

List of the Baltic Fleet.

When the Baltic fleet, under Vice Admiral Sir Charles Napier, left Spithead, it consisted of only 18 vessels of war. Reinforcements have since been despatched at various times, and several vessels are now on their way or under orders. In the course of a short time the British fleet in the Baltic will number 50 ships, in the highest state of efficiency, irrespective of the vessels of the French contingent, only a portion of which have yet been despatched. The following is given as a correct list of the British fleet in the Baltic:—

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—A Paris Journal states that the bad smell and taste of butter may be entirely removed by working it over in water mixed with chloride of lime. The discovery was made by a Brussels farmer, whose practice is to take sufficient quantity of water to work it in, and put in from 25 to 30 drops of chloride for every ten pounds of butter. When it has been worked until the whole has been brought into contact with the water, it should be worked again in pure water, when it will be found to be as sweet as when first made.

The approach of hostilities is strongly felt at St. Petersburg, and measures are being taken with a view to dangers which are profoundly apprehended, though denied. Four batteries have just been established at the entrance of the Neva.—The treasure in the fortress was sent eight days ago to Moscow, from the 27th, the command of the town will be divided between four military governors, and the state of siege will be applied in all its rigour. Many persons are leaving for the interior of the country. The departure of the Emperor for Peterhoff, where the Court was to have gone on the 27th, is adjourned. The displeasure caused by the policy of Austria was every day expressed more openly. It had been affirmed in some saloons, that the government was preparing to place that power, by an ultimatum, under the necessity of pronouncing for or against it.

DEATH OF MR. TAFT, THE DIVER.—Buffalo, May 29.—John Taft, of Boston, an old and experienced diver, while thirty feet below water searching for a wreck on Lake Erie, was killed on Saturday. He went down, but returned, and complained of foul air. He however again got on his armor and went down, but the dock pump worked badly.

An Infant Boy, about a week old, was found, on last Tuesday evening, at the door of Mr. Jones, opposite the Dock Yard. The cry of the little fellow attracted attention, he was taken into the house, when a note was discovered carefully wrapped up in the dress, which, on being opened was found to contain a polite and earnest entreaty that "they would be a father and mother to the child, and God would bless them; and to name it Clarence." This infant has since been placed under kind treatment.

How callous must be the heart of that mother who has thus thrown her infant child upon the cold charities of the world. These are painful instances of the depravity of human nature, and all diligence should be used in discovering and making an example of its unfeeling parent.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE IN BOSTON.—We learn from the Boston papers that great excitement is manifested there in consequence of the arrest, and attempted rescue of the fugitive slave named Burns. An indignation meeting was held on the evening after the arrest at Faneuil Hall, which resulted in an attempt to rescue the prisoner, who was confined in the Court House in Court Square. Accordingly the most indignant of those present proceeded to the spot, and attempted to break open the Court House doors on the east side, which owing to the strong fastenings, failed; the leading rioters then went to the west entrance, and with a heavy plank or beam, used as a battering engine, stove through the panels of the doors, and broke windows; numerous pistols were fired, and the riot became formidable. The centre watch house being in the vicinity, a party of determined watchmen dashed in and succeeded in arresting eight or ten of the leading rioters after a desperate conflict.

The prompt arrest of the ring-leaders suppressed further violence, and an increased police force were soon after on the ground and stationed at the several entrances to the Court House.

At the time the mob beat down the westerly door of the Court House, several men, employed as United States officers, were in the passage way, using their endeavors to prevent the ingress of the crowd, and among the number was Mr. James Batchelder, a truckman, in the employ of Col. Peter Dunbar, who, almost at the instant of the forcing of the door received a pistol shot in the abdomen. Mr. Batchelder uttered the exclamation, "I'm stabbed," and falling backwards expired almost immediately.

Col. Suttle, who claims Burns as his property, was arrested Friday on a charge of attempting to kidnap a citizen of Massachusetts, and is held under $5000 bonds.

