORTALITY IN NEW YORK.—The number of deaths in the city of New York last week was 538. On the preceding week 405. This is a very high ratio of mortality, in proportion to the population of the city, in the absence of any epidemic disease, and it seems to be attributed by prevalent opinion in the city, to the want of sufficient measures of purification in the crowded parts of the city occupied by the lower classes of population.

THE CHOLERA IN CUBA.—The accounts from the interior of Cuba are quite disheartening.—On one plantation they have lost 280 negroes from cholera. The Chinese have also suffered terribly.

We learn from Boston, that there is much excitement among the Yankees, in the American Fishing Towns, at the delay of their Government in sending men of war to the fishing grounds. The Gloucester Telegraph calls upon the U. S. Government to "station two vessels in thy bay of St. Lawrence, to protect American fishermen from the insults and abuse of British Officers," adding if the government does not intend to protect the fishermen, they would like to know it, so that they may be prepared to protect themselves. Such boasting is a mere moonshine.

Workmen of almost every description are very scarce just now in this city, and tradesmen can not only earn good wages in Halifax, but what is of even greater importance, can also live much cheaper here than in most other cities on this Continent.—Halifax Chronicle.

Governor Brigham Young, the Mormon, has delivered a message in favor of "home manufactures." There is one branch of home manufactures vigorously promoted by the Governor. When last heard from he had 32 children.
