natic Asylum. I have every reason to believe that the managment of that institution is satisfactory.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

It affords me sincere pleasure to congratulate you on the prosperous state of our finances. The revenue of 1852 was greatly in advance of that received in the Previous year, but the inorease of our resources, in the 12 months just ended, shows still more evident marks of a flourishing trade, and proves an increased enjoyment of comforts on the part of our laboring population.

the Government in paying off by anticipation the Balance of the Debt funded in 1843 & due in London in this and the three following years. After discharging the floating Balances due at the end of 1852, An offer on the part of the Government to lake up these debentures was made and accepted, so that the Province may now be considered as virtually free from debt. At the same time the Balance now in hand, and the probable amount of the revenue for 1853, N cw Advertisements. will, I trust leave at your disposal funds amply sufficient for the ordinary services of the Province.

You will have it in your power to deal as you please with the one per cent loan duty .---You may think that this impost, though light in itself, is vexatious from its separate collection, both to the importer and the revenue officer.

It is hardly necessary for me to observe that the increased importance of our finances properly demands increased vigilence and responsibility in their management and controul.

"Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council."

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

There is one topic on which I have not yet touched. The consolidation and amendment vious purchases. of our Provincial Laws is fraught with consequences most important to the future well be- plications for the purchase of the Lend ing of New Brunswick.