On Saturday, the following persons were arraigned as accessories to the murder of James Batchelder: A. G. Brown Jr., Cambridge law student; John J. Roberts, Walter Finney, John Westly, Wesley Bishop, Thomas Jackson, (the five last named being colored); Henry Howe, Martin, Stowell, and John Thomson.

TOTAL DESTRUCTION OF THE CITY OF SAN SALVADOR.

The City of San Salvador was totally destroyed by earthquake on the night of Easter Sunday; 500 lives were lost and over $4,000,000 worth of property destroyed. The shock lasted nearly a minute, laying the whole city level with the ground.

On the Friday previous, until the moment of the calamity, strong shocks of earthquakes were experienced from day to day until the night of Sunday, the 30th, when, about ten o'clock, P. M., a rolling sensation, as that of a wave of the sea, and which lasted about fifty seconds, laid the whole city in ruins. The night being calm, the dust occasioned by the falling of the houses obscured the whole atmosphere. Plunder and robbery followed, the government, with the troops, having removed from the scene of destruction at an early hour on the following morning. The consequences accompanying the catastrophe are likely to be attended with very serious results to commercial business throughout the republic. The authorities have petitioned the neighboring States for assistance in money, provisions and labour.

In Boston on Monday night May 1st, Lyman Coombs fell asleep or fainted while feeding one of Gleason's fast cylinder presses. He fell upon the press, and one of his arms was drawn in by the cylinder till it was crushed to pieces and stopped the press. The type in the form was greatly battered by the bones of the poor fellow's crushed limb.

The great annular eclipse of Friday, (26th ult.) was "no show at all" anywhere in these parts, and if the arrangements for spectators can't be a little better perfected, we don't care if the exhibition don't come this way again for half a century. The fact is, the house was badly lighted, and the whole performance a failure in the estimation of everybody we have heard speak of it, except "the man in the moon," who had a private box, and admitted no one, not even "the gentlemen of the press."—the old curmudgeon!—Brunswick Tel.

The Gardiner Transcript says:— Dame Nature hung a curtain over the performance in the shape of a cloud, causing a great depression of smoked glasses. Several tickets labeled "Good for this day only," and entitling the holders to look at the show, had been sold in the forenoon,—the purchasers of which in the afternoon were earnestly engaged in trying to exchange them for Stock in the under ground railroad. Chickens, though almonished by their maternal relatives to go to roost, persisted in setting up till their usual hour.

Mr. Soule and the Queen of Spain.

A letter in the N. Y. Tribune on American diplomacy at Madrid, after detailing the Black Warrior conversations, concludes with this paragraph: "At this stage of the proceedings, the Queen sent for Mr. Soule, who, it may as well be here repeated, is in favor at the palace, while, on the contrary, Calderon is hated by her. Her majesty, who indulges in a very strong diet, into which brandy and cigars enter largely, and who is not very choice in her language, wished to know of Mr. Soule what the row meant between him and M. Calderon. On Mr. S. stating the case, she stamped her foot violently on the floor, and said that Calderon was a d—d fool; that she wished Soule would manage the affair so as to get rid of him, and she advised him to press him hard." It is generally thought in diplomatic circles in Paris, that between Mr. Soule and the Queen, Calderon will be brought to a conclusion—of some kind."

The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec has written a pastoral letter prescribing public prayers for the purpose of drawing down the blessings of Heaven on the allied armies of France and England in the pending war. His Grace sums up the objects of the Czar in an able manner, and alludes in terms of merited severity to the indignities to which Catholics have been subjected in Russia, and particularly to the scourging of the nuns in Poland some years since, an atrocious act, for which the Emperor was roundly lectured by the predecessor of Pius IX. Every effort is being made on both sides to make the war a religious crusade; but we apprehend that "villanous salt-petre" will prove a more potent agent in conquering a peace than paters and aves on either side.—N. Y. Herald.

A WOMAN CONVICTED OF MURDER.—Troy May 28.—The jury in the case of Henrietta Robinson, charged with murder, after being out nearly three hours, returned with a verdict of guilty. She received the verdict with great boldness, and exclaimed, "Shame on you, Judge, you are prejudiced against me." She also charged the jury with being bribed. Sentence was deferred until Monday morning, to allow her counsel to bring in a bill of exceptions.

The prisoner's manner after the rendition of the verdict, was strange and her language incoherent.

The eclipse of Friday was a failure, and we are sorry we advertised it to come off. The day was very cloudy, and the increased darkness was not observable for more than half an hour. Very small potatoes, since it was put on the list of eclipses two centuries ago. The adventists who expected to go up are no doubt very much disappointed. We hope now some foolish people who have deserted their business will return to their avocations.—Reg. Journal.

One A. Farnsworth, who signs himself 'Brevet Major of New York Volunteers,' and G. Bolivar Hall, who has the same military designation publish a call in the New York Herald declaring that a war with Spain is inevitable, and announcing their design of raising a regiment of infantry, of 1,000 men, to offer to the Federal Government, to prosecute the war.

A despatch from Boston dated May 30th is as follows:

Our citizens generally are becoming tired of military despotism about the Court House, and urgent appeals are made to have the slave case adjourned to the Navy Yard, or one of Gov't Islands. If the trial continues much longer, it is not improbable Uncle Sam will have notice to quit the Court House, which is city property, and build a tenement of his own for his military displays.

The eclipse went off admirably in New York, and all Gotham went upon the house-tops to look

WE THINK WE ARE JUSTIFIED IN SAYING, That no other Pills, or remedy for Liver Complaint, has gained, so deservedly, the reputation now enjoyed by Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills. As an evidence that they will cure, read the following certificate from a lady residing in our own city.

NEW YORK, January 23, 1852. This is to certify that I have had the liver complaint for six years, and never could get any medicine to help me until I commenced using Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills. I can only say to the public, that they have completely cured me and I do hereby recommend them to all persons afflicted with a diseased liver. They will cure.—Try them. MARIA EVANS, No. 93 Lewis street.

P. S. The above valuable remedy, also Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug stores in this city.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public.

The sales of Holloway's Pills and Ointment have wonderfully increased lately, we presume, therefore, that the well known virtues the medicine possess are becoming universally appreciated thousands of persons of both sexes testify diurnally that their effect is miraculous; they act conjointly so directly upon the system, the one internally and other externally, that the most serious cases will readily yield to their wonderful power.

ELECTORS OF CARLETON.

In accordance with the notice given by me at my last election, that I would at this time be a Candidate for your suffrages, I now inform you that it is my intention to meet you at the Hustings on the 17th instant for that purpose, on which occasion I will give you my views on some of those important questions which will at an early day engross the attention of the Legislature.

Having served you for the past eight years in the Legislature, it is for you to say whether I shall continue to be your Representative.

Your decision on this important question will be satisfactory to me.

Yours &c.,

CHARLES CONNELL.

Woodstock June 3, 1854.

To the Electors OF THE COUNTY OF CARLETON.

GENTLEMEN:—

Being solicited by a large number of the independent Electors of the County, to become a Candidate for your suffrages, I have decided to present myself before you at the approaching election in that character. Should you elect me as your Representative you must do it freely and independently. I should esteem it the highest honor to represent a free and independent people.

I have frequently heard the Electors in the different parts of this County, complain that all the Members were from the vicinity of Woodstock, it now rests with you to say whether it shall be the case for the future.

Gentlemen, if you elect me you may rely on my integrity to promote your interest to the utmost of my ability. I unflinchingly maintain that the source of Government is in the people, and that those to whom it is entrusted should be accountable to the people, and are good subjects so long as they consult the welfare of the people.

The most of you are acquainted with me and I hope to meet you at the Hustings and there more fully explain my views.

I have the honor to be Gentlemen, Your Obedient Servant,

L. R. HARDING.
